FUGITIVE PURSUED.

Chicago's Travelers Much Annoyed.

"Identifications" of Wrecker Stensland Become All Too Numerous.

Another Woman Is Brought Into Affair Through Her Love of Herring.

Depositors Hope to Obtain Backing for a New Monetary Concern.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Since the promulgation of the reward of $5000 for the capture of Stensland, the fugitive banker, Chicago business men bearing the slightest resemblance to him and contemplating vacation or business trips have been advised by the police to take with them cards of identification, to avoid annoyance and possible arrest by overzealous sleuths.

A prominent La Salle street broker was the first to avail himself of Chief Collins's suggestion, and received a letter to the effect that "The bearer is not Stensland and is O. K." The broker bore a slight resemblance to Stensland, having a gray beard and mustache.

WANTED PROTECTION.

"I have been annoyed repeatedly by persons whom I supposed were detectives," said he. "They have stopped me on the streets and inquired anxiously if I was not the missing bank president. It has reached such a state that I want protection. I am contemplating a vacation trip into Northern Michigan, and I don't want to be seized as the fugitive banker while there."

ANOTHER WOMAN FIGURES.

Another "woman in the case" came into attention today. She is Mrs. Anna Nelson Curtis, and this time it is the Cashier H. W. Herring whose name is linked with nightly revels, the popping of champagne bottles and money thrown to the winds in the effort to beat the bookmakers' game.

Mrs. Curtis, a rather pretty young woman, was once employed as a bookkeeper in the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank, and while there married young Curtis, also an employé of the Stensland institution.

WEEPS OVER HER STORY.

With her face buried in her hands and trembling with sobs, Mrs. Curtis sat in the parlor of her little home on Potomac avenue, today, and told the story of the trusted cashier's professions of undying love for her. She says that she pleaded with him to give up his gambling operations, but without avail.

Mrs. Curtis has not worked at the bank for a year past. She has not worked at all in these twelve months, but often saw Herring. Her year in the bank as a bookkeeper was a happy one until she met and became engaged to Curtis.

TRIED TO RAISE HIM.

Herring learned of her engagement, and told her he would provide a good position for her husband, she said, but it was not long after the marriage, she declares, when she took up the old life with Herring. They went out to wine suppers, had long cab rides and enjoyed life immensely. Through it all she tried to raise him up, she says.

Curtis left her three months ago, taking all her money, she says. She does not know where he is now.

BACKING FOR THE BANK.

EFFORTS TO SECURE IT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—A proposition to restore confidence among the commercial interests in Milwaukee avenue, by having the wrecked bank taken over by the big bankers of Chicago will be made by a central committee of the various depositors organization.

The committee, which is composed of representatives of the Polish, Italian and Commercial Depositors' Association, will hold a conference with James B. Forgan, president of the First National Bank and a committee of the Clearinghouse Association. The committee will urge upon Forgan and the Clearinghouse Committee the necessity of a bank in the locality of the wrecked institution, and pledge the support of the business men of the northwest side to a new institution, under the control of the large banks.

HOW TO REACH NELSON.

The police wired yesterday to Nelson, B. C. A small red bound book which was found in Stensland's desk contains explicit directions for reaching Nelson. The directions are in the handwriting of President Stensland.

"By way of Spokane," reads one direction. Another is "Soo Line and Canadian Pacific, thence by steamer."

"SEEN" IN PITTSBURGH.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 15.—It was reported late this afternoon that Paul O. Stensland was in Pittsburgh today. Oscar Holmes, a mechanical engineer of this city, says he recognized him. When he spoke to him, calling him by name, Stensland said: "For God's sake is it you? Don't give me away."

SYSTEMATIC LOOT.

From Mrs. Curtis, the police learned that a syndicate of touts and bookmakers assisted Cashier Herring and his chief in the systematic looting of the institution. Not only were thousands of dollars of the depositors' savings squandered in betting, but the syndicate dropped money on the stock market and maintained a racing stable with cash supplied by the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank.

The scale of the operations carried on by this syndicate may be inferred from the fact that, for years, the average daily wagers aggregated $300, exclusive of the cost of maintaining a string of horses whose "killings" were decidedly infrequent.

"SADIE" AGAIN IN LIMELIGHT.

MASON WOMAN, WHO DAZZLED BOSTON, IN NEW ROLE.

Police Declare the "Treasure Island" Schemer Is Now Under Arrest in New York Charged With Swindling in the Matrimonial Syndicate Game Recently Unearthed.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Local detectives say that the handsome Mrs. Bina F. Verrault, alias Sadie Mason and many other names, now under arrest in New York for alleged swindling in the big matrimonial syndicate game, is none other than Sadie Mason, who suddenly disappeared from Boston last March after dazzling Boston inventors with a scheme for reclaiming buried pirates' treasure on an island near the coast of Peru, and another board on an island in the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

She left here while the detectives were investigating her scheme for securing financial backers for the treasure expedition.

Police-Capt. Dugan says that one member of the gang arrested in New York is the same G. Allen Mason who passed as Sadie Mason's brother at a Waltham-street lodging house here while they were working the pirate treasure scheme, and is George Allen Mason, an ex-convict from Springfield jail where he served two years for blackmail in the "Badger game" with his brother, Frank Algerton Mason.

The two Allens were clever "badger" workers, the first-named being the one who launched the pirates' treasure plan. The police investigations nipped their operations in the bud.

Sadie worked the newspapers here for a big story about $2,000,000 in gold, silver and precious stones being buried on an island in the Gulf of St. Lawrence where it had been conveyed from a big cache on the coast of Peru where the inhabitants shipped it during the revolutionary uprising in 1830.

Sadie claims Nova Scotia as her home and advices state that she has a shady record in Nova Scotia.

Joseph B. Phipps, a Boston real estate operator, involved in the New York affair, proves his innocence of any connection with the gang. Sadie secured the collection checks for Mrs. James Pemberton Browne, who is a friend and confidant of "Bina Verrault," when Mrs. Browne was in Boston.

WOMAN LEADS IN WHALE HUNT.

Wife of Capt Earl Assists in Command of Vessel on Long Cruise in Indian Ocean.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW BEDFORD, Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With a woman on board as an assistant navigator, the bark Charles W. Morgan, the second oldest whaling vessel in the world, sailed today for Crozette grounds in the Indian Ocean on a two years' cruise after whales.

Besides whaling supplies, the Morgan is loaded down with two years' provisions, including great coops of chickens nailed to the decks as part precautions against scurvy.

Mrs. J. M. Earl, wife of Capt. Earl, the commander, will act as his assistant navigator. She is expert and fully competent to handle the ship at any time. She was a school teacher in New Zealand before her marriage.

The first mate is a Gay Head Indian; the second mate is a lineal descendant of Fletcher Christian, one of the mutineers of the English ship Bounty in 1787.

The crew includes Indians, Filipinos, Chimorans, Tahitians, Kanakas, Portuguese, Hebrews and Americans. Every kind of musical instrument is taken along to enliven the monotony of the voyage.

GOES BACK TO STAGE LIFE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The list of well-known Chicago women on the stage will be increased next month by the return to the footlights of Mrs. Morton J. Stephenson, the wife of the lawyer.

Mrs. Stephenson has had a stage career in which she won great success but she retired some nine or ten years ago and since then has been a favorite in Chicago society.

She will appear with Clay Clement, who is to star in a new play.

MONARCHS' MEETING.

King aad Kaiser Royally Kiss.

Simple Inaugural of Events of Importance to Two Great Powers.

His Britannic Majesty Is a Source of Worriment to the Germans.

Had Accepted Invitation to Dine With Luxemburg. English Secrecy.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BERLIN, Aug. 15.—A dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Cronberg says it is stated that King Edward has announced to the Grand Duke of Luxemburg that he would dine with him.

The Lokal Anzeiger says it is impossible to verify the statement, but, if true, it will make an exceedingly bad impression apong the German people, emphasizing the lack of harmony between the monarchs far more than the meeting had awakened hopes of the restoration of harmony.

The Grand Duchy of Luxemburg, which was declared neutral territory by the Treaty of London of 1867, was one of the factors in the dispute between France and Prussia which caused the Franco-German War of 1870-71. It formerly was included in the dissolved German confederation.

Luxemburg, therefore, has been the cause of much ill-feeling in Germany, and the report that King Edward is reported to have determined to visit the reigning Grand Duke has aroused resentment among Germans.

CHANGES HIS MIND.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CRONBURG, Aug. 15.—The correspondent here of the Berlin Lokal Anzeiger makes the statement that King Edward had planned to visit the Grand Duke at Luxemburg, but that he has since abandoned his intention.

CRONBERG, Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At 8:45 o'clock this morning, King Edward's special train drew up here. His Majesty, looking the picture of health, was warmly saluted by the Emperor, who had come down on his Mercedes automobile, accompanied by Prince and Princess Friederich Karl, of Hesse. The King wore a frock coat, a black silk hat, having been specially asked by the Emperor to waive the question of a uniform, in order to be more at his ease, also to emphasize the informality of the meeting.

THE ROYAL SALUTE.

The Emperor assisted the King in alighting and then they kissed each other on both cheeks. The meeting was very cordial.

King Edward was accompanied by Sir Charles Harding, permanent Under Secretary of the Foreign Office, Maj.-Gen. Sir Stanley Clark, chief equerry, and Maj. Frederick E. G. Posnon, also equerry to His Majesty.

Sir Frank Lascelles, the British Ambassador to Germany, and the British Consul-General Franz Oppenheimer joined the royal party at Frankfort.

After introductions had been exchanged, the royal party and the following proceeded to Fredreichshof in automobiles, the Emperor and King Edward and Prince and Princess Friederich Karl occupying the first machine.

Up a winding, zigzag road, gaily decorated with flags, the big yellow automobile conveyed the smiling King and the particularly happy-looking Kaiser, through crowds of schoolgirls, clad in their Sunday frocks, carrying flags and bouquets, away to Friedrichshof, over which the imperial standard was seen waving in the breeze.

After luncheon, three autos took the party to Saalburg. They arrived there at 4 o'clock. After visiting the Roman camp, they went on to Homburg, returning later to Friedrichshof for dinner. King Edward goes to Marienbad tomorrow.

SECRECY IN LONDON.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, Aug. 15.—The strictest silence is maintained in official circles as to the subjects to be discussed by King Edward and Emperor William at their meeting at Friedrichshoff. Up to the last moment is was not admitted at the Foreign Office that Sir Charles Hardings would accompany the King, when he had been away on a holiday and broke it up to join the royal party on the continent. His presence adds significance to the meeting for as the Permanent Under Secretary of the Foreign Office, he is really the man who carries on the foreign affairs of the country, and the fact that he is attending King Edward leads to the belief here that the discussion between Their Majesties will be of the greatest range and take in all questions outstanding between the two countries and those likely to come up in the future.

GERMANY'S PERSIAN HOBBY.

Germany at present is more directly interested in Persia than any other country, and it is believed here that her aim is to secure a port on the Persian Gulf as a terminus for the Bagdad Railway.

WHERE MENACE LIES.

"Great Britain," said one official to The Associated Press representative today, "does not oppose the acquisition by Germany of a commercial port on the Persian Gulf, but, as has been stated repeatedly, the establishment of a naval or military base on the Gulf such as Kiao Chou in China, would be a menace to Great Britain.

"It is a very simple matter to solve. Although the concession to the Bagdad Railway is held by a German bank, it is stated that they have not sufficient capital to complete it. If they would apply foreign capital, the question would be in a position to be taken up by the two governments.

It is likely that the two monarchs will talk over Russian affairs, and undoubtedly they will try to remove the ill-feelings between the two powers, so manifest during the last few years.

DANISH KING'S VISIT.

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 15.—It is reported that King Frederick will visit Emperor William on the beginning of October and subsequently go to London to see King Edward.

WOULD VISIT AMERICA.

KAISER'S EARNEST WISH.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BERLIN, Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At the special request of the Emperor, Herman Ridder prolonged his sojourn at Wilhelmshoehe for a second audience, which took place yesterday. The Emperor spent more than an hour in animated conversation on American topics. He said it was his dearest wish to visit America and make the personal acquaintance of President Roosevelt, whom he admires intensely, and also to see the American country and people.

Whether such a visit can be made depends on the views of his ministers and advisers here.

The Emperor remarked that when he proceeds to Scandinavia or the Mediterranean, he is constantly in touch with the home authorities. The introduction of wireless telegraphy immensely facilitates the prospects of his visit to America. In conclusion, the Emperor said in perfect English: "The sooner I can go, the better pleased I shall be."

D. R. Francis of St. Louis dined today with Mr. Tower, the American Ambassador here. The Emperor is desirous of granting an audience for presentation of the exposition gold medal, but this cannot take place before the autumn review, in about two weeks time.

FIGHT ENDS IN DRAW.

DENVER, Aug. 15.—Mike (Twin) Sullivan and Rube Smith fought a 20-round draw here tonight for the white welter-weight championship of the world.

COLD FACT SECURED.

Ann Arbor Railway Discriminated.

Federal Investigators Finish Sensational Hearing of Toledo Ice Case.

All Evidence Tends Clearly to Show Free Hauling for the Trust.

George Schuller of Suffering Company Provokes Opponent's Rage.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TOLEDO, (O.,) Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With the close, tonight, of the Federal investigation of the relations of the railroads to the Toledo ice trust, it was practically, proven that the discrimination, in so far as the Ann Arbor Railroad is concerned, has been practiced freely.

All the evidence has tended to show that not only special rates were given to the Toledo Ice Company, which was composed of officials of the road, but that special concessions in the handling of freight free and the handing out of free transportation had also been discriminating to the injury of the Schuller Ice Company.

DIFFERENCE OF RATES.

It was directly shown during the afternoon that a rate of $1.10 from Bay City to Toledo had been forced upon P. H. Breining by the Pere Marquette line, at the same time that other shippers were enjoying a rate of 80 cents between the same points.

An earnest effort was made to get evidence on the Pere Marquette, and enough was shown to warrant a deeper investigation, which will undoubtedly follow.

SCHULLER'S GRIEVANCES.

The sensational story of the day was that of George Schuller, an ice man of twenty-six years' experience. He said it would take a week to tell all his grievances. The principal charge was that the Ann Arbor Railroad, after its officials had formed the Toledo Ice Company, left him stranded, practically without cars, while many cars were sidetracked on the Toledo Ice Company's switch. He also claimed that the 25-cent rate, which was given in the Toledo Hospital for ice and which was shown to have been used by the Toledo company, which billed its ice under the name of the hospital and then stored it in its own houses in Toledo, was not an open and published rate, as the Ann Arbor road claimed.

In this, Schuller was sustained by the fact that the Ann Arbor line was unable to show any printed tariff sheet announcing such a rate, which was just half the regular rate.

CONTRARY TO LAW.

Schuller also stated that, contrary to the Michigan laws, ex-President Ashley had arranged to haul a freight car for him, attached to the evening passenger train, until he withdrew his business partially from the Ann Arbor road, and that he then remanded the special privilege.

ASHLEY IN A RAGE.

Ashley, in a rage, sprang to his feet and branded the statement as vindictive and of the vilest sort.

With the hearing of a statement from Ashley, endeavoring to explain away all the irregularities, the commission ended its work and left for Washington.

FIRE AT SAN JOSE.

Several Firms Burned Out—Due to the Explosion of a Lantern in Man's Hands.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN JOSE, Aug. 15.—A fire caused by the explosion of a lantern in the hands of Jacob Gauthier, caused a conflagration this afternoon which for a time threatened to wipe out the entire block on East Santa Clara street, extending from Third strete to Fourth street, and caused property loss of $15,000.

Gauthier, with his clothing aflame, was rescued from a burning building by Michael Ucovich at the peril of his life. Gauthier was removed in an ambulance to the City Receiving Hospital. He was badly burned about the arms and legs and is in a precarious condition.

Practically the entire fire department of the city finally confined the fire to G. W. Emerson's locksmith shop, Fike's livery stabe and the Sperry Flour Company's mills.

The individual losses have been estimated as follows:

Sperry Flour Company, $10,000, almost covered by insurance; Fike's livery stable, $4000; Emerson's locksmith shop, $1000.

The building in which the fire originated was a shed belonging to the Alliance Land Company of Oakland and adjoined its new building in process of construction at the corner of Third and Santa Clara streets.

MEXICANS BLOWN UP WITH TWO FOREMEN.

Thirty Laborers Torn to Fragments By Explosion of Dynamite—One of Them Fell With a Box of Explosive. Buildings Destroyed.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EL PASO, (Tex.) Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Thirty Mexican laborers and two American foremen were blown to pieces in the explosion of a carload of dynamite at the Santa Eulalia mines, three miles from the city of Chihuahua, Mex., late this afternoon.

The car of dynamite, which was consigned to the Robinson mines, was being unloaded by a gang of men. One of the laborers tripped and fell with a box of the explosive.

The detonation set off the entire car, with the result that every man within a distance of 100 yards was instantly killed.

OFFICES DESTROYED.

While the full details have not been received, it is known that the offices of the mines have been destroyed.

The bodies of the men were blown to bits, and shreds of flesh and pieces of arms and legs were found at a distance of a mile from the scene.

Not a single man who was near the explosion escaped with his life.

The noise of the explosion was heard distinctly in Chihuahua.

OTHER REPORTS.

Wires which reached officials at the Mexican Central offices here contain the details as given, but one report has reached here that several of the American officials at the mine had been killed. This, however, is not mentioned in the railway dispatches.

It is thought that the power plant at the mines is also destroyed.

THINK PEARY IS LOST.

No Word from the Arctic Explorer Since He Left, Over a Year Ago.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The belief is current here in shipping and scientific circles that Commander Peary is lost in his dash for the North Pole. No word has been received from him, and friends are growing anxious.

A minority inclined to the belief that with his sturdy band, he is meeting with success, and word of their having reached the goal is expected to come any time, but Capt. Peary sailed July 16, 1906, and some of the most skeptical are gradually expressing their belief that his name must be added to the long death roll of daring explorers.

Walter Wellman expects to start for the Pole within a very few days, possibly during the present week.

WARSAW IN TUMULT WITH REBEL SHOTS.

Outbreak of Concerted Massacres of Police and Infantry Patrols—Twenty-eight Lives Taken and Scores of People Wounded.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 15.—Acting apparently with a definite plan and at a signal, the terrorists and revolutionists today inaugurated a carnival of murderous attacks with bombs and revolvers on the police and troops in various cities in Poland, echoes of which are heard from Samara, Ufa, Yalta, Kiev and even far-away Chita, where the acting chief of police was slain, almost on his own doorstep.

The revolutionists' campaign famed out with especial violence at Warsaw, where over a score were killed in the streets and many more were wounded. Among the killed, according to latest official advices, were a Hebrew merchant and a woman. The returns are not all in.

Policemen and soldiers were shot down like rabbits in the streets. Their assailants, who traveled in small bands, almost all escaped. The only considerable capture was a band of ten who had invaded a grog shop and killed a soldier. These were taken by a passing patrol.

Bombs were employed in an attack on the police station in Warsaw, where a sergeant, two patrolmen and a soldier were wounded.

WARSAW, Aug. 15.—There were many sanguinary conflicts here today, with revolutionists. These have organized wholesale massacres of policemen, gendarmes, and infantry patrols.

The conspirators shot and killed seventeen policemen, four gendarmes and seven infantry patrolmen, and wounded a score more.

Soldiers fired a volley into a crowd, killing fifteen and wounding with bullets and bayonets, 130.

Bombs were thrown at policemen in three different parts of the city, resulting in nearly 100 persons being injured. A panic prevails throughout Warsaw.

At Wloclawek, Chief of Police Nirnowics and Provincial Police Captain Bletrow have been murdered.

PLANNED FOR REVENGE.

The massacre is supposed to have been planned by revolutionists in revenge for the arrest recently of ten Socialist workmen in the iron-working suburb of Praga.

It was a Catholic holiday, and no one suspected that a massacre was in preparation. The weather was beautiful, the city was calm and thousands of people were crowding outgoing excursion trains.

Simultaneously the attacks on policemen began at 10 o'clock in the morning. About 1 o'clock in the afternoon news began to arrive from all parts of the city, revealing the concerted nature of the attacks. In Ostrovaskia street four men attacked a sergeant of police, but the latter was able to capture three of them, who were armed with revolvers.

In a fight in Torgovie street revolutionists shot down two soldiers, and a Jewish merchant was killed by a stray bullet. A band of three men invaded a grog shop in Cholodena street. Here they wounded a soldier.

The clerk and wife of the proprietor opened fire on the invaders, and a passing patrol, attracted by the disturbance, seized the entrance of the shop and captured the band.

IN THE AFTERNOON.

In the afternoon strong detachments of infantry, dragoons and Cossacks appeared in the streets, dispersing the crowds with their swords, firearms and bayonets. The streets were quickly emptied, and by 3 o'clock all the shops and restaurants were closed. Ambulances and vans were kept busy carrying the wounded to hospitals. All passers-by were searched by patrols, and many arrests were made.

LOADED FOR GRAND DUKE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 15.—The investigation into the attempt on the life of Grand Duke Nicholas, August 10, at the Guards camp maneuvers at Krasnoye-Selo, has developed that ball cartridges were used in ninety-six rifles of the sharpshooters.

The Krasnoye-Selo incident was preceded, early in the week, by two occurrences directly due to disloyalty among the troops. Some men of the White Sea regiment fired at one of their officers from ambush, and a sergeant of the Onirerski Regiment, who evidently had become aware that plotting was taking place among the men, was killed.

CAPT. KOCK ESCAPED.

It turns out that the police made a mistake when they presumed they had captured Capt. Kock, commander of the Red Guards of Finland. The captain is now in Christiania, Norway, whence he writes that he escaped, disguised as a cab driver, and actually drove two detectives who were searching for him.

CALLED TO THE COLORS.

As proof of the ineffectiveness of the Viborg manifesto, the Minister of War announces that 269,718 of the recruits called to the colors have already subscribed their names at the offices of the recruiting boards.

The Minister of Railways and Communications, on account of the daily hold-ups of trains and the murder of officials of the railroads, has sent a circular to the railroad superintendents, directing them to use military guards wherever danger exists.

Throughout the Caucasus and the Volga region, all trains now carry soldier guards and passengers are required to establish their identity before being allowed to enter the cars.

PROF. BLAKESLEE ARRESTED.

Prof. George H. Blakeslee of Clark University, Worcester, Mass., who was accompanied by M. N. Lubenkow, a newspaper man, was arrested at Velokamsk, yesterday, as a suspicious character although he had a certificate of identity from the American Consul-General, Mr. Smith, of Moscow, and was on the point of being sent to Velokamsk, when he was released by order of the Governor-General at the request of Consul Smith, who, in the meantime, had been apprised by telegraph of the situation.

Prof. Blakeslee is one of a number of Americans traveling in Russia studying the political, social and economic conditions.

POLISH CITIES ALARMED.

KILLINGS IN SEVERAL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 15.—Among other Polish cities signalled out by the terrorists were Lodz, where six soldiers, three patrolmen and the wife of a police captain were wounded by the explosion of bombs in the police station, and two soldiers and two terrorists killed in the streets. Random, where a bomb was thrown in the police station, killing the wife and child of the captain. Vlottlasak, where a captain was slain; and Plock, where, at a given signal, the policemen on all the posts were simultaneously attacked, and several of them wounded.

MARTIAL LAW ON RAILS.

On account of the agrarian disorders, especially several attacks on post trains, the railway between Samara and Zlatoust, which was already carrying guards on all its trains, was today placed under martial law. Two of these attacks occurred today near Ufa, revolutionists in each case flagging the train, bursting open the doors of the main cars with bombs and rifling the registered pouches. The booty in one case amounted to 115,000; in the other case the amount is not known.

ATTACK ON LODZ POLICE.

THREE BOMBS WRECK BUILDING.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LODZ, Aug. 15.—Three bombs were thrown into the station house of the Third Police Precinct here at 6 o'clock this evening and exploding, wrecked the building and an adjoining lodging-house, and wounded six soldiers of the guard seriously, three policemen and the wife of the captain of the precinct.

A bomb was thrown at two Cossacks in Nicholas street, killing one of them and wounding the other. The soldier was killed, and a soldier and a policeman were wounded in Alexander street. Another patrolman was killed in Peter street.

Following the bomb outrages, infantry patrols fired volleys in all directions in several streets, the firing continuing until 10 o'clock at night. Over twenty persons were severely wounded, and many others were slightly injured. Traffic was suspended, and the shops were closed.

OUTBREAK IN CAUCASIA.

OFFICIALLY ADMITTED SERIOUS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 15.—The Imperial Messenger announces that, owing to a serious revolutionary outbreak, the whole Caucasia, with the exception of a few districts, is under martial law.

In the direction of Shusha and Sanguer, armed bands openly attacked detachments of troops. The authorities have sufficient military force at their disposal to suppress the disorders.

With reference to racial conflicts in Eastern Caucasia, the Imperial Messenger says a tendency to brigandage is notable among the Mohammedan people, but this can hardly be attributed to Pan-Islamism, or a call to a holy war against Christians.

CHITA, Aug. 15.—Acting Chief of Police Gorpinichinki was shot today as he was leaving his home. The assassin escaped.

ATTACKED BY ARMED BAND.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAMARA, Aug. 15.—While a captain of police and a captain of the army were driving in suburbs today they were attacked by an armed band and their coachmen was killed. The officers defended themselves in their carriage until the arrival of a patrol. In the ensuing engagement one of the revolutionists was killed and another, fleeing, fell, and a bomb, which he was carrying, exploded and blew off his hand. All the survivors were captured.

SHOOTING AT HER AND PARAMOUR JUSTIFIABLE.

New Orleans Tragedy Marked With Impressive Court Scene in Which the Husband Is Released from Charge of Murder After the Evidence Is Placed Before the Jurist.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Overcome with emotion and sobbing like a child, Judge Aucoin, in the City Criminal Court, today discharged Peter Manale, a young butcher, who was charged with the murder of his wife in this city July 8, 1906.

On that fatal day Manale had gone to his work about 5 o'clock in the morning. He had suspected for some time that all was not right at his home, and this morning he returned early, scaled the rear fence and entered his house. In the bed with his wife, where two hours before he had left his little son, he found a young man by the name of Ad Rowe, a married man and a paper hanger by trade.

Manale drew a revolver and fired two shots. One of the bullets struck Rowe, inflicting a flesh wound, while the other lodged in Mrs. Manale's breast. Rowe meanwhile jumped from a window and escaped in his underclothes. Mrs. Manale died two days later.

Manale's discharge followed the telling of his own story on the stand and Judge Aucoin was cheered by the spectators in the courtroom. Rowe, in his testimony, admitted that he had held illicit relations with Mrs. Manale for nine months.

BILL CAUSES SHOOTING.

DOCTOR BORES SALOON-KEEPER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

COLUSA, Aug. 15.—Dr. L. H. Francis shot and fatally wounded S. P. Morton, a saloon-keeper, at Princeton this morning.

The trouble started yesterday afternoon when Francis presented a bill for professional services to Morton, which act was resented and resulted in Francis being slapped three times. This morning Morton armed himself and went to Francis's office. Francis ordered him to keep outside, but Morton continued to advance with a revolver in his hand. As he stepped inside a door, Francis fired his own revolver, the bullet striking Morton in the center of the neck, inflicting a would that is thought to be fatal.

CRIME BRIEFS.

Murderers' Lair Discovered.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—A deserted lair 150 yards from the Dutch windmill in Golden Gate Park that had been occupied by the four youths who, it is believed, took the life of Fred Mullinix as he was walking with Miss Norma Plisa along the ocean beach Sunday night, was discovered by the police yesterday. Blankets and other material were found. Important clews were gained, and, together with other evidence gathered, the prospects have brightened for running down the perpetrators of the murder.

Slashes With His Razor.

BATAVIA (Ill.) Aug. 15.—In a fit of insanity yesterday Emil Berner, a mechanic here, murdered his brother-in-law, Ernest Fransen, by cutting his throat with a razor; slashed Mrs. Berner so severely that she will die, and then cut his own throat, dying within a few minutes.

Frenzied Shoppers at St. Joseph, Mo., Make Scramble in Department Store.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. JOSEPH, Aug. 15.—One woman perhaps fatally injured, many others more or less seriously hurt, is the result of a bargain-day rush at a local department store. The Chief of Police ordered the store closed, but rescinded the order when he found that the squad of police on duty there had the situation under control.

Mrs. Susan Weiland, No. 839 North Twenty-fifth street, was seriously injured, and numbers of others were carried out of the crowd overcome by heat and in a fainting condition, but were able to go home without medical attention.

Royston's Horses have arrived at Greytown, Natal, on the way to the Tugela Valley and Zululand, to operate against the irreconcilable natives.

BRIBERY OF JUDGES.

That attempts to brige judges are of frequent occurrence in Chicago was declared today by Judge Gibbons of the Circuit Court. The judge stated that although frequent attempts are made to influence judges in this manner, the bribers are careful to make their proposals in a diplomatic manner, in order to escape punishment. "I venture to say that there is not a judge in Chicago who has not been offered a bribe," said Judge Gibbons. "I can also say that I never heard of an instance where the bribe was accepted. I have been offered a sum as high as $50,000 to influence a decision; but the offers have always been made in such a manner that there was not sufficient grounds for punishment."

SCORES WITH PISTOL.

Lieut. Camp of the Ninth Cavalry equaled the army pistol record at the annual pistol competitive shoot held at Fort Sheridan today. He made a score of 288 out of a possible 300. The scores of the seventeen enlisted men who make up the division team ranged from 282 to 267.

William Dietz, who lives here and who has just returned from Cameron Dam, says he does not believe the rumor. He admits that he left his brother a day before the shooting is supposed to have taken place, however. The rumor has created great excitement here, and several parties are being organized to go to the scene of the conflicts between the Mississippi River Boom Company and Dietz.

INFECTED COWS RESOLD.

Vermont Cattle Commission Charged With Double-Dealing With Tuberculosis Animals.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RUTLAND (Vt.) Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sensational charges have been made in affidavits by Frank T. Hutchinson, Worcester, Vt., Frank P. Whitney, Middlesex, and Pearley E. Pope, Montpelier, that condemned tuberculosis cows which had been seized and paid for by the State were later sold to the Swift Rendering Company, which slaughtered them and sold them as beef to regular consumers.

Hutchinson, in his affidavit, states that forty-two cows of his herd which were so condemned and paid for at 80 per cent. of the appraised value by the cattle commission were driven to Swift's rendering plant under authority of the cattle commission and dressed off for beef, placed in cooling rooms and tagged with purchasers' names.

Frank P. Whitney saw the slaughtering and dressing and makes an affidavit to this effect.

TWENTY-SEVEN LASHES ON A GIRL'S BACK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 15.—Intense popular indignation has been created here by the brutal treatment of Mlle. Smyrnoff, a beautiful young woman, at the hands of the crack Chevalier Guards.

While a squadron of these guardsmen was passing along the Levsk Prospect, yesterday, Mlle. Smyrnoff, who was accompanied by another young woman, remarked: "They are as gay as if they had captured Port Arthur."

Pedestrians hearing the remark repeated it, and quite a crowd collected and joined in the jeering. The commander of the cavalrymen suddenly wheeled his squadron and gave the command to charge with drawn whips. The troopers charged the crowd, laying about them right and left.

Mlle. Smyrnoff and her companion, who, in the meantime, had passed down a side street, were pursued. They tried to escape into a doorway, but were caught. Under the guard of an officer they were forced to enter a cab and were driven to the guards' barracks where they were taken before Col. Stenbecker.

THE WHIPPING.

The colonel was disposed to turn Mlle. Smyrnoff over to the police, but other officers interfered, and the girl finally was taken to the court yard, where troopers, in the presence of two officers, administered to her twenty-seven lashes with their whips. The girl's clothing was cut as if by knives by the wire thongs of the whips, and her flesh is terribly lacerated.

The papers are demanding that both the officers and men who took part in the affair be punished, but no action by the military authorities has yet been announced. The Twentieth Century, which printed another story of the case today, has been confiscated.

HER AMERICAN RELATIONS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Friends of Mlle. Nelka de Smyrnoff in this city are greatly alarmed at the story coming from St. Petersburg, today, to the effect that a young woman was scourged there for a bantering remark concerning a troop of Russian soldiers. Mlle. de Smyrnoff lived in this city several years, and was a great favorite socially. She took exceptional interest in philanthropic enterprises, forwarding many schemes for the benefit of the poor and suffering.

Mlle. de Smyrnoff, who left this country last September for Russia, was of American parentage as well as Russian, but it was also said by her friends that she clung to the country of her father.

Her mother was Miss Blow of St. Louis and her father the secretary of the Russian legation in Brazil. Her grandfather was Henry T. Blow, a former representative from Missouri and at one time Minister to Brazil.

NEWS OF THE SHAH.

RUSSIANS HEAR OF FIGHT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 15.—In addition to the details of the sweeping change of the régime presented by the reform party in Persia, and to which the Shah has given his tentative consent, as announced last night, which details came directly from the correspondent of the Associated Press at Teheran, another telegram today says the Shah's action was preceded by fighting of a revolutionary character, during which many persons were killed by the troops.

The correspondent evidently was prevented from telegraphing the particulars.

Heuer, Corps of Engineers, United States Army, has sent to interested parties in this county a letter informing them that he has called a public meeting to be held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms in this city, August 22, at 1 o'clock p.m., at which all parties will be given an opportunity to express their views frankly and publicly before a board of officers of the Corps of Engineers upon the expediency and advisability of the construction of a bridge from Bombarton Point, across the southern arm of the bay, as proposed by the Southern Pacific Company.

Col. Heuer states that it is the intention of the War Department to settle the matter finally upon the arguments and evidence that may be presented at this hearing.

OLD LAND GRANT PASSES.

PURCHASE FOR COLONIZATION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PORTLAND, Aug. 15.—The greater part of the land included in the old Oregon central military road grant was transferred from the California and Oregon Land Company to a syndicate composed of eastern and California capitalists, yesterday. Approximately 500,000 acres are included in the sale and the consideration is about $750,000.

The principal purchasers of this great tract are the Hunter Land Company of Minneapolis and Richard Sykes, a capitalist of Santa Barbara, Cal. Associated with them are the W. B. S. Trimble Company of Jamestown, N. D., and A. E. Johnson, vice-president of the Hunter Land Company.

The tract sold is a strip of land running from the Cascade forest reserve to the Oregon-Idaho boundry, a distance of approximately 325 miles. It has a width of twelve miles. The only portion that is excluded from the sale is a strip about twenty-five miles long running through the Klamath Indian reservation.

The purchase of the tract is declared the first step in an extensive colonization project.

LIEUT. DUNN ON TRIAL.

COURT-MARTIAL CONVENED

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MARE ISLAND, Aug. 15.—A court-martial convened today to try Lieut. Edward H. Dunn, executive officer of the receiving ship Independence, on the charge of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman. The court-martial is composed of Admiral Miller, Capts. Perkins, Phelps and McCracken, Medical Inspector Anderson, Commander A. W. Dodd and Paymaster Potter. Capt. Robert Cutts is advocate. Second Lieutenant White is assisted by Attorney J. T. Ryan, for the defense.

The defense challenged Admiral Miller and Commander Dodd, as members of the court, on the ground of implied bias in cases where liquor acted as a means to irresponsibility of insanity. The challenge of the defense was overruled. Miller and Dodd stated that they would give the defendant an impartial trial.

A motion that the trial be held behind closed doors was overruled by the court. The trial was continued till tomorrow.

The syndicate acquires the three-fourths interest of J. Q. Packard for $400,000.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OTTAWA, Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Three American millionaires have seen the inside of a Canadian court, according to a special to the Montreal Star, from Bracebridge, Muskoka. It says:

"In the police court here, Police Magistrate Spencer held Fergus Haynes of New York and E. OLDEST KNOWN DATE IS 4241, B.C.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—Prof. James S. Breasted, the Egyptologist of the University of Chicago, announced in an article in the Biblical World, published yesterday, that the oldest fixed date in history is 4241 B.C. In that year, he says, the calendar was established, the year beginning on what would now be July 19. Consequently the calendar now in use was 6147 years old last month.

The professor arrived at these conclusions during his long exploration trip in the Nile Valley when he compared the astronomical dates in the old and middle kingdoms of Egypt.

Merchants' Exchange Will Rebuild.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—Application for a building permit was filed today by the Merchants' Exchange, which wants to reconstruct its big building at the corner of California and Leidesdorff streets, at a cost of $700,000. Wells, Fargo & Co. applied for a permit to add two stories to its building at the northeast corner of Mission and Second streets, at a cost of $100,000.

Mexicans Ordered Deported.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—The local Bureau of Immigration has ordered the deportation of twenty Mexicans who came here on the San José and twenty-four who came on the Azetic. It was decided that bringing them here by the Pacific Mail Steamship Company on the understanding that when they reached here the company might, if it wished, hire them as sailors, was a violation of the contract labor law.

Vessel Refused Clearance.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—Because his vessel was not documented at the customhouse, A. W. Hall was refused clearance for the little steamer Rover, and because of his indignation he declared that the collector at San Pedro had once given him clearance for the same vessel. It is not unlikely that the Federal authorities may take possession of the Rover, which Hall, in his application for clearance papers to Manzanillo, Mex., describes as a steam yacht.

GAS COMPANY MUST OBEY.

New York Judge Decides That All Consumers Shall Have Light at Eighty Cents.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Every consumer of gas is entitled to be supplied at 80 cents a thousand cubic feet, in accordance with the law passed by the Legislature, and Judge Geigerich in the Supreme Court today decided that any consumer might have a peremptory mandamus directing the Consolidated Gas Company to furnish gas at that rate.

Although the decision was rendered in response to an application in the name of Dionegi Rebecca, on charges that the company refused to furnish gas to him at 80 cents, and threatened to discontinue the service unless he paid at the $1 rate, it applies equally to several cases of a similar nature.

It is customary to issue alternative writ in cases involving questions of this nature, but Judge Geigerich deems this question of such public importance that he granted a peremptory mandamus.

LAWSON'S SON NOT MARRIED.

Boston Financier Repudiates Groom Who Wedded Miss Bouquin at Providence.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PROVIDENCE (R. I.) Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Rev. J. A. Hainer, pastor of the Pearl-street Baptist Church, has just returned the marriage license issued several days ago to Judson Willis Lawson, who claimed he was the son of Thomas W. Lawson, the Boston financier, and Alice Kansas Bouquin of Kirbyville, Mont., the bride.

They were married at Rev. Hainer's residence August 7, with no witnesses.

It is alleged that the groom is an imposter, though it is difficult to surmise what his game is. Certainly he is not the son of Thomas W. Lawson of Boston.

The marriage license specifically gave these facts and the groom's age as 21. Thomas W. Lawson is having the matter looked into with the cooperation of the Providence police.

TIME GIVEN FOR REFLECTION.

Pope's Encyclical to French Clergy Topic of Absorbing Interest in Paris.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PARIS, Aug. 15.—The Pope's encyclical letter to th eFrench archbishops and bishops regarding the separation law continues to be the topic here of absorbing interest, but the discussion is largely polemical, as the law, not taking effect until December, gives ample time for reflection. Moreover, the absence of all high personages, official or parliamentary, defers an exact determination of the government's course.

Nothing similar to the inventory riots has occurred or is expected to occur either in Paris or the provinces, although the actual application of the law in December probably will accentuate the situation.

OPTICAL SOCIETY MEETS.

SENATOR ALLISON'S HEALTH.

DES MOINES (Iowa) Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Senator Allison, who has been in poor health since the close of the last session of Congress, was unable to attend the State convention, and has thrown aside all business and social cares. His condition of late has somewhat improved and no serious reports were issued today.

The inquest over the body of Mrs. Craigie (John Oliver Hobbes) resulted in a verdict of death by natural causes.

POLITICAL.

HIGGINS LOSES AFTER VICTORY.

Has Bruce Chosen Chairman of State Convention.

Odell Has Vote Retaken and Defeats Him.

Ruef Crowd Claims Alliance With Gillett.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gov. Higgins today threw down the gage of battle to B. B. Odell, Jr., at the meeting of the Republican State Committee and defeated Odell by a vote of 19 to 18 in the selection of a temporary chairman for the State convention.

Gov. Higgins

Higgins's men worked for the selection of Lieut.-Gov. Bruce. Odell opposed the re-election at this time, but the result did not stand.

A few minutes later Odell got the meeting away from the Higgins forces, and Jacob A. Livingston of Brooklyn had the motion put over again and defeated the Governor by a vote of 19 to 18. This result stood, and the Odell men were declaring, tonight, that Odell had won a great victory.

BRYAN'S HOME STATE.

PARTY ANXIOUS TO PLEASE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LINCOLN (Neb.) Aug. 15.—When the Democrats of Nebraska met here today for their State nominating convention the purpose which seemed to be uppermost in the minds of the delegates was to do nothing which might displease William J. Bryan, in behalf of whose proposed Presidential candidacy the Nebraska Democrats desire to insure the greatest possible degree of harmony.

The convention met at 2 o'clock this afternoon, with Judge C. M. Skiles of David City as temporary chairman. The gubernatorial candidate who showed the most strength at the opening of the convention was George W. Berge of Lincoln, who was the nominee of the Democrats and Populists against Gov. Mickey two years ago. There was some opposition to Berge from a few of the Democrats who opposed further fusion with the Populists, but as Berge has declared that he is a Democrat this disappeared.

Judge Skiles, temporary chairman, called the convention to order.

BRYAN GOING TO SPAIN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PARIS, Aug. 15.—William J. Bryan and party left Paris for Madrid today.

HANKS WOULDN'T HAVE IT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LINCOLN (Neb.) Aug. 15.—H. H. Hanks, a banker of Nebraska City, was in the committee-room as a member of the Committee on Resolutions when the First District Congress Convention nominated him for Congress today. When Hanks learned what had been done he positively declined to accept the nomination. The convention then took up the matter again, and T. J. Doyle of Lincoln was nominated for Congress. Doyle had already withdrawn from the race in favor of Hanks.

RUEF'S CROWD FOR GILLETT.

POLITICIANS SAY DEAL WAS ARRANGED HERETOFORE.

They Capture Seventeen Precincts of the Burned City—Humboldt County Friends Already Claim Victory for the Congressman—Pardee Figures in the Box.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—The success of the forces of Attorney Ruef in the Republican end of yesterday's local primary election was not unexpected, but the results have renewed interest in the State struggle between Gov. Pardee and Congressman Gillett for the Gubernatorial nomination at the State Republican Convention.

If the assertions of politicians are to be credited, a deal was arranged prior to the election whereby the Ruef delegates were to be aligned with influences frindly to Gillett. This would mean that practically the entire 159 members of the San Francisco delegation will be arrayed against Gov. Pardee.

The Ruef wing won 17 out of 18 precincts, but the Eggers faction, which captured the Thirty-sixth District, it is said, will also vote for Gillett.

A claim has been advanced by the friends of the Humboldt County Congressman that the workers for the renomination of Gov. Pardee will not be able to control more than 250 votes, where 413 will be required for a choice. The Gillett people claim the primaries have resulted in the election of their man as the Republican candidate.

DEMOCRATIC TANGLE.

The Democratic situation in this city is tangled. All of the old forces were routed, and it will probably require some days to determine what course will be pursued. The regular organization will be further upheld by the appearance of the Independence League which expects to draw heavily from the ranks of the Democracy.

THE BEE'S FIGURES.

GIVE PARDEE 259 VOTES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 15.—The Bee will publish, this afternoon that, according to figures compiled from reports from Pardee's lieutenants in all sections of the State, the results of the primaries yesterday, was as follows:

Pardee, 259; Gillett, 66; Porter, 36; Hayes, 45; Parker, 54; Ruef, 134; doubtful, 123.

The Governor's friends figure he will get at least half of the doubtful votes, which will insure his nomination.

SULLIVAN REPLIES TO BRYAN.

REFUSES TO QUIT COMMITTEE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—Democratic National Committeeman Roger C. Sullivan gave out today a statement which he has prepared and mailed broadcast throughout Illinois in reply to William J. Bryan's demand that he resign from the national committee, and his subsequent assertion that his opposition to Sullivan was prompted solely by his belief that "Roger Sullivan and John P. Hopkins had deliberately robbed the Democrats of Illinois of their political rights."

Sullivan in his rejoinder declines to concede to Bryan the right to question his democracy or his membership in the national committee.

"Judgment as to my democracy," he says, "rests with the Democrats of the district in which I live. My title to membership in the national committee has been conferred and confirmed by a higher authority than Bryan."

"LAST OF ITS KIND."

TEXAS DEMOCRATS GATHERING.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

DALLAS (Tex.) Aug. 15.—Judge Howard Templeton of Sulphur Springs, acting as permanent chairman, called the Democratic convention to order today for the second day's work. The chairman said it would be the last of its kind in Texas. Hereafter the nomination of State officers would be made directly in the primaries by the people.

REPUBLICANS FINISH.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

EL PASO, Aug. 15.—The Republican State Convention completed its work by reelecting Cecil Lyon of Sherman State chairman and nominating a ticket headed by Dr. C. Abrey of Franklin county for Governor.

POPULISTS OF NEBRASKA.

LARGE CONVENTION ASSEMBLES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LINCOLN, Aug. 15.—The Populists of Nebraska held their convention here today, meeting in another hall at the hour named in the Democratic call. George W. Berge was also the favorite with the Populists for the nomination for Governor.

Gen. P. H. Barry was elected temporary chairman of the Populist convention, which was the most largely attended Populist gathering in Nebraska for several years.

PURCHASE OF SILVER.

PRICE PAID 66.62 CENTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Pursuant to the announcement of the Secretary of the Treasury that he would receive tenders of silver, today four bids were made to Director Roberts of the Mint. The bids were opened this afternoon, and after being submitted to Secretary Shaw, it was announced that the government had purchased 50,000 ounces of silver, 999 fine, at 66.62 cents an ounce.

It is not the custom to announce the name of the individual or corporation through which the silver is obtained. It is expected the government will require from 50 to 100,000 ounces of silver a week for an indefinite length of time.

It is the purpose, therefore, of Secretary Shaw and Director Roberts to receive bids Wednesdays of each week until further notice.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.

American Flour an Issue.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Brazil's announcement of the reduction of the tariff on American flour has produced consternation in Argentina. Dispatches from Buenos Ayres announce that Argentina is preparing to make a 20 per cent. reduction on Brazilian products admitted in Argentina in the hope of getting a tariff rate from Brazil on flour which will prevent American millers from monopolizing the Brazilian flour markets.

RECEIPT FOR EXTRA FARE.

Brooklyn Company Suggests This Remedy Until Higher Court Gives Decision.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—The troubles of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company with those of its patrons who, since Sunday have acted under an opinion by Supreme Court Justice Gaynor and refused to pay two 5-cent fares to Coney Island, seemed tonight to be nearing an amicable adjustment.

The company this afternoon adopted a plan suggested by acting Mayor McGowan, to give a rebate receipt to every person paying a 10-cent fare, 5 cents to be returned to the holder if the court of appeals holds the decision of Justice Gaynor that 5 cents is the legal fare to Coney Island.

If the court should decide that the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company is acting within its rights in charging double fare, however, the receipt is to null and void.

EAGLES MAKE CHANGE.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 15.—The session of the Grand Aerie Fraternal Order of Eagles, adopted a recommendation of the judiciary committee abolishing the office of State Deputy Grand President and creating instead the office of Deputy Grand President. Every deputy is to be appointed for such jurisdiction as the grand worthy president believes is not too large for efficient work.

THAW ANXIOUS FOR EVIDENCE.

URGES ATTORNEYS TO SIFT WHITE'S PAST.

Suffering by the Close Confinement in the Tombs the Prisoner Sees Necessity for Testimony That Will Offset Tales of His Own Acts Which Will Be Brought Out.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Harry Thaw is suffering severely from his imprisonment in the Tombs. Only the knowledge that his defense will be conducted along the lines he has laid down sustains him. He continually urges his attorneys to gather evidence as to the life Stanford White led, fearing apparently that such testimony will be necessary at the trial as a rebuttal for facts of his own actions that will be brought to light.

Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw is no longer the nervous slip of femininity who formerly stepped into the Tombs on her daily visits to her husband. She has to reflect some of his spirit and ignores the unpleasant interest of the curious. She went to the prison today at the usual hour bearing a basket of fruit such as her husband is unable to secure from the jail caterer.

William J. Sturgis, Thaw's most intimate friend, and a witness on whom the District Attorney would like to lay hands has slipped through the city from his Connecticut factory and is in Philadelphia.

GEN. MACARTHUR TO LEAD.

Society of the Army of the Philippines Elects Officers at Des Moines.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

DES MOINES, Aug. 15.—The Society of the Army of the Philippines today elected the following officers:

Commander-in-chief, Maj.-Gen. Arthur MacArthur, U.S.A.; first senior commander, Capt. A. H. Crow, Pennsylvania; first junior vice-commander, Lieut. E. L. Hamilton, Michigan; judge advocate, Gen. J. O'Donnell, Kansas City; chaplain, Rev. J. A. Beebe, Des Moines.

Next year's meeting will be held at Kansas City.

ORGANIZATION PERFECTED.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—The convention of the United Teamsters of America, the seceding factor of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, elected officers yesterday and adjourned to meet in Rochester, N. Y., next year. The headquarters of the new organization will be located in Chicago.

N. W. Evans of Bloomington, Ill., was elected president.

Evans was former president of the Team Drivers' International Union, the predecessor of the International Brothers of Teamsters.

MISS BOY AND TEAM.

Drunken Grandparents Have Strange Experiences Seeking Child and Each Other.

In a superlative state of intoxication Mr. and Mrs. Schaeffer wandered into Hollywood last night searching for their lost grandchild.

The couple left Calabasas three days ago and drove by the Cahuenga Pass route. Not far from the pass roadhouse the woman missed the grandchild, Joey Warnett, and started back afoot to look for him.

After she had gone the husband discovered that the boy was lying in the rear of the rig. Leaving the child with a woman and also leaving the team, he started back to look for his wife. They found each other and walked back intending to find the team and child.

Somehow they missed the team and the boy both. The youngster had been taken by a man who said he would bring him to the Receiving Hospital in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Schaeffer says that her daughter, the mother of the boy, is ill at the County Hospital.

ABE ATTELL MET TARTAR.

Carsey Fought to a Standstill and Decision Was Questioned by Spectators.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GRAND RAPIDS, (Mich.) Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Abe Attell, champion of the world among the featherweights, got one he hardly deserved, when George Siler of Chicago, called him the winner over Frank Carsey, also of Chicago at the end of fifteen rounds of the best fighting ever seen here.

The decision met with the approval only of those who were close to Attell, a large majority of the spectators believing that a draw was the very worst Frank should have received.

It was the fast, hard finish that Carsey put up that made him a world of friends here and many have an idea that he is the master of the champion. He went at Attell like a whirlwind and easily bested him on the mixing end of the affair. Attell had secured a lead in the earlier rounds of the engagement.

WHERE'S MRS. ARMSTRONG?

IS BODY FOUND IN TEMESCAL CANYON HERS?

Inquiry Following the Receipt of Anonymous Letter by Los Angeles Police Department Indicates That She May Have Been One to Meet Death in Such Strange Manner.

Dispatches received from Santa Barbara indicate that the woman's body found in Temescal Cañon may have been that of Mrs. Clara Armstrong of the Channel City.

An anonymous letter stating that the corpse was Mrs. Armstrong's was received at the Los Angeles police detective headquarters and the news was forwarded to the Santa Barbara police.

Horace Lawn, a brother of Mrs. Armstrong, says that Mrs. Armstrong left Santa Barbara about sex weeks ago and that she was engaged to marry Horton, the man who found the body in the cañon. Lawn does not know where his sister is now.

The description of Mrs. Armstrong given by the Santa Barbara police does not, according to the Los Angeles police, exactly tally with that of the woman whose body was found.

TRIES TO KILL HIS BROTHER.

William Bonner Strikes at Relative's Heart and Inflicts Seven Knife Wounds Through Arm.

William Bonner of No. 1369 San Pedro, is a prisoner in the City Jail, charged with having stabbed his brother, Walter Bonner, seven times last Sunday. Following the arrest of the accused, yesterday, his bail was fixed at $3000, which he was unable fixed at $3000, which bond he was unable to secure. His preliminary examination will be held tomorrow.

Walter Bonner is a machinist in the employ of the Southern Pacific, and is a candidate for the Republican nomination for constable. Walter says his brother William is the black sheep of the family.

Walter asserts that he has supported his brother for years. For some time they have occupied the home on San Pedro street, their aged mother keeping house for them. Walter says he returned Sunday from a trip to Arizona for the railroad company, and found his brother making trouble for their mother, and not working.

Following Walter's return the brothers quarreled. William then drew a knife and stabbed his brother seven times in the left arm. Walter says he warded the blows his brother aimed at his heart, and every time the knife pierced entirely through the arm.

Bonner's wounds were dressed by a surgeon and he then reported the matter to the police. William disappeared for a time, but reappeared yesterday, armed with a revolver, and declared he would slay the entire family. He was arrested and locked up and his brother and mother swore to the complaint against him, charging him with assault with a deadly weapon.

THIEF RETURNS MONEY.

Newsboy Who Stole Cash from Fruit Dealer Is in Fear of Arrest.

Fearing arrest, the lad, who burglarized L. Dielburg's store at No. 543 South Hill street Tuesday evening and secured a cigar box containing $6.90, sent the box containing $5 back to Patrolman Henderson last evening with a note stating that as soon as he could earn enough money to make up the deficiency he would send it to the officer.

About 5 o'clock Tuesday evening Dielburg was called out of his fruit store to make a sale of some fruit on display. While he was out of the store a newsboy stole into the store and, after locating the box in which Dielburg kept his money, snatched it and ran out.

Through the newspapers the lad learned that the police had been notified of the theft. He immediately found another newsboy who did not know his name or address and sent back the boy and what money he had not spent.

RUNS AWAY FROM FOOTPAD.

While walking along San Pedro street near Ninth about 11:30 o'clock last night, George Schulce was confronted by a masked footpad who pointed a pistol at him and demanded his money. Schulce dodged quickly and ran away. He went to the Police Station and reported the matter, but was not able to give much of a description of the footpad. Schulce resides at No. 1610 South Alvarado street.

CHEERS GREET OLD SOLDIERS.

G.A.R. Parade Proceeds With Thinned Ranks.

Emotion Fills Breasts of Gazing Thousands.

Relief Corps Busy With Victims of the Heat.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 15.—For the fortieth time since its work was finished and its glory won the Grand Army was in line today.

There have been many parades more gorgeous, spectacles more dazzling and bewildering, but never has there been in this country one more appealing and impressive than that which passed through the streets of Minneapolis during the greater part of this morning.

At times the old guard was greeted with cheers that drowned the roar and crash of the many bands. At other times they passed through living lanes where every tongue was still, every eye was dim and every head was bared in reverence for what they had suffered and wrought for the welfare of their fellow-men.

DAY IS IDEAL.

The day was ideal. Several sharp showers during the night dispelled the oppressive heat of yesterday and a cool breeze swept the streets.

With the head of the column, which moved promptly at 10 o'clock, was a mounted platoon of police. Directly behind the police and at the head of the parade proper came the magnificent drum corps and band of Denver, their showy uniforms making a splendid appearance. The twenty-two young women who form a drill corps and are a portion of the organization were especial favorites with the multitude and were given a continuous ovation during the parade.

Next came the chief marshal of the parade, ex-Gov. Van Sant, and his chief of staff, Gen. Fred B. Wood. Adjutant-General of Minnesota, who was followed by regimental and staff officers of the Minnesota National Guard.

Then, marching in splendid even rank, with their formation superbly kept throughout the entire parade, came the first of the old soldiers—Columbia Post of Chicago, acting as the principal escort of the commander-in-chief. Behind this post came Commander-in-Chief Tanner, mounted and attended by his personal staff.

CIVIL WAR HEROES.

Following the officers of the organization came the men who were the life guard of the nation, the heroes of the Civil War.

The States marched in order of their admission to the Grand Army, Illinois having the right of the line followed by Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Ohio and New York, in the order named. Twenty other States followed these.

In the band which preceded the Rock Island, Ill., veterans, were represented the extremes of enlistment in the Civil War, one being Anson M. Hubbard of Moline, who, although 90 years old, marched in a sprightly manner and blew his fife as shrilly as he did during the war. The other extreme was seen in the person of Lyston D. Howe, of Streator, Ill., who was the youngest man to enlist during the war.

After the men from New York came the scarlet banner of Massachusetts, then New Jersey and Maine, after which came the first of the Far Western States, California and Nevada being massed together. Their men were few in number.

New England came to the front once more with the men from Rhode Island, New Hampshire and Vermont. The latter State was especially well represented, many members of the famous old "Vermont brigade" being in line.

Maryland had a small detachment and then came long ranks of the western soldiers of the armies of the Cumberland and of the Tennessee, marching under the banners of Michigan, Indiana, Lower Missouri and Kentucky.

The last of the line was Minnesota. Its soldiers received hearty greetings as they closed the long line. The column was about three hours in passing a given point. The line of march was two miles.

The relief corps was busy during the day collecting the men and women who became prostrated by heat and fatigue and carrying them to the hospitals. In addition to these prostrations, there were many cases of exhaustion, not one of which is serious.

$25.00 Silk Suits at $16.50

$27.50 Silk Suits at $20—$50 Silk Suits at $25

Yes, silk suits danced a quick-step yesterday to the tune of lower prices than you've ever had an opportunity to share before this season.

The event is continued today. We're putting all the force that has made the Broadway famous for values back of our endeavor to clear racks of summer stocks and make room for the new fall suits that are coming in now.

Of course, silk suits will be worn this fall—plenty of them, but we've got to make room and we've reduced every silk suit in the house markedly, though prices were already low. It's because the opportunity is so broad that we are able to tell of it today. Yesterday's selling was very brisk.

The styles are all very pretty, and the values—we would rather let them talk for themselves. If you need, or will need, a new silk suit don't fail to buy it today.

$25.00 Silk Suits at $16.50

Include browns, greens, black, checks, old rose and other colored silks; good materials perfectly made and tailored. Splendid values at $25.00. Share them today, on the second floor, at $16.50.

$27.50 Silk Suits $20.00

These are here in black, gray, old rose, reseda, black and white novelty checks and stripes. Most of the skirts are plaited. $27.50 suits at $20.00. Second floor.

$50.00 Silk Suits $25.00

They are made of high grade silks. Pretty grays, reds, tans and blues. Fancily tailored and trimmed with braids and appliques. Find these on the second floor at $25.00.

We Will Make All Alterations Free

This is no half-hearted event, but a great, broad clearance of suits you want, because it's good merchandising for us to sell them now. We advise you to come early this morning. Yesterday's selling shortened lines considerably and today will shorten them still more. Early choosing will be best.

WOOD SUMMONS OFFICERS.

Army Men Leave for Philippines to Investigate Conduct of Brothers-in-Arms.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—The Call says that Maj.-Gen. Leonard Wood of the United States army has summoned a commission to the Philippines to investigate the conduct of certain army officers on duty in the islands. He is keeping secret the object of his investigation and even the members of the commission declare that they do not know what they are to do. They will receive instructions when they land at Manila.

The following officers make up the commission: Capt. Ira L. Fredendall, quartermaster's department; Capt. Frederick W. Cole, quartermaster's department; Maj. Amos W. Kimball, quartermaster's department; Clerk Eugene Pearson, and D. N. McChesney, the recently appointed inspector of supplies at Jeffersonville, Ind. Capt. Fredendall and McChesney left on the Logan, sailing today, and the balance of those ordered to the investigation leave on the next transport.

HAVERHILL CLAIMS MISS ESAC.

Presidential Post May Be in Search of a Pardon for Massachusetts Convict.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HAVERHILL, Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Local police today state that the mysterious Miss Asl L. Esac, who created a scene at an Oyster Bay church Sunday when forcibly restrained by secret service men from addressing the President, is undoubtedly Miss Elizabeth L. Case of this city, who is demented, and has escaped from surveillance.

She imagines herself vested with the mission of securing a pardon of John D. Mutch, now serving a sentence in Charlestown prison for manslaughter. Miss Case's description and the general circumstances, as well as the letters of her name, and her statements tally with the Oyster Bay Miss Esac.

Miss Case once before appealed to Atty.-Gen. Moody in behalf of Mutch, and then announced that she would appeal to the President.

GIRL ESCAPES DEPORTATION.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—An 18-year-old girl who has made desperate efforts to evade the execution of the sentence of the deportation imposed by the Ellis Island immigration officers gave her custodians the slip yesterday, and last night enjoyed her first real taste of freedom since she passed the Statue of Liberty to make her home in America. She is Grazie Ferranti, whom the immigration officers excluded because she was regarded as likely to become a public charge. With her in the break for liberty was a companion.

DATTO BRYAN IS "SMOOTH."

OXNARD, Aug. 13. [To the Editor of The Times:] I have been a subscriber to and reader of your paper for a number of years, and as I have never noticed anything published during that time that would enlighten me on a case that would parallel the one that is announced as soon to occur in New York, I wish you would tell me if you ever knew of an American who made a tour of Europe and while there planned his own reception on his homecoming, even to the modus operandi of raising the funds for defraying the expenses. Respectfully, J. B. TRAIN.

CALM DOWN ON BEEF EXPOSURE.

CONGRESSMAN LONGWORTH ON BRITISH SENTIMENT.

Tells of the Friendly Feeling for Us Abroad and of the Wonder the English Exhibit at American Industry and Invention—European Trip Series of Social Functions.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Discussing his European trip while in town yesterday, Congressman Nicholas Longworth said:

"I did not find any of the anti-American sentiment which some persons have discovered on the other side. I found everyone extremely friendly to this country. Wherever we went we found only the profoundest respect and admiration for America and everything American.

"Industrially they regard us as phenomenal, and politically and socially they have nothing but respect. Our prosperity and capacity for development are amazing to Europeans.

"The beef exposures created a sensation in England and for a time there was much talk concerning them. But gradually the feeling of resentment died out and I do not think the incident will have any lasting effect on the American beef business. In Germany and France I heard practically nothing about the exposures. The matter was commented on in the House of Commons and the government was asked to what use the American beef was put.

"There was much hysterical sentiment, but it calmed down after the action taken by Congress. The belief there is that the evils could and would be remedied by publicity."

PROBE FOR GRAIN ELEVATORS.

Chicago Board of Trade Member Will Give Trust Violation Evidence to Government.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—Steps are being taken which may lead to the prosecution of certain elevator companies in Chicago, alleged to constitute a trust, under both the State and Federal laws.

The moving spirit in the proceedings is John Hill, Jr., a Board of Trade member, who has had many battles in the last twenty years with elevator companies alleged to be acting adversely to the interests of grain producers and the public, and in violation of the laws.

Hill proposes to present all the evidence he may secure to the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Federal Department of Justice, in order that, if the facts will justify it, the elevator companies may be prosecuted under the national anti-trust law. He also believes they have agreements which make them a trust in violation of the State law.

PRESAGES BETTER RELATIONS.

Berlin Press Builds High Hopes on Meeting of King Edward and Emperor William.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BERLIN, Aug. 15.—The press of all sections treats King Edward's visit to Emperor William from the viewpoint of being a sign of improved relations between him and the Emperor, and belief and hope are generally expressed that the visit will have a beneficial effect on the people of both countries, besides putting their political relations on a better footing.

The papers here avoid all extravagant hopes in this direction, evidently trying to keep within the safe minimum of practical results. Nobody expects positive political arrangements, but the Cologne Gazette, which usually reflects the views of the Foreign Office, expects the rulers fully to discuss all political questions concerning Germany and Great Britain, besides the general position of European politics.

HARD LUCKS GRAB A GAME.

WIN EASILY THROUGH ERRORS BY LOOLOOS.

Pile Up Five Runs in One Inning by Safe Swats and Blunders of the Locals—Dillon Out of the Game Owing to Injuries—Wolters Is There With the Big Stick.

Fresno 6; Los Angeles 2.

The worst the Hard Luck Kid got yesterday was the best of it.

This seems a good deal to a man to whom the joy of winning comes only after many days, and would make any man back up, except a manager who is getting umpty-umpt per for trying to make a team win when it can't.

Goodness knows, if the Hard Luck Kid couldn't win yesterday he never could, for some of the Looloos threw the ball around in a scandalous manner, and must have had an idea at frequent intervals that they were playing handball. Both McClelland and Toman were in bad, and as Bernard and Eager also helped along with some mistakes, it can't be imagined how the locals could keep out of the soup.

There were nine errors made, and the Looloos had six of these, but there is probably some excuse for the general explosion. Dillon is out of the game on account of being in a street-car accident at Oakland last Sunday. Gochnauer is still lame from the injuries he received in the same mix, and Eager caught his first game yesterday after an absence from the game of several weeks, on account of having one of his finger nails half torn off in a game here within the past month. Every little bit helps to affect the general conditions in a ball team, and with Pitcher Randolph on first base, the locals played like a demoralized team.

The Hard Luck Kids didn't do much better, for they made three big errors, all of which figured in the local's runs. Taken all in all, it was a peculiar exhibition, and yet over 500 fans sat thorugh all of it and the beastly hot weather, just to see the game played. There were no spectacular plays, because the hitting was light and the players were struggling through the heat to get through.

Wolters showed again that he is the hitting kid of the league, for in five times at bat he cracked out three singles. In the last five games in which he has played he has been at bat twenty times and has made twelve hits, or a percentage of .600. He is by far the feature of the Fresno team, and yesterday had one-third of all the hits made by his team.

The game was a very pretty one up to the fifth inning, and then McClelland made two errors and Eager one, and the Hard Luck Kids fell on Burns for four singles, a sacrifice and a base on balls. These made five of the easiest runs imaginable. McClelland started off by juggling Doyle's grounder. Wolters advanced Doyle with a swat to right center. Both men moved on one base on McClelland's sacrifice, and Doyle scored on McClelland's muff of Eager's throw to third. Then came two fielders' choices that resulted in nothing, and these were followed by three singles in succession.

The locals hadstarted out with a run on Truck Eagan's error, Toman's sacrifice, Ellis's out and McClelland's hit to left, and gathered two more, and their last, on Cartwright's error at first. Dashwood's error on a throw to third, two infield outs and Bernard's hit. The Fresnos made an unnecessary run in the seventh on two singles and an error by Toman at second.

The score:

Ball Meeting Today.

The Los Angeles club may have some real pepsa after all, for a meeting is to be held today to decide that very point. Just who will be at the meeting is not known, but it is called for the purpose of arranging for the transfer of the Los Angeles team to local parties. Manager Mead said yesterday that a number of men identified with the business interests of this city desire to buy stock in the club, and a few of these are Ferd K. Rule, J. W. Brooks, "Corney" Pendleton and D. W. Kirkland of the Owl Drug Company. The meeting will be held about noon, or as soon as Pendleton arrives from San Francisco, he having left there last night. Something definite about the future of the club is promised today.

Will Morley Get Back?

A story was current around town yesterday that President Bert of the Pacific Coast League, asked Jim Morley if he would again take the control of the Los Angeles team. The Bert-Morley conversation is said to have been held last week, and that Morley would not consent to taking the club again unless it could be run by the former directors. There is not thought to be much truth in the story, because it has not been many weeks ago since Morley and Bert were calling each other all kinds of robbers and second-story workers. Cal. Ewing and Bert also declared that the league was done forever with Morley.

Western Entry Gives Promise of Being Selected as Defender of the Roosevelt Cup.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MARBLEHEAD (Mass.) Aug. 15.—Two trial races for the selection of the defenders of the Roosevelt cup were sailed off here today, the first over a triangular course of three miles to a leg, and the second a run to leeward and a beat home, six miles in all.

The first race was won by the Bonidret, which was sailed by the youngest skipper of the fleet, 14 years old, C. W. Whitman, of the Hingham Yacht Club, beating the Vim, owned by T. I. Park of New York, in fine style. Caramba owned by C. H. W. Foster, was third.

Vice-Commodore F. Lewis Clark's Spokane, of Washington State, which finished fifteenth in the first race, today won the second race handily, defeating Handee II and Auck. The Spokane's victory is the second in the series, and her performances have stamped her as a possible selection to defend the Roosevelt cup.

HERE IS ONE FOR MR. BURNS.

JIM FLYNN CHALLENGES AND TOMMY ACCEPTS.

Colorado Fighter Willing to Fill Shoes of Al Kaufmann Who "Skiddooed"—Up to McCarey to Stage Match—Flynn Has Plenty of Class and Is a Game One.

A light has broken through the heavyweight horizon, and all signs point to an early match for Tommy Burns despite the sidestepping of Al Kaufmann and others.

Jim Flynn, the husky heavyweight from Pueblo, Colo., yesterday wired that he would fight Burns September 11, provided Kaufmann had not agreed to accept the date.

Burns readily accepted Flynn's offer, and if Tom McCarey is willing, articles of agreement will be forwarded Flynn today.

Flynn is one of the toughest propositions in the light heavyweight division and bids fair to be at the top before many months. The fans remember the great battle he put up against Jack Root at Pueblo, November 26, 1903, when the latter secured a decision in eight rounds. This was when Flynn was a beginner, and he practically wiped out that defeat by getting a draw with George Gardner at Denver a year later in ten rounds of fighting. Recently Flynn fought Twin Jack Sullivan a draw, and press accounts alleged that Flynn should have had the decision.

Flynn is a young fellow, a hard hitter, clever and a gamester, and would be a good card. Most of his fighting has been around Denver and Pueblo, where he has beaten such men as Morgan Williams, once touted as the coming heavyweight champion, who baat everything around Cripple Creek.

Burns does not discount Flynn, and believes him a hard proposition.

In accepting the match Burns said:

"I bar no man who can give me a fight, and am not picking my game. I did want Berger or Jack O'Brien, but if they are afraid of my game the best man up can get it, no matter who he is. I am in the business to beat all these fellows, and although this fellow Flynn is a harder nut than Al Kaufmann, I will take him on. There are people who do not credit me with the championship and I am determined to wade through big ones until they are satisfied that I can defend my title.

DALTON OUT OF IT.

SPRAINED ANKLE THE CAUSE.

Kid Dalton is disconsolate, for while the remainder of the tryouts are pummeling each other Friday night at Tom McCarey's 'possum-skinning bee, the kid will have to content himself with sitting by the ringside and watching the miniature cyclones shake up the canvas.

A few days ago Dalton, who is matched to box Caesar Attell, sustained a sprained ankle while training. Yesterday the member was in such bad shape that a physician advised abandoning the match. This Dalton has done, and Kid Locke, who made such a good battle at the pavilion recently, has been substituted.

In Locke, Attell will find equally as hard a customer as Dalton, and the bout loses none of its class.

The remainder of the card is as follows:

Eddie Mercy vs. Manuel Torres; about 107 pounds.

Frank Fields vs. Terribl eTurk; about 145 pounds.

Jim Tremble vs. T. J. Ryan; about 133 pounds.

Kid Webster vs. Kid McDonald; about 120 pounds.

Charles Robinson vs. Young McGovern, about 120 pounds.

Leonard Lauder vs. Jim Horner; about 124 pounds.

Young Donovan vs. Young Barry; about 120 pounds.

These bouts will be of six rounds duration.

BALL CLUB SUES.

FORFEITED GAME, BASIS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] New York National League has brought a civil suit in the New York Supreme Court against the Chicago League ball club for $3500, alleging damages to that extent on account of the forfeited game. The summons in the suit was served on Charley Williams, treasurer of the Cubs at Brooklyn Monday.

President Murphy, among other things said: "The New York Club is bound to continue the farce as long as they can because they want to if possible, regain the esteem and confidence of the public. A million lawsuits will not get our minds off the main issue—the winning of the National League championship, if it is possible for us to do so.

"Our counsel may advise a counter suit for much more than $3500."

Pennaris Wins Rich Stake.

SARATOGA, Aug. 15.—Former Jockey Frank O'Neill's Pennaris won the Grand Union Hotel Stakes, worth $8000 to the winner, six furlongs, at Saratoga, today, defeating a fair field of two-year-olds. Superman was a heavily played favorite, being backed down from 2 to 1 to 6 to 5, but he finished away back. Altheuo lasted long enough to save the place by a head from Don Enrique.

Harvard Crew Shows Form.

BOURNE END (Eng.) Aug. 15.—The Harvard crew yesterday created the liveliest sensation among their supporters by rowing from Spade Oak Ferry to Bourne End bridge in faster time than the Cambridge crew did the evening before. The conditions were slightly better, but the Harvard men displayed better form than they had previously shown.

Dillon Comes Home.

Frank Dillon, the captain of the Los Angeles ball team, who was painfully hurt in a street car accident near Oakland last Sunday evening, arrived here yesterday from the North in a very much patched-up condition. His hands were barked and his head tied up in bandages, but he went out to the ball ground just the same and watched the game. Randolph came down with him in time to play first base. Dillon will probably not play until next week.

WOULD DREDGE CHANNEL.

Amos A. Fries, captain of the local corps of United States engineers, has issued notice that application has been made to the Secretary of War for permission to dredge a channel in the outer harbor at San Pedro 500 feet wide and thirty feet deep, commencing at a point 1700 feet south from the United States Survey Station "J," on Timm's Point. A map of the proposed dredging plans will be on exhibition until Friday, August 24, at the office of the United States Engineer, No. 537 Citizens' National Bank building.

The franchise, they said, carried too many restrictions.

A Word of Warning

Don't buy substitutes for MENNEN'S BORATED TALCUM POWDER. "Just as good" is only a deceit by which a dealer tries to make money out of the superiority and success of MENNEN'S POWDER. There's nothing just as good as MENNEN'S and users of substitutes and imitations risk skin, complexion and comfort in doing so.

As a protection to health use Mennen's Powder and only Mennen's.

Have you tried MENNEN'S VIOLET BORATED TALCUM TOILET POWDER? Ladies partial to violet perfume will find Mennen's Violet Powder fragrant with the odor of fresh plucked Parma Violets.

The success of the day's work depends upon the quality—not the quantity—of the day's breakfast.

It isn't how much you eat that counts—it's how much nutriment your stomach gets out of it.

Apitezo

for breakfast is the proper beginning of a successful day, because it is all nutriment, and so easy to digest that it never induces that sleepy feeling which accompanies the use of many other foods.

Apitezo contains all the necessary food elements (including those found in beef and eggs) and supplies in addition the blood-energizing vegetable iron which most foods lack.

Apitezo is a crisp, delicious cereal good for everybody. Eat it every day for a month and you will want to keep on eating it. Serve with milk or cream as preferred.

Put up in two forms, Apitezo Biscuits and Apitezo Grains; the quality is the same in both.

Sold by grocers everywhere.

Classified Liners.

Times "Liner" Advertisers—Important. Note change in rate for Sunday classified advertisements. Commencing Sunday, October 1, 1905, the rate for Sunday "Liners" was raised to 1¼ cents per word for each insertion; minimum charge, 25 cents, as at present. This slight advance is amply justified by the present Sunday circulation of The Times, which averages over 70,000 copies. Telephone your want advertisements. Ring up "The Times" any time of day or night, and secure prompt and careful attention. Rates one cent a word each insertion in the Daily; 1¼ cents per word in the Sunday edition; minimum charge, 25c.

EL CAMINO REAL IS ROAD AGAIN.

Impressive Dedication of the King's Highway.

Plaza Church Crowded With Interested Guests.

One beautiful and picturesque of the ceremonies held at the old Plaza Church yesterday noon in honor of El Camino Real and also the celebration of the one hundred and twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of this ancient and honorable pueblo of Los Angeles.

Spanish songs were sung and several others spoke briefly. Then Father Caballeria ascended the little mound at the foot of the cross that stands in the center of the Plaza churchyard and with uplifted hand called upon the assemblage to witness that El Camino Real was once more open and that a total of one hundred and twenty-five years had passed since the founding of this pueblo.

Following the ceremonies a number of the guests of the church and many of the old Mexicans gathered in the patio back of the church and spent the day in truly Mexican manner, whiling away the time until the beginning of the evening festivities.

As the custom is of the padres a record of the day's doings was made by the scribes and filed among the archives of the church for the benefit of future generations.

A. S. C. Forbes read a copy of these records in Spanish and English. Both versions are here reproduced:

EVENING FESTIVITIES.

GAY SCENE AT PLAZA CHURCH.

The patio of the Plaza Church was a gay scene last night when the Feast of the Assumption and the one hundred and twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the pueblo of Los Angeles were celebrated.

The open-air theater that has been improvised at one end of the patio was aglisten with lights and upon the boards twirled and whirled pretty señoritas and dashing young caballerros in Mexican and Spanish dances.

The children of the congregation of the church had entered heartily into the festivities and little tots danced and sang with many gay wavings of ribbons and fans.

Little Marie Varela sang El Gala Negro, most pleasingly and Grace Larienx, a dimpled little tot danced and sang her way easily into the favors of the 200 guests. There were many other entertaining numbers on the long programme. Raymon Young shone brilliantly several times in one or two farces and a minstrel "turn."

Mingled with the many Mexicans present was a large sprinkling of well-known Angeleños, attracted to the patio by the quaintly beautiful celebrations for which the Plaza congregation is famous.

Señorita Moreno, a dashing little Spanish girl, had charge of the ticket selling and also trained the smaller children in several of the dances.

WOMEN'S PAPER SUSPENDED.

Owners of Their Business Magazine Engage in Row and Creditors Take Hold.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DENVER, Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Business Woman's Magazine, with women owners, has dropped back to first principles. There is a row on among the proprietors that has placed the publication, in the hands of creditors and threatens the death of the journal which pointed out the way and the light to women who were out trying to earn their own living.

Charges and counter-charges are being made and denied and there is much indignant talking, but the affair has not reached the hair-pulling stage yet, owing to the fact that Louise Lee Hardin, the "heart and soul" of the magazine, has been away while the creditors have been getting in their deadly work.

It is charged by friends of Mrs. Mary C. Bradford that when she sought the office of national organizer at the recent Chicago convention of the Business Woman's League, her aspirations were secretly knifed by Miss Hardin. Now when the creditors are clamoring for money, Mrs. Bradford, it is said, was easily discouraged in view of her treatment at Chicago and gave up.

BOY'S DEATH CRAZES FATHER.

Ranchman Near Denver Shoots Employee After Son Is Drowned Near His Home.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DENVER, Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Half crazed by the thought that his son's life had been sacrificed to carelessness, Fred Jewel, a ranchman near Denver, shot and dangerously wounded an employé, John Strassheim.

Little Jay Jewel fell into an irrigation canal yesterday afternoon and the screams of a companion brought Mrs. Strassheim to the rescue. She claims to have done all in her power to save the child, but failed.

When Jewel learned of the death he became frantic and upbraided the woman severely. This morning the distracted ranchman resumed his questioning of the woman concerning the accident, when her husband resented the reprimand.

Jewel became like an infuriated animal, pulled his revolver and shot Strassheim through the side, but he will recover. Jewel drove to the Sheriff's office and gave himself up.

The British government has decided to seek the extradition of William Cann, treasurer of the Benevolent Society of Postal Employés, who absconded to the United States, leaving a shortage of $145,000. Cann fled to Texas, where he was located in April, but his present whereabouts is unknown.

Yesterday was the red-letter Wednesday of the entire contest, the total score eclipsing that of any corresponding day since the beginning, and swelling the aggregate number of votes to 1,100,000.

Mildred Beer, the Hollywood contestant, was the banner bearer for individual scores. She turned in almost 1000 points, and this morning leaps seven rows in the score, passing two Los Angeles contestants, Corona, Monrovia, Yuma, Compton and South Pasadena in her flight upward. The Hollywood girl is hot after San Diego, too, and lacks little more than 200 points of overhauling her. Hollywood is going some these days, and if the citizens of that progressive and wealthy suburb continue to support their candidate as they have for the past ten days there's no telling how high she may fly.

BIRDS IN TOP BOUGHS.

Bertha Smith is right after Merle Prewitt and the silence of Vivian Bassett has a meaning. She steers clear of headquarters, and that is a sign there is something doing.

Esther Euber continues to hold onto that seventh perch. She landed a new two-year subscription which gave her 2000 points at one jump, and that made her happy for all day. This morning she scores an even 44,000.

Fannie Wolff is after Esther, though she will not give up that seventh perch without a struggle. Fannie did splendid work yesterday, bringing in almost 2000 points, and she is less than 700 behind Esther. The race between these two Los Angeles girls is being watched with much interest.

Zetta Crouse sent in a big fat score yesterday, and she is creeping up after the city girls. Kate Atkinson takes a fall out of William Bolstad's score, and young William finds himself sitting a peg lower this morning, but you just wait till William gets going and he'll have that perch back again if it's a possible thing.

SHE LIKES LOS ANGELES.

Mansie Kim, the Chinese contestant from Bakersfield, has decided to prolong her stay till next Monday. She came to headquarters yesterday, accompanied by two bright young Chinese girls of this city, Miss Carrie Chan, a student in the Polytechnic High School here, and the daughter of Chan Kiu Sing, the well-known court interpreter, and Miss Jessie Kam, who a year and a half ago enjoyed the distinction of attending the State Sunday-school convention as a delegate from her Sunday-school, being the first Chinese girl on the Coast to be accorded such an honor. Miss Jessie was but 10 years old at that time. Both these Los Angeles girls are deeply interested in the success of Miss Mansie, and they were on a canvassing tour yesterday. An annual subscription from a gentleman in Carpinteria in favor of Mansie reached the office yesterday, counting her 1000 points, and this, with other subscriptions and coupons, swelled her score to more than 17,000. Mansie is doing her part, and now, if her supporters will do theirs, she will be pretty apt to win her scholarship. She is delighted with Los Angeles, and her face beamed with delight as she imparted the good news that a message from home giving her permission to remain a few days longer, had been received. It would be a bitter disappointment to this bright, ambitious girl if she failed to win her scholarship. A little effort on the part of church and mission people who have undertaken her cause cannot fail to bring victory.

IGNATIUS AND ORESTES.

Orestes Orfila and Ignatius Parker are having a neat little race. Both scored in yesterday, but Ignatius is still in the lead. Yesterday he had bad luck just after he had landed 1800 points. He made a mis-step from a street car and wrenched his knee so badly that he was unable to get about any more during the day. He hopes to resume work today, but he may be laid up for several days, which would seriously interfere with his progress.

UNLUCKY THIRTEEN.

Minnie Ponedel still holds her own against Bertha Cohen, who is following close after. Bertha arrived at headquarters early yesterday. She said she felt a little uncertain about her day's luck, for she feared she had made a bad start in that she had found a credit of 13 for her on her arrival at the office. She stood by the manager's desk and counted out coupons in bunches of 25, and was appalled to find that, after she had bunched up two lots, there was just 13 more. "I stood in that thirteenth row too long," she said, "and now just see how that horrid 13 jumps out at me from every corner. I'm afraid I'm down on my luck."

COMPTON COMES.

Myrtle McCarger was an early caller too, coming in from the ranch, four miles from Compton. She found a big package of coupons awaiting her, and was very grateful for them. The morning mail brought fifty coupons for Mary Lallich from a Redlands lady who is evidently interested in Mary's progress. There were bunches of coupons, too, for Zetta Crouse, Mary La Lanne and some for Mansie Kim and Grace Allen.

IMPERIAL VALLEY RISES.

Paul Steintorf, the Calexico boy, is making good his declaration that he is to win. This morning, by reason of a 3000 score turned in yesterday, Paul rises a row and leap-frogs over two columns, and into the 21,000, skipping the nineteens and twentys entirely.

DOCTOR'S GIRL BACK.

Edith Farrell has returned from a ten days' stay at the beach, and she is tanned to a healthy brown, and feels just like good hard work, so if any of those doctors who wrote out subscriptions for Edith before she went away would like to see how well she looks after her rest, they might induce their friends who have not already subscribed, to do so through her. Edith will go right after the subscriptions.

Harry Moore, the Oxnard boy, takes a jump of two rows and Lena Shapiro goes up a row, too. James Fish brought a bunch of coupons in yesterday which raised his score a few hundred. Harry Wood goes up a row and crowds Mary Lallich down one.

WILD RUN WITH ENGINE.

Four Men Tear Over Northern Pacific Tracks at Furious Speed on Stolen Locomotive.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MISSOULA (Mont.) Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Four men took possession of a freight engine at Saltese, 100 miles west of this city, on the Cour D'Alene branch of the Northern Pacific, and ran it to Stregis on a private excursion. A warrant is out for the arrest of Frank Regan, caretaker of the engine, and three unknown companions.

It is stated that the men had been drinking and drove the engine at terrific speed, ringing the bell and blowing the whistle. They stopped at several stations to obtain more drink.

At St. Regis the water in the boiler became dangerously low and the men did not know how to replenish the supply. They left the engine standing on the main line and fled.

UNLOAD AT PORT LOS ANGELES.

STRIKE SENDS LUMBER SCHOONERS TO SOUTHERN WATERS.

Vessels Held Up at San Francisco on Account of Non-Union Crews and Refusal of Union 'Longshoremen to Handle Cargoes Will Never Give in to Furuseth.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—On account of the labor troubles at this port, a number of steam schooners on the northern coast, destined for San Francisco, will be sent to San Diego and Port Los Angeles for unloading.

The steam schooners now here laden with lumber are still held up on account of the non-union crews aboard, and the refusal of union longshoremen to handle cargoes. Such vessels as were manned with union crews had no difficulty in securing men to unload.

Albert Hanify, a member of the Ship Owners' Association, said today that sending vessels to southern ports was not due to the protests made here against the increased prices of lumber. He said:

"The steam schooners here are liable to be tied up for a long time. If we cannot unload our vessels here we will send them where they can be unloaded. We will never give in to Furuseth."

The millwrights of this city will demand of their employers an eight-hour day and an increase of wages to $5. This action was decided upon at a meeting of the millwrights' union last night and the members were instructed to refuse to work if the demands were not complied with. The minimum wage at present is four dollars a day.

The soap, soda and candle workers submitted demands yesterday for an increase of 50 cents a day for all workers in that industry.

FUNERAL OF MRS. DELIA COREY.

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Delia A. Corey were held yesterday forenoon and later the body was taken to Rosedale Cemetery for cremation. Mrs. Corey was the widow of Joseph L. Corey and was aged 75 years. She came to California in 1872 and until about five years ago resided in San Francisco. During the past two years she had been an invalid and her death, which was due to paralysis, was not unexpected. Surviving her are a sister, Mrs. Guy E. Shelton of this city, and four children, J. J. Corey of Los Angeles, Miss Helen J. Corey and Mrs. C. C. Ralls of Avalon and Mrs. F. R. Bowie of San Francisco.

DEATH WAS DUE TO ACCIDENT.

PHYSICIANS IN THE STAFFORD CASE SO TESTIFY.

Statement to the Public Issued in Which It Is Pointed Out How the Late City Engineer Sustained the Injury from Which He Never Regained Consciousness.

Drs. J. F. T. Jenkins and J. T. Stewart, who were called to attend the late City Engineer Harry Stafford, when he was found in a dying condition at his home in Highland Park, August 2, issued the following statement yesterday regarding the case:

"On account of the false impressions which have become so generally circulated concerning the death of Harry F. Stafford, late city engineer, the undersigned, attending physicians, who treated the injuries resulting in Mr. Stafford's death, feel it our duty to make a public statement of the conditions in justice to the late Mr. Stafford and his family, who have requested that these facts be made known. We wish to state first, that in our opinion the theory of suicide, which has been frequently alluded to, is not only unsupported by the general conditions under which Mr. Stafford met his death, but that there is abundant and to us absolute evidence that his demise was due to accident. That there was a powerful explosion of the instantaneous gas heater was absolutely shown by the condition of the room, and by the rim of soot and rust which had been forced out entirely around the base of the burner, as well as by the disconnected vent pipe. As a result of the explosion, Mr. Stafford in our opinion, received a fall which rendered him unconscious and was the real cause of his death. Large contusions and abrasions on the head and body point unmistakably to a fall, and with the small amount of gas issuing from the heater, Mr. Stafford certainly would have escaped from the room had he not been rendered unconscious from these blows. The fact that he never emerged in the slightest degree from this condition would also indicate that the injuries to the brain resulting from the concussion really caused Mr. Stafford's death.

THE CHARGE IS MURDER.

J. M. Franco, Whose Victim Died in the County Hospital Tuesday Night, Must Stand Trial.

J. M. Franco was rearrested yesterday, charged with the murder of Manuel Sanroman.

On July 29, at the corner of Vignes and Ducommun streets, the two men got into a fight and Franco shot Sanroman twice, from the effects of which the wounded man had since been confined to the County Hospital, where he died on Tuesday night.

At the time Franco was charged with disturbance of the peace, and released on $300 bail to await the result of Sanroman's wounds. The prisoner is a Mexican, and is said to have been acting as a "capper" for a lawyer who has an office in the Hellman Block, at Second and Broadway. He was arrested there yesterday, and will be arraigned for preliminary examination before Justice Austin today.

[AUTHORIZED ANNOUNCEMENT.]

EXTERMINATING IMITATORS.

For the Third Time Within 60 Days the U. S. Court Has Put Imitators of Coca-Cola Out of Business.

There will be no more Ko-Kola dispensed to the thirsty.

Permanent injunctions have been granted by Judge Parlange, of the U. S. Circuit Court, in chambers at New Orleans, against A. L. Pillsbury, Jr., and the American Bottling Works, on behalf of the Coca-Cola Co., restraining the defendants from infringing upon the right of the plaintiff company in the manufacture and sale of the beverage of which it bears the name. The matter was taken under advisement by Judge Parlange when the suits were filed, and a temporary injunction was issued against the bottling company. A subsequent decision enjoins Mr. Pillsbury, his agents or employés, from selling or supplying to the trade any drink or extract under the name of "Ko-Kola," or other device identical with or similar to the name of "Coca-Cola," calculated to mislead the public into believing the same to be the "Coca-Cola" of the defendant. The injunction against the American Bottling Works was made permanent, and prohibits any further use of the mark or symbol, "Ko-Kola," on any bottled drink similar to the bottled drink known as Coca-Cola, or from in any manner infringing upon the rights of the plaintiff's trade mark.

(COPY.)

The Coca-Cola Co. vs. A. L. Pillsbury, Jr. — 13,465 — U. S. Circuit Court, Eastern District of Louisiana.

IN EQUITY.

The above case having come on for trial on the 28th day of June, 1906, on an application by counsel for the complainant for injunction, and the court having heard the affidavits and evidence offered by complainant and defendant, and the argument of counsel, and having taken the case under consideration, it is now

ORDERED

That injunction be granted as prayed, and the defendant, his agents and employés be enjoined until the final hearing, or until the further orders of this court, from manufacturing, preparing, selling, or supplying to others for sale any drink, syrup or extract under the mark, symbol or name "Ko-Kola," or other device identical with or like "Coca-Cola," or from using any other name or device calculated to induce the public to believe that the drink, syrup or extract of the defendant is the same as Coca-Cola.

It is further ordered that William Grant, Esq., be appointed Special Master to hear and determine the facts and the law, and to pass upon the same, and report to the court for final adjudication.

Thus done and signed at New Orleans, La., on this 29th day of June, A. D., 1906, at Chambers.

[Signed] CHAS. PARLANGE.
United States Judge.

On the 25th day of June the same court granted a permanent injunction against the American Bottling Works, also of New Orleans.

A third suit of similar nature was won by the Coca-Cola Co. in the U. S. Circuit Court, District of Carolina, Judge Brawley presiding, against Donald & Bailey, Union, S. C.

DR. TAYLOR
The Leading Specialist

In my practice I have found a very large number of men who doubted as to what really troubled them. They wanted to be perfectly satisfied before commencing treatment, and in order to meet and satisfy patients of this class THOROUGHLY, I have engraved at no small expense a complete chart which will be given to callers freely. The idea will be this: When the sufferer, no matter what his trouble may be, calls on me, I shall, by the chart, with pleasure show him just where THE SEAT, THE CAUSE of his trouble lies. I shall explain to him, and I SHALL TEACH HIM what he may expect in the future if he neglects his case. And I will also demonstrate to his satisfaction why my methods are CERTAIN TO CURE HIM. This being done, the caller will be given the anatomical chart free, so that he may study his own case at his own home. To those WHO ARE IN EARNEST there is absolutely no charge for either the trouble taken or the chart engraved in three colors.

Officers, directors and field men of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company will gather at an agency dinner at Levy's at 6 o'clock this evening. Plates will be laid for about sixty. D. M. Baker, the newly-elected third vice-president, will be among the speakers.

New Members Elected.

At a meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday the following were elected to membership: Acme Door and Glass Company, Commoners of America, Gans Brothers, Ben Hensy Company, Thomas A. Lea, Merriam Brothers, W. A. Oser, V. Ons, John & James Sheehan, F. A. Valle, Joseph Walker, Dr. Woug Company, Walter & Pratt, Old Settlers' Investment Company, E. Jr. Bennett, Jacob Stern.

Thieving Gypsies.

The Gypsy women who have been running the streets of the city for may months have become so aggressive that their actions demand the attention of the police. They have been working in the western part of the city and within a couple of weeks have called nine times at a house on West Eleventh street, where during the day a young mother is alone with her babe. She has invariably locked them out, but they persist in returning, as if determined to get in, and on their last visit there were seven of them in the party. There seems to be no good reason why the vagabonds should not be driven from the city.

Want Wharf Privileges.

Application has been made to the Secretary of War, through the local office of the United States Engineer, for the privilege of wharf, warehouse and railroad right of way on the breakwater at San Pedro, beginning at a point 3000 feet from the shore or westerly end of the breakwater, and continuing 3000 feet toward the outer end of the breakwater, said right of way to be without prejudice to other interests on either side. Persons interested may present in writing any reasons that suggest themselves, based upon navigation interests, why the application should not be granted, and should address their communications to Amos A. Fries, captain Corps of Engineers, No. 537 Citizens' National Bank building, Los Angeles.

COUNTRY VOICE IN CONVENTION.

OUTSIDE DISTRICT DELEGATES TO SANTA CRUZ.

Forty-three Representatives of the Country Precincts Are Named to Join Eighty-six from Los Angeles and Pasadena in the State Council of Republicans Next Month.

Forty-three delegates to the Republican State Convention at Santa Cruz were elected yesterday in the one entire Assembly District and the portions of four others lying without the cities of Los Angeles. The various districts, the places where the conventions were held, and the names of the delegates elected are as follows:

Sixty-seventh Assembly District, San Fernando—F. M. Wright, Chatsworth; Fred L. Boruff, San Fernando; A. L. Parker, Glendale; O. B. Taylor, Sawtelle; Harry Butterworth, Lancaster.

Sixty-eighth Assembly District, Covina—E. R. Jeffrey, Azusa; F. M. Chapman, Covina; A. A. Torrey, San Dimas; George A. Monroe and Thomas Neville, Monrovia; J. W. Pavis, J. E. Coffin and Ralph A. Lowe, Whittier; L. Fleming, F. Schwan and M. G. Tinsley, Pomona.

Sixty-ninth Assembly District, South Pasadena—Dr. Q. J. Rowley, H. H. Mayberry, G. M. Purcell, John E. Daly, Russell Kingsdale, Charles Malcolm, George Hirsch, J. B. Leonis, Leo Longley, Merton E. Keith and Stephen Strong.

Seventieth Assembly District, Santa Monica—J. C. Hemingway, B. S. Hunter, W. S. Vawter and Grant Smith, Santa Monica; Dorsey Patton, Ocean Park; L. F. Wells, Redondo; L. H. West, Gardena; L. E. Elliott, Compton; J. E. Logan, San Pedro; P. J. Watson, Wilmington.

Seventy-fourth Assembly District, Soldiers' Home—George H. Dunlop, Hollywood; F. W. Hovey, Cahuenga; H. Tobin, J. M. Hosies, William Milligan and W. F. Miller, Soldiers' Home.

H. C. Hubbard presided a the San Fernando convention, which indorsed Warren Porter for Governor and John Burr for Sheriff.

At the Covina convention, P. C. Daniels of Glendora was chairman and L. E. Hotchkiss, Monrovia, secretary. The administrations of President Roosevelt, Gov. Pardee and the services of Congressman McLachlan were indorsed.

In the South Pasadena convention, there was some opposition to the slated delegates, the names of Mayberry and Purcell being substituted for those of E. R. Allen and A. A. Weber.

C. E. Weid was chairman and B. S. Hunter secretary of the Santa Monica convention. The President, the Congressman from this district and Senator Flint were indorsed.

Gen. J. L. Beveridge of Hollywood presided and T. J. Shea was secretary at the Soldiers' Home convention.

With the exception of the action of the San Fernando convention in expressing its choice of Warren Porter for Governor, and the indorsement of the administration of Gov. Pardee by the Covina convention, the delegates assembled were silent as to their choice for Chief Executive of the State.

With the eighty-six delegates from Los Angeles and Pasadena, the forty-six delegates from the country districts, making a total of 129, will go to the Santa Cruz convention practically uninstructed on Governor and with their minds apparently open on all State offices.

VIGNES MUST FACE TRIAL.

Sheriff's Deputy Arrested on Vote-Buying Charge.

Declares He Is a Victim of Mistaken Identity.

Examination Will Be Held After Convention.

Acting promptly on the charge that money had been offered by a man giving the name of Vignes, for votes to be cast at the primary election of Tuesday, Dist.-Atty. Fredericks issued a warrant yesterday for the arrest of H. C. Vignes, who is employed by Sheriff White as a guard at the Detention Home.

Vignes was taken before Township Justice Young. His examination was set for September 6, and he was released on $1000 bail, which was furnished by D. J. Lewis, a saloon-keeper at No. 118 South Spring street, and William Lewis.

Sheriff White, at his own request, was permitted to serve the warrant on Vignes—a queer circumstance—and it was left to the Sheriff to say whether the accused man's examination should be held before or after the Republican County Convention, which opens next Tuesday. Sheriff White chose to have the examination take place after the convention—a decidedly significant choice.

The complaint upon which the warrant was issued for the arrest of Vignes was sworn to by Harry C. Carr, a reporter for The Times, who alleges that Vignes "wilfully, unlawfully, feloniously, corruptly and knowingly" offered to pay him $2 to vote at the primary election in Precinct 40, for David S. Larimer, Ralph M. Watson, Dr. S. C. Balch, William E. Oliver and Simpson McClure for delegates to the Republican County Convention.

SAYS IT'S A MISTAKE.

Vignes, who is employed as a night guard at the Detention Home and who lives at No. 1409 East First street, declares that his arrest is due to mistaken identity; that the offer of payment for votes to be cast at the primary election was made by a man known to the watchers employed by one of the factions battling for victory at the primaries. He gave the name of a voter who had been registered from that precinct and then was given pen and ink with which to sign his name. He signed a middle initial that was different from the original, and a comparison of the registered voter's written signature with that of the stranger revealed that they were in no manner alike.

The stranger was asked where he lived.

"On Flower street," he replied.

Questioned further, the fellow could not give the number of his residence, nor could he say between what cross street he lived on Flower.

His vote was challenged promptly and he departed hastily from the booth. It was not until later that the watchers were impressed with the fact that the fellow possibly was an imposter and should be arrested.

A BITTER FIGHT.

The contest in precinct no 40 started many weeks ago. It came to a head on Saturday night last at the caucus, which was held at the Hotel Westmoore on West Seventh street.

Simpson McClure, who was a street contractor during the administration of Street Superintendent E. R. Werdin, now a candidate for Sheriff, once was the Republican leader in Precinct No. 40. He sought to retain this leadership against heavy opposition, and prepared a caucus ticket for adoption Saturday night.

On his ticket, besides his own name, appeared those of David S. Larimer, Ralph M. Watson, Dr. S. C. Balch and William E. Oliver. This ticket won at the caucus by a margin of three votes. The supposition was that McClure wished to be a candidate to the county convention for the purpose of supporting Werdin or White for Sheriff. Dr. Balch and Mr. Oliver were known as supporters of the candidacy of Louis Schwaebe for County Auditor.

An ineffectual fight was made at the caucus to select a delegation consisting of Clarence Mallard, Frank H. Dennis, Robert T. Brain, E. L. Brady and Guy Eddie, suporters of Herbert G. Dow for County Auditor and supposed to favor Hammel as the Sheriff nominee.

OPPOSITION WINS.

This opposition carried the fight into the primaries, and after a close contest elected all of their ticket with the exception of Dennis. The greatest margin separating any of the candidates was four votes. It is said now that Dennis probably will win in the convention, as three ballots favorable to him were thrown out on a technicality that is said to bear no relation to their legality.

It was because of this savage fight that the bogus voters are supposed to have been run into the precinct from downtown, or from any point where they might be picked up.

The supposition is that the offer of the man known as Vignes to buy the vote of Mr. Carr was in support of masquerading under his name, and one who possibly resembled him.

"I am not the man they are after," said Vignes, last evening, after consenting with reluctance to discuss the charge against him.

"There are half a dozen men in Los Angeles who resemble me. I think some one has put up a job and has used my name.

"I am a delegate to the Republican County Convention from Precinct No. 135 in Boyle Heights, and I am friendly to the candidacy of Sheriff White. I was not out of my precinct more than an hour and a half on Tuesday, during the primary election.

"During that time I drove around to a number of precinct polling places to see how the fight was going. I was in Precinct No. 137 and Precinct No. 40. I know Simpson McClure, who was one of the caucus delegates in Precinct No. 40, but I was in his precinct only a few minutes.

"I did not stop on Main street and offer to buy the votes of any one. I did not take one man or two men or any number of men in my carriage to the polling place in Precinct No. 40.

"I do not know anything about the charges made against me. They have got the wrong man and will find that out when the case comes up in court."

THE OFFER TO BUY.

Against this denial by Vignes there is the plain statement of Mr. Carr, published in yesterday's Times, corroborated by another witness, George Herriman, who was present when the offer to purchase votes was made.

Vignes approached Carr and offered in plain terms to buy his vote," also arranging that Carr should vote under the name of "A. E. Keller" of No. 851 Mallard street, a felony.

Mr. Carr was taken in a carriage to the polling place of Precinct No. 40, accompanied by the man known as Vignes and by Herriman, was given the false name, was instructed exactly how he should vote under that name, and was given the primary ticket purporting to bear the names of delegates favorable to the nomination of Sheriff White. Of course, he did not vote.

It turns out that Keller, whose name was expected to be voted unlawfully, is absent in the Owens River country, a fact apparently known to those who plotted that another person should vote under his name.

Mr. Carr has in his possession the slip handed to him by Vignes containing the name and address that he (Carr) was instructed by Vignes to assume.

SHERIFF'S STATEMENT.

Sheriff White stated yesterday that he knew nothing of any plan to capture the delegation from Precinct No. 40 in his favor.

"I am not after that kind of support," said White. "The fight in that precinct was not on the Sheriff, although Simpson McClure, one of the caucus delegates, is a friend of mine. Vignes is a guard at the Detention Home, but I don't know whether he is under me or under Judge Wilbur of the Juvenile Court. I have suspended him, or, at least, shall suspend him if I can find a man to take his place.

Before his employment a few weeks ago as Detention Home guard, Vignes served as a deputy under White, having charge of the insane pavilion at the County Hospital. One of his brothers is a member of the Los Angeles police force.

OUTSIDERS ARE VOTED.

Political workers who had an active part in the primary election in precinct No. 40, the voting place for which was in a tent at Eighth and Francisco streets, declare that they discovered during the day that outsiders apparently were being voted in that precinct—persons who had no legal right so to do.

Several times during the day it was noticed by the watchers on duty that strangers offered their votes. Some of them were unkempt in appearance and not of a cut that indicated they belonged in that residence section.

One of the strangers was a man un-

This is the name which the vote-buyer copied from the great register and asked his intended victim to assume. It here appears just as he wrote it.

TWO PHYSICIANS MARRIED.

Cupid's Dart Flung When Both Were Medical Students Years Ago in Boston.

Dr. Walter Sydney Johnson of this city and Dr. Julia Ross Youngiove of Boston were married yesterday in Riverside by Justice Hibbard, the wedding being the sequel of a romance begun when both physicians attended clinics and lectures in the City of Culture. The bridegroom is aged 34 and is a native of Minnesota.

Some years ago Dr. Johnson came to Los Angeles under an agreement with the then Miss Youngiove that when he had built up a considerable practice here, she would leave her home in Boston and come to Southern California to become his wife.

Dr. Johnson found friends here that aided him in his profession, and by earnest work and ability he succeeded in attaining a practice sufficient to warrant the coming of his bride. The couple are now enjoying a honeymoon trip, following which they will return to this city to make it their permanent home.

ONLY RIVATE PAPERS.

Nephew of Late Harry F. Stafford Tells of What He Took from City Engineer's Desk.

Considerable comment was caused by the action of R. H. Gray, nephew of the late Harry F. Stafford, just prior to the death of the City Engineer, in hurrying to Stafford's office in the City Hall, unlocking his desk and abstracting certain papers therefrom.

Yesterday Gray made a statement to H. B. Farris, secretary of the Board of Public Works, in which he declared that the papers removed were all purely private, and had no connection in any manner with any detail of the City Engineer's office. For personal reasons, Mrs. Stafford has refused to make public just what papers were removed from the City Engineer's desk, but Mr. Farris stated last night that he was thoroughly satisfied with young Gray's explanation, and that the matter was entirely a private one, which necessitated immediate attention at the time the action was taken which caused comment.

INDUSTRIAL LOT SOLD.

Also Many Lots at Moderate Price to Home Builders.

W. B. Merwin & Co. and William M. Garland have sold two lots on the south side of Seventh street near Mateo, for $15,000. C. F. Brady is the buyer. The improvements on the lot are unimportant.

The Herron Realty Company report the following sales:

Merchants' Trust Company to J. H. Cummings, Nos. 1253 and 1257 West Jefferson street, two five-room cottages, on a lot 75x135 feet, $5600.

S. W. Champion to Francis D. Ellis, ten-room house, No. 1644 Wilton Place, lot 50x178 feet, $6750.

Belle G. Black to William Kafitz, a lot on Grammercy Place between Sixteenth and Eighteenth streets, 75x178 feet, $3250.

Esther A. Newlin to W. C. Beringer, lot on Jefferson street between Western avenue and Durango, 50x136 feet, $1250.

F. E. Robinson & Co. report the sale of ten lots in Venice View Heights tract at $450 to $600 each. These lots are each 50x150 feet to an alley.

PREPARED FOR ANY STRIKE.

Building Contractors Will Refuse Union Demands.

Employers Stand Firmly for Industrial Freedom.

No Concessions Whatever to Walking Delegates.

Indications are that the threatened strike of union laborers in this city is beaten before it is declared—that it will die a-borning.

Stormy conditions prevailed at union-labor headquarters all day yesterday and late into the night, as a result of The Times exposé of the secret plot of the building trades-union-lists to make demands on September 1, for higher wages and Saturday afternoon half holiday.

CARL LEONARDT.

The jawsmiths all but wept, wailed and gnashed their teeth in an endeavor to coerce the labor council into an immediate strike. Business Agent McElwain stubbornly maintained that a mistake had been made by the Carpenters and Joiners' Union, No. 158, in standing for a raise in wages. He opposed the eloquence of the jawsmiths by telling them flatly that they could not make the raise in wages stick, that they would be beaten and slip back into a worse position than they now occupy.

A strong faction of the labor council tried at a late hour to bolster up a general walk-out today on the grounds that the contractors have refused to treat with their business agents and delegations from the unions that have been seeking for months past a conference with the contractors.

It was decided that the demand for 50 cents an hour by the carpenters apply only to the building trades and not to the mill men. The mill men demanded this, saying that they were satisfied and would refuse to be drawn into a strike for a raise on September 4.

EMPLOYERS STAND FIRM.

A careful canvass of the leading contractors of the city showed conclusively that the demands of the union will be flatly refused in toto and that if a strike is declared, it will be flanked by the declaration of a lockout, if necessary, by the contractors and master builders.

"I do not wish to wave a red flag in the faces of these unions by defying them," said C. Leonardt, one of the largest contractors west of Chicago to a Times reporter yesterday afternoon. "But the action taken by the unions last night was entirely a move impelled by the principle of unionism as interpreted by walking delegates and not action demanded by existing conditions. I am not waving a red flag, but I say that these demands will be refused, absolutely. There are no grounds for them. No hardship is being worked. It is ridiculous that they are not willing to work six full days and I maintain that wages are higher in Los Angeles in proportion to living expenses, etc., than they are in San Francisco. I am told this by laborers who are daily returning from San Francisco. Work is plentiful and trade was never in a healthier condition in this city than it is today. The unions now want to ask us to drink a cup that will poison our business life and make the city sick.

"I like my men. I am ready to admit that I can always find the best of skilled mechanics among the union men, but there are just as good mechanics who do not belong to the unions. These latter are perfectly satisfied—why should not the union men be satisfied? I simply appeal to the better judgment of my men, most of whom I know personally and all of whom I am compelled to size up—it is my business. I can simply tell them that the growth of my business means plenty of work for them at good wages, far better wages than prevail in other parts of the United States, where living is more expensive and conditions less pleasant. I am paying every cent to my men that I can and I am paying them what they are worth. I have no flat wage like the union demands. I cannot see it that way. I am willing to pay the carpenters I employ $3.50 a day, but they have to get a move on them, and if I have a man who is worth $4 a day he is going to get $4 a day. Why, I am paying some extra skilled bricklayers $7, yes, even $8 a day, although I am ashamed to admit it. I am paying them that because I want and must have that particular kind of labor and not because any union demands it.

"I do not fear a strike in the least, and if one is declared the contractors of this city will stand their ground and the property owners will support us. We will stand because the unions are not fighting for what they really need, but are mixing a dogmatic principle with their business. Why, I know that these men are satisfied. Most of them have their pretty little homes scattered along the hills at the outskirts of the city where their children can get plenty of sunshine, flowers and good, pure air. The wages are sufficient to let them live far better than their fellow-workmen in other parts of the country. Are they going to shut up those happy homes and walk the streets because a walking delegate says they must? If they are so foolish, why, they will have to walk, for their demands will be refused, tomorrow, next week or September 1. If they take the afternoon off I have got to hire additional men to keep a certain job up to date. Do they ask that the cost of those additional men shall come out of my pocket, when my lowest figures have already been agreed to at a wage to the laborer which affords him a fair and square opportunity to earn their livelihood? They must work six days.

WHAT STRIKE MEANS.

"A strike will work considerable hardship on all of us and retard the growth of the city, especially small owners and business men but the city can far better afford to stand that hardship than the laborer can, and in the end the laborer will be the one to suffer for a condition that he alone is responsible for. If the unions feel that they must strike, they alone will be responsible for any hardship that may come to them and not the contractor. And if the strike comes, every citizen in Los Angeles must stand his ground, and the property owner must be willing to grant an extension of time on building contracts. It is an issue vital to the very life of Los Angeles and its future—an issue which Los Angeles cannot afford to weaken before. A strike may affect eastern winter trade for a time, but what will the result be if the East shall say, 'Even Los Angeles is gone, and now the whole State of California is governed by labor unions.' It were far better to lose the tourist trade for one season than to lose it forever, for I tell you that capital will stop coming to Los Angeles for investment, the day that Los Angeles loses on this issue.

NO MORE CONCESSIONS.

"We have given in to the unions just as far as we can possibly afford to, and will not give in another inch. As far as the contractors and master builders are concerned, the union already has its answer which is, 'No half holiday will be granted on Saturday unless the laborers are willing to lose half a day's pay, and no raise in wages will be agreed to.' The trades unions will have to strike or crawl back in their holes and add another chapter of defeat to their list of failures. I make this statement because I know that the union laborers in Los Angeles are getting a square deal all the way through, and that there is no ground for complaint on their part."

The foregoing declaration with reference to the threatened strike of union laborers on September 1 was made to a Times reporter yesterday afternoon by C. J. Kubach in his office, No. 670 Pacific Electric Building. It expresses the opinion of practically every other contractor in the city.

"I am willing that you should quote me as saying that the demands voted by the Carpenters' Union, as reported in The Times, will be refused, and that we will not retreat from this stand one inch," said H. W. Bryson, manager of the F. O. Engstrum Co., last night. "We will seriously regret a strike, but we are ready to meet one if the unions insist upon any such unreasonable demands. That is all that I care to say, and I guess that covers the position of this company in the matter."

NEED MORE MEMBERS.

One reason for the strike move on the part of the union leaders is that they hope to increase the strength of all the unions thereby. This is best expressed in the words of one of the speakers Tuesday night: "We have got to make a clean-up on the streets," he said. "We have got to drive these scabs that are controlling the wages for which we work under cover. Here is a cover where they can be controlled. They must be forced to join the union. Our move in lowering the initiation fee to $2 was a good one. You can see the effects of it here tonight in the list of eighty-five candidates that have been admitted. We should have 185 next week, and we will."

"How are you going to get these non-union men to join?" continued the speaker. "If we can go out to them and say: 'We are going to fix it so that you will only have to work forty-four hours a week, for which you will be paid $22, where you are now working forty-eight hours a week and only getting $21,' won't that bring them in. That is the reason that you have got to stand for the raise in wages. The loss of wages for that Saturday half holiday must come out of the contractor's pocket, and not out of our pocket, otherwise you will have no argument with the scabs. If you stand for the half holiday alone, you will simply force the contractors to hire more men to make up a full week's work, and these scabs will not agree to quit Saturday noon if it takes $1.75 out of their pocket."

It was not this kind of an argument, neither was it any dissatisfaction with the wages paid them that caused the carpenters to vote to strike. There were scores of men in the hall who would have opposed the resolutions had they dared to do so, but they were given no opportunity to express their sentiments. The walking delegates wanted to hear only from those who were willing to join them, for it is only when a strike is on that the walking delegate is really prosperous.

WARRANT FOR HER HUSBAND.

The wife of W. S. Phipps yesterday swore out a warrant for the arrest of her husband, charging him with threats to beat her and do her serious bodily harm.

RUMPUS OVER PAPER DEAL.

Bids for Stationery Show an Alleged Scheme.

Supply Committee Is Willing to Split Contracts.

It Provides a Monopoly for Certain Bidders.

Is the city to witness still another scandal—one emanating from the Supply Committee of the City Council? Will the City Council stand for the proposed splitting up of contracts on stationery supplies, so that specially favored firms may pick up juicy plums and, as a result, increase the cost of certain supplies to the extent of hundreds of dollars?

These are queries which were brought to light by developments yesterday at the meeting of the City Council's Supply Committee.

Following a radical departure from all precedents, the Committee on Supplies of the City Council yesterday opened bids for supplying the various city departments with stationery and stationers' sundries.

The foundation for this departure from established usages was laid last week, when the committee rejected all bids submitted and ordered new bids advertised for.

Under the old system the bidder offering the lowest figure on the greater number of articles secured the contract.

Under the new bids called for the proposals were ordered submitted on various articles enumerated in the schedule prepared by the City Clerk.

DIVIDING THE PLUM.

This system of subdividing the bids is introduced for the first time, despite the fact that the contracts for drugs and groceries, awarded a month ago, were awarded to the lowest bidder on the greater number of articles enumerated in the list submitted.

When the first bids were submitted there were but two bidders, the Grimes & Stasforth Company and the Stoll & Thayer Company, and the contract lay between these two. The question of competition was raised by the Out West Company, which asserted that it was debarred from bidding because it was unable to offer proposals on the greater number of articles enumerated.

In speaking of the matter yesterday City Clerk Lelande vouchsafed the information that as the county had been using this system the committee felt that it would apply to the city equally as well.

This version of the affair is not accepted by either of the first-named firms, who see in the proposition a trick and device.

"FAT" FOR THE PRINTER.

Under the lump-bid system the Out West Company, being printers rather than stationers, was unable to get in on the greater number of articles used, so in order to permit them to capture one of the fattest bits of the contract, the bids were rejected and the whole contract split up to suit each individual.

The "nigger in the woodpile" comes in the engineering department supplies. Under the heading of "surveyors' supplies," the schedule calls for tracing cloth, cross-section books, "W. & N." moist colors, in full and half pans, Lufkin steel tapes, thumb tacks. Following this is the item "All surveyors' supplies not itemized, to be furnished at —— per cent. discount from Keuffel & Esser Co. or Eugene Dietzgen's catalogues."

With the exception of the vellum tracing cloth the other articles itemized amount to comparatively nothing, while under the general item of "surveyors' supplies" falls the profile paper, an item that amounts to between three and four thousand dollars.

Hereby hangs the tail of the entire transaction. The Out West Company is the only one in Los Angeles having the agency for the paper now used by the County Surveyor and accepted by the City Engineer. It was on this fat plum the concern had its eye, and it is openly hinted that the change in the system of accepting bids was made to accommodate the concern.

CHANCE FOR PROFITS.

But the profile paper is not all that comes under this head. The engineering department uses a large number of field books, and this item is noticeably lacking in the list of sundries enumerated.

These books under the old system stood the city something like $3.70, whereas under the new bidding they will cost about $4.50.

It is on the profile paper where the committee has paved the way for an increase in the cost of the engineering department. This paper was furnished heretofore at $7.50 per roll, whereas under the bids opened yesterday it will cost about $16.50. The department uses between twenty-five and thirty rolls per month. At the lower figure of twenty-five rolls per month this item would amount to $3146 under the new bids, whereas under the old contract it amounted to but $2250, or nearly $900. Roughly speaking, the committee increases the cost in this department $1000.

The committee will report next Monday on the bids submitted, when it is expected a lively time will ensue in the Council.

The bids for drugs and groceries are equally important to the stationery contract, and the public is trying to figure out the cause for this sudden departure from established precedents.

WOMEN WILL DEBATE TODAY.

Members of W.C.T.U. to Give Views on Child Labor and the Liquor Traffic.

"Resolved, that child labor is a greater evil than the liquor traffic," is the subject of a debate to be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the First Methodist Church under the auspices of the Los Angeles Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The affirmative address will be made by Mrs. Josephine Mariatt of this city, and the negative side will be presented by Miss Emma Black of Cincinnati.

Following the addresses, the members of the union will give their views on the question, after which a vote will be taken to show the concensus of opinion in the audience.

The union gave a birthday surprise party yesterday afternoon to one of its members, Mrs. William Tibbott, at her home in Huntington Park. The party was largely attended and addresses were made by Mrs. Hester T. Griffith, president of the Los Angeles County Union, and Mrs. Lucy S. Blanchard, president of the local union. Quotations from the writing of Frances E. Willard were read by the guests.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Finance Committee presented its annual budget to the City Council yesterday. The tax rate will be $1.16 per $100 this year. The announcement was made in the annual budget of the city's Finance Committee, which was presented to the City Council yesterday.

The City Council met in adjourned session, but as the City Attorney has expressed doubt as to the legality of the session, owing to the fact that a quorum was not present last Monday when the adjourned session was ordered, reports were simply accepted, and no action was taken on ordinances or legislation which would require the outlay of any city funds. For the same reason the outfall sewer affair was postponed until the next regular session of the Council.

The Finance Committee's annual budget gives an array of interesting figures. The committee makes the statement that because of the greatly increased valuations levied by the City Assessor, the amount of reductions necessary to keep the allowances of the various city departments within the $1 limit allowed by law have been much less than in former years.

Allowances made for the fiscal year of 1906-7 are based upon the total assessed valuation of the city amounting to $266,265,704.

The total allowances made for the various departments aggregate $2,629,-867.04. In addition to the taxable revenue, the Finance Committees estimates an income of $5000 from dog license; $400 from licenses from other sources, and $80,000 receipts from fines from the police courts.

The estimated income for the city will be about $400,000 more than that of last year. The tax levy to meet outstanding bonds, recommended by the Finance Committee, and which, doubtless, will be formally adopted at the next regular session of the City Council, is as follows:

Old city, .16; annex of 1894, .10; annex of 1896, .06. This would make the total city tax rate: Old city, $1.16; annex of 1896, $1.10; annex of 1896, $1.06.

The budget gives the school fund $290,000, an increase of $45,000 over the year just closed. The fire department gets $810,000, an increase of $70,000. The police department will have $50,000 more to work on, as it will get $500,-000. The park department gets $130,-000, an increase of $19,000, and the street department gets the largest increase of all, amounting to $104,781, and bringing its full appropriation to $501,327.

The Finance Committee has been enabled to provide a fund of $25,000 for election expenses, and a general or emergency fund amounting to $172,-201.56.

"Among the general expenses which it is planned to come out of this fund are bridges at Seventh and Macy streets, an automobile for the Board of Health, purchasing fifty-two United States standard voting machines, building of fire engine houses in the Second, Fifth and Sixth wards, building of a storm sewer on Vermont avenue and one on Fourth street, providing for the payment of paving Seventh street in front of Westlake Park, building a retaining wall on Hope street, and many minor expenses which are bound to occur during the year.

The budget also allows in full the estimate made by the Board of Public Works for the collection and incineration of garbage, amounting to $69,540, together with an allowance sufficient to make the payments upon the contract price of the incinerator, and for the rebuilding of the burned incinerator.

The budget provides for the departments under the management of the Board of Public Works as follows:

Department of Public Works	$ 16,400.00
Building Inspector	28,895.00
Custodian	17,960.00
Electrical department	18,534.00
Engineer	201,340.00
Garbage	100,060.00
Street lighting	191,476.40
Street department	253,400.00
Street sprinkling, water	130,000.00
Street sprinkling, oil	20,000.00
Street sweeping	90,560.00
Total	$975,932.40

The Finance Committee closes its communication to the Council with the statement:

"The adoption of the aforesaid rates for the year 1906-7 will necessitate the refunding of overcollections to those who have paid their taxes upon unsecured personal property. We suggest that the City Clerk be instructed to refrain from making out the demands for these refund personal property taxes until the same have been applied for by those entitled to them.

"We would also suggest that the City Clerk be instructed to request the City Auditor to notify all the different departments of the city of the amount allowed them under this budget, with instructions to inform the different departments that these allowances are made with the full determination to require the different departments to maintain their monthly expenditures within an amount equal to one-twelfth of the allowance made in the budget. The time has come when the several departments must thoroughly understand that no demands will be approved by the Finance Committee during any one month aggregating more than one-twelfth of their allowances."

COUNCIL'S DOINGS.

GRIST OF YESTERDAY.

"Tom" Collins will remain City Hall guide for at least the next sixty days. The City Council yesterday requested the Civil Service Commission [illegible] to extend his emergency appointment to that position for the time stated. The commission has advertised at various times dates for examination for men for this position, but no one is inclined to step forward and take the place so ably filled by Collins, who has lost his eyesight and for whom the position is especially suitable.

The City Council yesterday passed a resolution instructing the City Attorney to begin suit against the People's Gas Company—the oderiferous Lowe gas concern—to compel the company to include in its new corporation the indebtedness of the present company. The statement was made by one of the Councilmen that the various incorporations of the Lowe concern were made very largely to avoid the payment of its just indebtedness to the city.

The question of establishing a public morgue came up before the City Council yesterday, and was referred to the Finance Committee. Councilman Houghton was the special advocate for the proposition, and asked that a special committee be appointed to select a site and secure information on cost of equipment. He stated that a lot could be secured within the present zone for undertaking establishments at a cost of not more than $5000 and that an equipment could be installed for from $35,000 to $37,000.

Deeds for the property required in the widening of Compton avenue from Rubio to Forty-ninth street and State street from Merino street to Griffin avenue, were received by the City Council yesterday.

The Council yesterday denied the petition of the Amalgamated Oil Company for an extension of the district within which oil tanks could be erected and oil could be stored. A petition came up from property owners on Aurora street protesting against any further extension of the district, and the claim was made that present tanks were depreciating the prices of property in that vicinity.

The Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company yesterday notified the City Council that it will hold the city and the contractors for the Sixth street storm drain responsible for the damages caused to its conduits during the construction of the drain.

Formal notification was given the City Council yesterday of the appointment of J. M. Schneider, manager of the Boston Store, as the representative of the Municipal League, and A. B. Cass as the representative of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association on the committee to investigate best methods for municipal book-keeping. The Chamber of Commerce has not yet made its appointment of a member on this committee, but sent a communication stating that it would do so.

The City Council yesterday ordered the installation of a system of ornamental lights on West Ninth street, from Hill to Main street, under the provisions of the municipal lighting act. This was in accordance with the petition of M. Lissner and other property owners on that street.

REVALUING IMPROVEMENTS.

ASSESSOR LEWIS WILL ACT.

City Assessor Lewis has a plan on foot for the revaluation of improvements on city lots. He made a statement yesterday regarding this matter, as follows:

"I have gone all over the city revaluing and equalizing real estate. I shall start again at once to revalue improvements. Owing to the fact that material and lumber are much higher now than they have been, I have decided to assess all new improvements from now on at 50 per cent. of their actual cost, instead of 60 per cent., as heretofore.

"All other improvements that are now valued at 60 per cent. of their cost will be reduced to 50 per cent. Old improvements will also be cut from 10 to 20 per cent, when justifiable.

"I shall make this change because I do not believe it is just and right to assess improvements on a higher basis than that of real estate. The cut I shall make in these improvements will amount to perhaps about five millions, but new improvements built this year will more than make up for this loss. When this cut is made thousands owning homes in the residential section of the city will not pay any more taxes than they did two years ago, and a great many will pay less, according to the value of their homes, because the cut in their improvements will be equal or greater than the increase made in the valuation of their lots.

"Of course, the speculator in land will not be benefited by this—only those improving their property and building up the city. In the meantime when this is done the valuation of the property in the city of Los Angeles will have been increased at least $100,000,000, for I contend that there will be some increase in the assessment roll of this city again next year, notwithstanding the cut of $5,000,000 to be made in improvements. How much, I am not able to state at this time, but a safe estimate, I think, will be about $20,000,000.

"The residential section of the city is fairly assessed now, and so is the business section of the city, but the business section is growing and expanding rapidly, and, in consequence, values are advancing steadily in some directions and can be assessed accordingly. The industrial section of the city also can be raised again in spots next year.

"There will be numbers of new subdivisions, also, this year that will add materially to the value of the city. Public utility and close corporations can pay on a few millions more again next year as their business increases, and that without being discriminated against."

CONTRACTORS' EXTENSIONS.

THEY MAY BE CURTAILED.

The presentation of requests from Contractors George Rheinschild and M. S. Cummings for extensions on their contracts for street improvements, coming before the Board of Public Works yesterday, brought about a vigorous discussion by its members of the need of curtailing the prevailing habit of granting extension after extension as the contractors demand them.

A proposition to make a ruling that only one extension on a contract would be allowed, and that for excellent reason, was broached, but it was finally decided that the board could make no rigid rule, as conditions at the present time are unusual in their character, and there must necessarily be a special consideration given each case. In the case of Cummings, who holds the contract for the improvement of Cahuenga street, work has been delayed by numerous outside causes, among them being a hold-up by shotgun from property owners interested.

"It is a physical impossibility," said President Anderson of the Board of Public Works yesterday, "to complete all the contracts for street work which have been awarded within the past month in the time specified in these contracts. Within the last few weeks there have been contracts let for the improvement of at least 150 streets. We know very well that it is practically impossible, in the present state of the labor market and difficulty of obtaining material, that these streets can be completed in the contract time."

The contractors were finally granted the required extensions, but the Board of Public Works will rigidly scrutinize any new applications before extending such favors in future.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

WEAVING WOOF OF EVIDENCE.

CORROBORATION OF MRS. SCHECK IN SMALL DETAILS.

Prosecution Offering Testimony Tending to Show That Sensational Story of Joel Scheck's Murder Is True, and the Links Are Furnished by Many Small Circumstances.

With the exodus of Mrs. Aurelia Scheck from the courtroom Tuesday evening, the first part of the prosecution's case virtually closed. That first part was one of assertion merely. The highly sensational story by the wife of the murdered Joel Scheck may have impressed the jury as being true or false, but at least it could have little force when a man's life is at stake standing alone.

Mrs. Scheck was by her own confession, an accomplice to the murder. In addition too, she was an utterly faithless wife before Ernest Stackpole appeared upon the scene. The statement that when she raised up in bed and looked down upon her sleeping husband, while she knew his doom was sealed and his murderer was hurrying to perpetrate the crime, her heart was filled with wifely love and affection, merely indicated the definition that she attaches to the word "love."

The phase of sensational assertion having passed, it has been succeeded by the numerous circumstances tending to corroborate the story of Mrs. Scheck. Police Officer H. B. Wallace testified to having seen the small revolver offered in evidence lying in a drawer in the Scheck rooms on the morning of the murder. The only reason for so many allusions to this small, cheap 32 caliber revolver is to remove from the minds of the jury any idea that may arise when the defense puts in its case that the deceased commited suicide.

The idea sought to be conveyed is that if Scheck had desired to commit suicide, he would have used his own weapon and not have obtained one from the outside which, by the way, ought to have been found close to the hand of the suicide. As a matter of fact, the revolver with which the killing was done has mysteriously disappeared.

George Williams promised to be a most important witness, but before he left the stand the force of his testimony had expended itself and Williams was made to appear as a self-confessed trickster.

The witness stated that on June 5 he met a man and woman close to Fifth and San Julian streets. Williams said that he is a carpenter and had just come from union headquarters. As the couple passed along he heard the woman say to her companion:

"Well, how will we fix him?" to which the man responded: "You leave that to me, and I'll get rid of him."

Williams stated that at a later date he identified the woman as Mrs. Scheck, and the man as the defendant, Ernest G. Stackpole.

Standing alone that bit of testimony appeared rather important, after cross-examination it appeared of far less importance.

Williams in the first instance conceded that he had made application for a position on the police force, but denied that he was trying to work up a case and establish a reputation as a sleuth out of the case at bar.

He said that the woman wore a black skirt, white shirt waist and a black hat as far as he remembered, and Stackpole wore either a light or dark suit of clothes and a Panama hat. Neither description was particularly definite, and the "either light or dark suit" was not lacking in absurdity. But Williams stated that he had not paid close attention to the clothing of either party.

"It was features, not clothing, that I was after," and he added that he was "absolutely positive" as to the words that passed between the man and the woman. But after being jabbed by Attorney Thompson, of defending counsel, Williams got angry and finally owned up that he had misquoted the words of the woman.

"How will we get rid of him?" was the query addressed by Mrs. Scheck to Stackpole according to the witness's amended version, but he left Stackpole's alleged answer undisturbed, so that the answer was in part a repetition of the question.

Having taken notice of the features of the two persons, Williams was asked regarding them.

"You didn't notice the woman's eyes did you?" inquired Thompson.

"No, I didn't notice her eyes or their color."

"Well, what did you notice?"

"She had an oval face and a flat nose."

"What, one of those flat mushy noses?"

"Naw, it wasn't mushy," Williams snapped angrily back.

"Well what else did you see?"

"She had a sort of small mouth."

"A small sweet mouth?" queried the attorney, for the mouth of Mrs. Scheck is the one feature that does not discredit her in appearance.

"Aw," surlily answered the witness, "I don't know; I didn't taste it."

He added that he only saw the side features of the man, and woman and her mouth on the off side might have run up to her ear for all that he knew.

Williams's description of Stackpole was that he noticed that he had a high forehead, prominent chin, and had lips that stuck out like a negro's.

By circuitous route, Mr. Thompson led the witness back to the headquarters of the Carpenters' Union, and asked some questions regarding the officers of the organization. Williams told with exactness the clothing worn by the officers even down to the glaring red neck scarf of one. But when he began to describe their features he failed in fluency, and could not describe the features of any one with certainty.

Speaking of the general features of one man in the union headquarters Williams said: "I'm not so strong on features, but his face was like my own in shape."

"Turn and let the jury see your face," said the attorney. "I'll file it as an exhibit in the case."

O. L. Baker, an employé of the Water Department, and who rooms with Mrs. Harkness, mother of Mrs. Scheck, on Los Angeles street, told of Stackpole having borrowed a handerchief from him. Later he went with the defendant to his room and saw Stackpole go to a drawer and get a clean handketchief and then pick up a soiled one from the bureau. This is the handkerchief upon which were found some small spots of blood.

Attorney Thompson attempted to show the interest of this witness by making him confess that he had acted in some degree as advisor to Mrs. Harkness, and that he had borrowed money from her.

Felix Hess, another roomer, told of his speaking with Stackpole on the day of the murder about the horrible tragedy. The defendant then remarked that "if they catch those fiends," referring to the supposed burglars, he would "help to pull the rope" with which they would be hanged.

Dr. R. V. Day went upon the stand to tell of the chemical analysis he had made of the blood stains on the handkerchief, and testified to their being stains of human blood.

Capt Paul E. Flammer gave evidence regarding the entry in the register of the Blaine lodging-house showing that "James Bowen and Mrs. Bowen" had roomed at the house on the day Stackpole landed from Arizona, and on the day that Mrs. Scheck has stated while on the witness stand that she had joined "Ernest" in room No. 206 at the Blaine.

LITTLE WIFEY FIBBED.

HUSBAND WANTS ANNULMENT.

Colwell Rollins married Miss Florence A. Hahnemann on December 3, 1902, when he was only 17 years of age, and now through a guardian he is asking the court to declare the marriage annulled. Robert Cooley is acting as the young husband's guardian in this matter, and is engineering the annulment proceeding.

It is claimed that the marriage ought to be annulled on account of misrepresentations before marriage on the part of the wife, and also because the husband was under age and acted contrary to the wishes and without the consent of his parents.

Miss Hahnemann told young Rollins, so it is alleged, that she was a daughter of the wealthy Hahnemann family of Philadelphia, when as a matter of fact she did not occupy any such position at all. The girl fibbed, and at least its immediate effect was to make young Rollins feel good.

On December 8, 1902, the minor husband attained his eighteenth year, and since then he has not lived with his wife, and this personal renunciation he wants the court to ratify by annulling the marriage and setting both parties free again.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

ALLEGES MALICE. Charles B. Williams has instituted suit against M. H. H. M. and George French to recover $2000 as damages. In April last it is claimed that the defendants with malicious intent prompted George French to file a criminal complaint against Williams, and had him arrested on a charge of grand larceny. In the month of June the case was carried to trial and Williams was discharged. Now he asks monetary compensation for the alleged injury.

HASKELL DIVORCE. Charles O. Haskell was granted a divorce yesterday from Sadie Haskell, on the ground of desertion. The parties were married on August 28, 1882, at San José.

DOCTOR REMANDED. "Dr." Thos. H. Storey, who was arrested and sentenced in the city court for practicing without a license from the State Board of Medical Examiners, applied for a writ of habeas corpus, and was before Judge York yesterday. Storey is the alleged chiropractic who beat his patient with his fists along the spine, and failing to obtain desired results, he hung the man up in a harness of straps in an attempt to bring his spine into position. The natient died. In the habeas corpus proceeding the validity of a certain portion of the act providing for a board of medical examiners was attacked, and on other technical grounds it was sought to have the defendant released. Judge York, however, denied the writ and remanded the "Dr." to the custody of the police.

AT THE INFERIOR COURTS.

UNION LABOR'S OLD TACTICS.

CHARGE A SOBER MAN WITH DRUNKENNESS.

Getting Even With Him Because He Advocated Sane Action at Union Meeting—Mrs. Minnie Ray Pays a Heavy Fine for Beating Her Sister.

Another sample of the coercive tactics of the labor-union thugs came to the surface in Justice Austin's Police Court yesterday. John Sutke, a member of the Carpenters' Union, and the identical man who was ejected from the meeting at No. 518 San Pedro street on Tuesday night, as told by a Times reporter, who sat in the room and witnessed the whole proceeding, was arraigned on a charge of being drunk, and on the testimony of union henchmen was convicted and fined $5.

During the meeting on Tuesday night Sutke opposed the rabid methods adopted, and was a leader in the conservative element that appealed to the dominant party to permit them to go on and earn a living for their families. He said to Chairman Conners: "Just because you are chairman is no reason why you have any more to say than I have; I am just as good a member of this union as you are, but you refuse to let me speak."

Sutke was put out of the hall, or rather, when they demanded it, he quietly went out. After the meeting he found W. S. Decker, who wears a star as a special officer, shaking dice at a cigar stand, and Sutke joshed him about losing. He rubbed it into Decker pretty hard, until the latter got mad and arrested Sutke for being drunk, but the Times reporter, who saw all that occurred in the meeting, says that the man gave no evidence of being drunk.

He pleaded not guilty, and Decker was compelled to secure witnesses who would swear that Sutke was drunk. He produced Frank B. Anderson, F. D. Cochran, Earn Shaffer and William Grabelle, all members of the union, who swore that Sutke was drunk.

In conducting his own defense, Sutke did it in a dignified way, but he had no chance to secure evidence, as only unionists were on guard at the meeting or in the neighborhood. He took the verdict good naturedly and paid his fine, but he declared the whole thing was a conspiracy set upon him because he opposed the rabid measures adopted by the union to injure the business of the city and prevent him making a living for his family.

LOVE-PATS FOR ANNIE.

BEAT HER SISTER-IN-LAW.

"That's all I done to her, your honor; I knocked her down and maybe hit her five or six times, and bumped her head on the floor, and when I thought she was goin' to get away, I pulled her away from the door by the hair two or three times with that stick; that's all I done, judge."

That was the argument put up to Justice Austin by Mrs. Minnie Ray to save herself from a heavy sentence for beating her sister-in-law, Annie Ray. Justice Austin looked very stern, but wasted no words on Minnie, in the usual terms imposing a sentence on her of a fine of $60 or sixty days in the City Jail.

RAILROAD RECORD.

AFTER SCALPS OF SCALPERS.

Railroads Agree Not to Sell Them Tickets.

Others in Panic Seek for a Compromise.

How the Cut-Rate Game Is Worked Here.

Driven to the last ditch, local ticket brokers are making the fight of their lives with bridal steam railway lines. But the fiat has gone forth from a meeting just held by the heads of the passenger departments of the Southern Pacific, Santa Fé and Salt Lake that the broker must go. To secure unanimity on this decision the railroads and scalpers are bringing all the influence they control to bear. The passenger traffic men are [illegible] which is to be used to [illegible] back of the ticket broker is [illegible] just issued to all local ticket [illegible] that they must not furnish [illegible] brokers under penalty of [illegible] discharge.

[illegible] It has long been a ruling [illegible] Transcontinental Passenger Associations that tickets should not be [illegible] by brokers for sale even at reduced rates. There is probably not a road [illegible] United States that has lived up [illegible] rule, giving as their excuse [illegible] other lines were selling to [illegible] and that they were compelled [illegible] therefor.

[illegible] that many eastern lines not [illegible] the brokers a supply [illegible] their checks, but allowed [illegible] commission as well on [illegible] of regular tickets. But [illegible] of the Coast lines declare [illegible] position has not obtained [illegible] years, but the sale of [illegible] railway tickets over the [illegible] has been as common [illegible] as elsewhere.

[illegible] OUT PROFITS.

[illegible] have for long done a [illegible] through their eastern [illegible] in securing tickets from [illegible] offices, selling them at regular [illegible] to intermediate points, also [illegible] routed through a broker at [illegible] point, and then making [illegible] commission through the [illegible] ticket to the destination [illegible] it was originally issued.

[illegible] are a number of eastern points [illegible] this practice applies with [illegible] to the broker and also to the [illegible] of the ticket. For instance, [illegible] rate to Chicago is but $5 [illegible] that to St. Louis, while the [illegible] between the two points is [illegible] regular customer of the [illegible] broker gets to St. Louis for $1 [illegible] less than the man who purchases from the office of the railway [illegible], by purchasing a ticket to [illegible], which is rather in with the [illegible] of the local broker in St. Louis, gives him the refund agreed upon, [illegible] makes his commission by resell[illegible] the unused stub of the ticket to [illegible] through the commission on one such ticket is a drop in the bucket, the brokers have developed an immensely profitable business all over the United States by working in conjunction one with another.

To many other points the margins of profit are greater, and make fatter picking for the brokers. For instance, if the broker's customer, and he has his regular trade numbered by the thousands and, on the Coast, by the hundreds at least, desires to go to New York, he purchases a ticket to Boston by way of New York, paying $1 more than for the regular ticket to New York. But this ticket is good for a substantial rebate from the New York broker, because the local fare between the two points is $5, which enables the broker to resell from New York and divide $4 on every ticket between himself and his customer.

READY TO STRIKE.

The possibilities of working this edge on a through rate between two distant points as against the local rates between the same points are practically countless throughout the United States, and although the broker makes his greatest profits on unused round-trip stub, his safe and sure business has in the past come from this source. It has lent a great deal also to the prestige of the brokers to be able to sell regular straight railroad tickets guiltless of tampering or filling in of dates over their counters.

The determination of the initial lines to chop off this perquisite of the brokers, once and for all, means the striking of what is predicted will be a mortal blow at the business. The eastern lines have become so enmeshed in the practice of working through the scalpers, whom they are eternally ostensibly fighting, that it will be far more difficult for them to change front than for the western lines.

It is believed, however, that the application of the Hepburn bill will make it necessary for them to follow the move already initiated by the Pacific Coast lines.

But the brokers have not as yet given up out here. They have appointed delegates to wait upon the passenger representatives in the hope of reaching a private understanding or to secure a compromise of the edict which will still permit them to take tickets out of the passenger offices and sell to their customers at a lower rate than the regular patrons of the railway can obtain. But the railway representatives are making a firm stand on the situation, and at the same time their special agents who work through the validation agencies and on the trains, have been instructed to redouble their efforts in the endeavor to close every scalper's office in Los Angeles.

BACK FROM YOSEMITE.

Frank Miller, district passenger agent of the Rock Island, has just returned from a trip through the Yosemite, enthusiastic over the outing which he and a party of other local railway men enjoyed as the guests of the Yosemite Stage and Turnpike Company.

The party left Los Angeles Friday night on the Owl, running through the park on special stages and schedules. They were accompanied by C. A. Wilcomb, passenger agent of the company, whose headquarters are in the Southern Pacific offices in this city. Mr. Wilcomb has been in the Yosemite for years, and none better than he knows the finest points of scenic and romantic interest.

Mr. Miller says that the falls are higher this year than they have been for year past, and add immeasurably to the pleasure of a trip through the park. The members of the party were Leo Gibson of the Southern Pacific, F. M. Byron of the New York Central, E. K. Garrison of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, C. A. Wilcomb and Frank Miller.

HARRIMAN TO MANAGE GIGANTIC INTERESTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—[illegible] Traffic Manager Willard of the Southern Pacific Company has been offered and accepted what is probably the highest industrial traffic position in the country. October 1, next, he will assume the traffic management of the Standard Oil Refinery, the Standard Securities Company, Southern Pacific Steamship Company, a score of smaller corporations controlling railways in Nevada and Arizona and smelters and mines in various parts of the western country.

The Pacific Coast alone the combined mileage of these companies at Tacoma, Everett, Seattle and Selby. Their lines in Utah, Colorado, Nevada, Oregon and South America are immense, their holdings in South America alone representing $200,000,000 or more.

Harriman has been regarded as the greatest traffic man west of the Mississippi. J. C. Stubbs was taken from the traffic director of the Harriman lines, with their 30,000 miles of railway and steamer lines. Sproule entered the service as a clerk in the Southern Pacific in 1882, and leaves that company the position in the service of twenty-four years of continuous service, having occupied every position in the traffic department from the bottom to the top.

HARRIMAN INTERESTED.

It was said that President Harriman and Director Stubbs were expected in San Francisco to accept his resignation. It is said that Harriman, Joseph Schiff, his associate in Harriman lines, a large holder in the smelter properties, and the Guggenheim is present, has not altogether approved of the services offered to Sproule gives him charge over the relations with the railroads, formerly the large volume of business done by one organization, the traffic master of railroad and steamship lines and the subsidiary companies. It is [illegible] to him is most [illegible] though little information can be secured direct, it carries with it a salary of $25,000 per year. His headquarters will be at No. 71 Broadway, New York.

"California has been very fortunate in having a man like Mr. Harriman at the head of its greatest transportation lines in the present crisis. This it will realize more and more as time goes on, but I doubt if the producers and business men of California will fully understand how important a factor in the development of the State has been Mr. Harriman's bold expenditures to improve the transportation service. The rail lines of ten years ago could not at all give the necessary service to the California of today.

"I would like to stay in San Francisco and grow up with the city again—but if I cannot, it will have always my best wishes and hold my keenest interest."

BELT LINE TO GARY.

WALSH ROADS INCLUDED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Wa[illegible] railroads probably will be consolidated with the Illinois, Iowa and Minnesota Railway, a belt line reaching around Chicago from the new steel town of Gary, Ind., to Milwaukee. The negotiations are reported to have for their purpose a consolidation of the interest, and not an outright sale.

Behind the negotiations, railroad men see the possibility of one of the biggest railroad deals that has been engineered in Chicago for years. It is understood that the United States Steel Corporation has some interest in the proposed deal, either directly or under negotiation, and the fact that the road is to connect with the big steel mills at Gary is pointed to as confirmation.

WORST DIVE IN TOWN.

Illegal Sale of Liquor in Second Street Joint Causes Fight in Which Several Are Injured.

An incipient riot occurred between 4 and 5 o'clock yesterday morning at the notorious joint known as "Jim's Chowder House," on Second street, between Center Place and Main street, in which a dozen or more men participated. The fighting continued for nearly half an hour, wholly without interference by the police, and three men were led away bleeding from more or less serious cuts. Chairs and beer bottles were the weapons used and while a lively scrap was going on in the place another was in full swing on the sidewalk. The noise made by the tough gang was heard by persons in houses on Olive street, blocks away.

Practically ever since a restaurant liquor license was granted to the place there has been, almost nightly, an indiscriminate and illegal sale of intoxicants. No attention is paid to the law and, as in a Spring street restaurant less than a block away, no questions are asked as to who wants the liquor so long as the money to pay for it is forthcoming. Toughs of the lowest type, prostitutes, "macs" and other scum of society frequent the place at night, and after the saloons are closed they can get all the drinks they are able to pay for at this restaurant-saloon. The fact that the law is openly violated there is known to every police officer who patrols either the South Spring street or South Main street beats, and, in one or two instances, policemen themselves have been the beneficiaries of such violations. The attention of the Board of Police Commissioners was called to the place months ago but nothing was done by that body.

Pen Points

The Czar is getting ennui. He hasn't "faced a new crisis" for two days.

It must be awfully disagreeable to have the courts butting in on the ice trust during its busy season.

Sarah Bernhardt has been denied the cross of the Legion of Honor. She is now giving the Legion the double cross.

"Politics make strange bed-fellows," and bed-fellows make strange politics. There are Bryan and Taggart, for instance.

William Jennings Bryan is now wearing a silk hat, says a London cablegram. We had hoped he would be wearing a muzzle.

A reader wants to know the definition of a "far-away look." Just watch the politicians who have their eyes on the 1908 election.

When Bryan stood at Pompeii and watched the mouthings of Vesuvius, he must have been reminded forcibly of his own eruptions in 1904.

Tom Watson declares he doesn't expect to remain long in the Democratic party. It was not Bryan who said that rats desert a sinking ship.

A Buffalo woman tried to reduce her adipose by a diet of pickles and vinegar. She is now dead, and the food-faddists have soured on the system.

New York insurance companies, says a San Francisco policy adjuster, are taking fewer risks this year. He no doubt meant that the public is taking fewer.

A Boston scientist claims to have discovered seventeen varieties of germs on a $10 bill, but he says "they are not catching." Well, we knew the bills were not.

A Brooklyn magistrate says a man who is married on $5 a week ought to be sent to jail. Seems to some folks he has all that's coming to him when he gets married.

There was a time, according to ancient historians, when a man went into politics to purify them. But Gompers and the labor-union gang have gone in to putrify them.

Cashier Herring of the busted Chicago bank seems to be facing a hard prospect, even if Stensland should escape. Plainly speaking, it's a case of "pickled Herring."

Winston Churchill will conduct a "novel" campaign for the Governorship of New Hampshire. If defeated he will probably bring a few of the "machine men" to book.

It is estimated that there are 2,000,000 Poles in America. That doesn't include the 'phone, electric and telegraph poles, either; yet Walter Wellman is still going for another.

Anthony Comstock is defending Thaw for the killing of Stanford White, but we presume from his attacks on the nude that he is not looking for the naked truth.

Some brilliant Los Angeles man once started a "pantitorium;" then came another genius with a "suittorium." Next thing there will be a "harnessorium" or a "hayorium."

Reports from Chicago declare that out of 200 men, only twelve successfully passed the meat inspector's examination. Looks as if the men ought to be good, even if the meat isn't.

The Pennsylvania Prohibitionists are supporting Henry L. Castle for the the Governorship. He has not yet accepted the proffered nomination, and anyway it seems to be rather a case of "Castle in the air."

There are nearly 50,000 people living in tents in San Francisco yet, because the jawsmiths will not permit workmen to build houses. If the totemites have their way, San Francisco will not be rebuilt in this generation.

Sam Gompers and his crowd protest against the employment of Chinese on the Panama Canal. If Sam's gang would do the digging, some attention might be paid to his kick, but it won't, and probably couldn't if it would.

It is about time for the builders of street cars to devise means of abating the infernal noises made by motors and running gear. The trolley cars are making a Bedlam of Los Angeles with their shrieking machinery and flat wheels.

The custom of buying votes at primaries may be time-honored, as Vignes says it is, but it has not become a vested right of the office-seeker in Los Angeles. Seeking office in the saloons is a disputable vocation, and the man who engages in it cannot expect any one to believe that he is too high-minded to buy votes at the polls.

The mobbing of an ambulance, in which sore-eyed immigrants were being returned from a New York hospital to Ellis Island en route back to Europe, illustrates the unearthly folly of our wide-open door at Castle Garden. We exclude sore eyes, but admit ignorance and savagery, and then wonder why it is so difficult to maintain a high standard of government in our cities.

ORGANIZE NOW AGAINST THE "CLOSED SHOP" IN LOS ANGELES.

There is no occasion for a strike of the workmen engaged in the building trades in Los Angeles. Liberal wages are paid to the workers in this industry, work is plentiful, conditions are excellent, the workmen, generally speaking, are well satisfied, and there is no rational excuse for warfare.

Notwithstanding these satisfactory conditions, some of the agitators who make a business of running trades unions (to the discredit and injury of the latter) have succeeded in working their dupes into a state of mind which has induced them to vote for a general disturbance in the building industry on or about the first of next month. Demands for higher wages, for a Saturday half-holiday, and for the closed shop are to be made, with the alternative of a strike by which they expect to tie up building operations throughout the city. The strikers (to-be) have figured it out that they will have contractors, business men, non-union workers, and citizens generally, at their mercy, and that they will be able to carry out their scheme of proscription without hindrance.

This conspiracy is destined to ignominious failure, as other similar conspiracies have failed in Los Angeles. The plotters boast that they "can and will make Los Angeles a union town like San Francisco." If they could do this, all the splendid prosperity which has made Los Angeles what it is would vanish. Further progress would cease, and industrial freedom would become extinct here.

The boasts of the conspirators are idle. Industrial freedom is in Los Angeles to stay. The sacrifices which have been made to establish and maintain it have not been made in vain. Our free city must and will remain free. The prosperity we have enjoyed will continue. The rights of every citizen will be protected. Lawbreakers will be punished according to their deserts. No ban will be placed upon the right of every man to work, irrespective of his membership in a trade union. Men may join trade unions if they will, but they need not be coerced into joining them. Having established our industrial freedom, it rests with us to maintain it. We cannot shirk the duty if we would; we would not shirk it if we could.

In order to avert the threatened calamity, it is only necessary for employers of labor, business men, contractors, captains of industry, men of affairs and citizens generally, to get together and stand firm in resisting all unjust demands, defying all threats and insisting with courage upon their rights as guaranteed to them by the laws and the Constitution. It is absolutely necessary for all men who possess civic patriotism to take this firm stand for the right, to stand by each other and to maintain this firm stand at all hazards, if the demands of these industrial buccaneers are to be resisted successfully; and it is absolutely necessary that they be successfully resisted if Los Angeles is to remain industrially free.

Let nobody suppose that this matter is unimportant. The question is one of the most vital import, and upon it depends the whole future of Los Angeles. If the men who pay wages would learn the lessons of organization as thoroughly as the men who receive wages have learned those lessons, there would never be another successful strike. Employers of labor in Los Angeles have learned the lessons in part, but they need to appreciate them better and to heed them continually. Experience has demonstrated, over and over again, that when employers meet organization with organization, they are invariably successful in defeating the unjust and extortionate demands of strikers. Los Angeles men cannot safely ignore or forget this vital fact.

The warning has come in time to afford some opportunity for employers and citizens in general to prepare for eventualities. "Forewarned," as the old saw goes, "is forearmed." The enemies of Los Angeles have declared war against the city. Let its friends make ready to defend it. Let a solid front be opposed to the invaders. Let them be taught a lesson which they will not soon forget. Builders and contractors especially should look up and down their lines and strengthen their organization at any possibly weak points.

Most obnoxious of all the demands to be made is that for the closed shop. This will amount in effect to insisting that all workmen not belonging to a union shall be denied the right to earn a living by honest work. Merely to mention such a demand is to reveal its preposterousness, its absurdity, and its gross injustice. Under no circumstances can a demand so monstrous be acceded to. Los Angeles is not a closed-shop town. It never will be a closed-shop town if its citizens choose to prevent it becoming one. They have the power, they have the courage and the common sense to maintain the industrial freedom which they have won.

The closed shop in Los Angeles would mean the eventual misgovernment of the city by union brawlers, ruffians and corruptionists, as the city of San Francisco is misgoverned. It would mean the extinguishment of many personal and property rights. It would mean the end of advancement and the beginning of decline.

A FALSE ALARM.

A dispatch from San José (Costa Rica) conveys the information that "in view of the expressions of Baron Rio Branco at Rio de Janeiro, there has been founded at San José a Latin-American league, to extend over Spanish-America, having for its purpose the arresting of the expansion of the United States in the southern hemisphere." The projectors of this movement, without doubt, expect it to thrive and grow strong with great rapidity, until it includes the whole of South America and Central America and the islands of the seas adjacent thereto or in any wise appertaining. In all probability they imagine that there is need for the movement, need for coöperation, need for protection, along the lines indicated.

They could hardly make a greater mistake. There is not the slightest need for concerted action, or any other kind of action, to prevent the expansion of the United States in the southern hemisphere, for the simple reason that no such expansion is contemplated, has been contemplated, or is likely ever to be contemplated by the United States. The Americas of the South ought, by this time, to have learned that our intentions regarding them, so far as we have intentions, are wholly pacific. We have given proof many times, in an unmistakable manner, of our friendship for all of these struggling republics. It is matter for regret that our friendship has not always been reciprocated so fully as we would like to have it, but we are not wasting any tears about it, as we are confident that our position will be thoroughly understood and appreciated in due course of time.

Perhaps we should not blame our friends and brothers of the southern Americas too much for their veiled distrust of the United States. This attitude is surely not of their own initiative. It has an unmistakable European motive and flavor. It is commercially to the interest of Europe to have the people of the southern republics believe that the United States is unfriendly to them. Europe sees that these countries are our natural allies and commercial patrons, and it fears that if all barriers were removed, and such close relations were established as ought to subsist between the Americas of the South and those of the North, there would be comparatively little room for European commercial exploitation. Europe therefore finds commercial profit for itself while the United States and its neighbors of the South hold each other at arms' length, and enjoys seeing the latter deceive themselves into the erroneous belief that the great republic is constantly seeking its own aggrandizement at the expense of its weaker neighbors.

The incomparable lesson of Cuba Libre should be sufficient to open the eyes of our friends to the true situation, and to vindicate the probity of our motives. But, unfortunately, there are many persons who are more prone to think evil than good, and so become an easy prey to those who would deceive them, from selfish and mercenary motives. The United States can afford to be misunderstood, and even to be misrepresented, for the time will surely come when misunderstandings will be cleared away and when misrepresentations will fall to the ground because of their own falsity.

CHURCH AND STATE IN FRANCE.

After long and no doubt very careful consideration, Pope Pius X has issued his encyclical letter advising the French clergy how they shall act in relation to the Combes law dissolving the union of the church and the state. Papal encyclicals are, as a rule, so conservative in their utterances as to be somewhat oracular. One has to be closely in touch with the details of the subject treated and to have the full text of the letter before him to see clearly its scope. But the telegraphic report published in Wednesday morning's Times indicates pretty clearly the point of greatest irritation between the French clergy and the republic.

To grasp the subject completely one has to go back to the Concordat agreed upon between Pope Pius VII and Napoleon I at Paris in 1801. One of the provisions of this convention gave to the republic the control of all the ecclesiastical property in France at that time. On the side of the republic there was formed a department of the government whose purpose should be to supervise the religious cult of the nation and to pay the clergy their stipends out of the public funds. The Combes law took full cognizance of this provision of the Concordat, and provided that in the separation of the church from the state, all the property of the religious bodies dating back prior to 1801, having been recognized as belonging to the nation, should still be national property. There was a provision of the new law granting the use of church edifices for religious purposes during a period of five years, if our memory does not slip. This use was to be rent free, but at the end of the five years, this property was to revert absolutely to the State. The law goes so far as to include the sacred vessels used upon the altar. Here has been the sorest point in the contention between the church and the republic, and this seems to be one of the points to which the Pope has devoted his encyclical. It may be the pontifical letter incloses within its sentences a policy which will in the end reach farther, but the main contention set up by Pope Pius is that the church must have entire control of the "temporal affairs of the church, particularly the sacred edifices, which should be irrevocably protected."

The Times has pointed out heretofore that here was an exceedingly weak point in the Combes law. It would seem to have been very much wiser for the republic to have allowed the sacred edifices and their appurtenances, at least all used absolutely for religious worship, to have gone to the church free of all cost. The property was for the most part originally provided by the gifts of the faithful and was intended for religious uses. There is no question that the great mass of the French people, and particularly those outside of Paris, are conscientious and devout adherents of the church. It would have made much easier sailing for the government if this great mass of the French people had been allowed to retain and control for religious uses the property which for ages they have looked upon as sacred, and as being really the property of the church and not of the state. Had this been done, it is more than likely that the new Combes law would have created much less friction and bitterness between the people and the government of France. The relations of the government with the Vatican may be dismissed from consideration. The great matter is the relation of the government with its own people.

Had the law governing the separation of the church and the state been framed with the utmost wisdom, and in such a way as to create the least possible friction, it would still have been a proceeding so exceedingly radical that the execution of its provisions would have been, under the easiest circumstances, a thing of great difficulty. And yet the French priesthood and people, had not this cause of such severe irritation been embodied in the law, would have been disposed to yield to circumstances and proceed to live as best they might under the new law.

A French priest from one of the country districts has recently taken up this subject and discussed it in the calmest manner and in the most humble and the most hopeful spirit, seeking a solution as to how the priests, cut off from their salaries heretofore paid by the government, would be able to live when thrown upon their own resources. This French priest considers particularly the case of the curés of poor parishes. He faces it with a courage and a devotion that are absolutely admirable. The view seems to be that the greatest danger to the French priesthood would be to be dependent for their living upon the alms of a few rich people, who in this way might gain undue control over the minds of the priesthood. This priest, Louis Ballu, curé at Parnay, recalls to the memory of his brethren Joseph the carpenter, Peter the fisher, and Paul the weaver, who by their own handicraft supported themselves, not depending upon the alms of the church for their living. He quotes St. Paul's letter to the Thessalonians wherein the apostle says, "We have not eaten gratuitously the bread of any one, but night and day we have worked in fatigue and in suffering in order not to be chargeable to any one." He also cites the example of many priests at the time of the French Revolution who learned handicrafts and in this way supported themselves while ministering under persecution to their people. This devoted priest says that by five hours' work a day a man might support himself, leaving the rest of his time for his sacred duties and for study. He contends that the man who has done physical labor, even if it be digging the ground for a few hours a day, would return to his studies refreshed, not fatigued, by the exercise, and better disposed both for prayer and for study. He calls attention to the fact, as things are at present, the priesthood is so separated in the majority of cases from the life of their people that the churches are resorted to for the most part only by women. The men, who have to work so hard to gain a living, he says, have acquired more or less contempt for the priesthood who do no work at all. Listen to his conclusion. He is speaking of the men: "When they see us working as they do, they will think it much easier for them to pray as we do."

There is another side to this trouble between the church and the government in France. The Combes law was inspired more by politics than by patriotism. Combes himself, the original author of this law for the separation of the church from the state, on January 26, 1903, speaking in the Chamber of Deputies, uttered these words: "If you take away the provision for religious culture you will throw the country into the greatest embarrassment one can imagine. This embarrassment will affect not only the consciences of the people, but it will throw the republic into a veritable peril. We are considering at this moment the moral ideas such as the church teaches as necessary ideas." It was but a few months later that this same politician brought in the law for the separation of the church and the state. Waldeck-Rousseau, who was so conspicuous in agitating the law against the religious congregations teaching in France, had his own family educated by the Augustine sisters. It is reported that President Loubet, when he signed the law against the monks and for the suppression of the provision for religious culture, was warned in a very excited manner by Madame Loubet that he would cause the family to be excommunicated. Jaures, who has taken such a prominent part in the passage of this anti-church law, himself caused the bringing of water from the river Jordan to baptize his children. His children likewise are educated by the sisters. And yet this same Jaures, at a banquet in the month of October, 1896, is said to have jumped into the middle of the table and sung a verse, to the tune of the Marseillaise, which was absolutely blasphemous in its contempt of religion.

When these facts are placed in collocation before the eyes of the really religious people of France, one can see very well what a feeling of distrust and disgust they must feel for men so inconsistent in their lives.

THE INNOCENT BYSTANDER.

Answers for the Anxious.

[From the Helpful Hints Magazine.]

Amazette B. writes: "Will you kindly print a few stanzas and the chorus of the song 'Although Your Hand is Moist, I Love to Squeeze It,' and who is the author, etc.?"

This beautiful popular song was written by Leonard Alanson Pimm, the well-known song writer and lyricist, whose famous ballad "Do Not Take the Door Knob from the Door" has been translated into fifteen foreign languages, and whose "Then to His Old Mother He Did Say" has moved countless audiences to the most violent emotion. Mr. Pimm says that he composed the words to his new song while sitting in a hammock with his sweetheart, who weighs two hundred and eighty pounds and does not stand the summers very well. We are permitted to quote the following verses from it:

The sunlight fades and all the world grows gray,
The shadows creep soft footed from the west,
The cricket now tunes up its little lay
And all the world sinks slowly into rest—
Then do I seek your side, beneath the stars,
My heart enthralled by feelings great and grand,
"Speed! Speed!" I cry to all the trolley cars,
For I would fain be holding to your hand.

CHORUS.

I cling unto your hand and won't release it,
In earnest, pure affection now I seize it,
And softly I will sigh
Beneath the starry sky:
"Although your hand is moist I love to squeeze it."

What care I for the wealth the world may hold,
For jewels and for fame that men desire?
A true, deep love is richer far than gold—
Sincere affection all men must admire.
So let me breathe anew the vows I made
Beneath the arching branches of the trees,
Where twilight spread its carpetings of shade,
And you first gave me your fair hand to squeeze.

SECOND CHORUS.

Should you desire I'd take your hand and freeze it,
But better far than life I love to seize it,
And gently I repeat
Those words so old and sweet:
"Although your hand is moist, I love to squeeze it."

James Baldmore asks: "What does it indicate when my hair comes out in handfuls?"

It indicates that your wife's temper is entirely too quick, James. Send for our booklet on "How to Control the Temper."

Arthur A. inquires, in a note that seems to have been written hastily and under great stress: "What shall I do when I have accidentally upset a tureen of gravy into the lap of the lady next me at dinner, whom I have just met?"

Arthur, you have done wrong to keep the lady sitting there at the table while you mailed this note to us and awaited a reply. Your proper procedure would have been to have passed the accident over with a merry smile and to have told a joyous anecdote of some sort while you called a messenger boy and sent us a telegram. Any advice we can give you will now reach you too late. The gravy will have dried in. WILBUR D. NESBIT.

HUMOR OF THE WORLD

FROM GERMANY.

"So you were invited to dinner by the boss, the other evening? How did you have?"

New Clerk: A cup of coffee, a cigar and the oldest daughter.—Gegende Blatter.

Lady: What a large family you have! How many are there?

Merchant: There were fourteen at the last inventory was taken.—Gegende Blatter.

Innkeeper (to waiter:) You say that the aeronaut went off without paying his bill?

Waiter: Yes; it's true he went for it, but by that time he was fifty feet up.—[Fliegende Blatter.

Wife: Look, Max, here is the bottle you promised me for our wedding present.

Husband (on perceiving the gift): Oh, yes, my dear—but—but did I say your golden wedding?—[Fliegende Blatter.

Mother-in-law (sneezing): "Ah-o-o-o!"

Son-in-law: God bless you.

Mother-in-law: Hypocrite.—Fliegende Blatter.

Professor: I'll be hanged if I'll make another knot in my watch-chief. When I made one I did it, and couldn't remember what I did for, my wife declared I had to give her a new dress.—Fliegende Blatter.

Father (to his son:) Our money all gone, our credit assailed, and only one thing left now: we must marry.—[Fliegende Blatter.

Wife: The announcement of the death of your colleague has come.

Professor: It's just like his thoughtfulness to let us know.—Fliegende Blatter.

"Who is that very stout person sitting next to Fraulein Elsa?"

"That? Oh, that's Ludwig the Fourteenth."

"Yes; his name is Ludwig, but I call him 'the Fourteenth' because I invite him only when we are going to be thirteen at table."—[Fliegende Blatter.

FROM ITALY.

Father Matteo is a good man who sent his son to the seminary to be educated. The latter, to give his father pleasure, bought a cheap phonograph, and when he set it going, watched for the look of surprise from his father. But Father Matteo heard it to the end without removing his cigar, and then said: "I do not use preserved meats, vegetables, and much less of your preserved music."—[Il Mattino.

"Father, I am not sure what I shall be a specialist in. Maybe in the teeth."

"Choose the teeth, then, for one has 32 of them, and only one."—[Il Motto per Ridere.

One night Paganini was playing in the Paris Operahouse when he began to astonish every one by playing on one string. Being late, he took a cab, and when he arrived at his destination the cabby wanted 10 francs. "Ten francs!" exclaimed, "You are crazy! I have been you only five minutes." "I know it much," said the other, "but I am the man who make a fortune by playing on one string; it must be paid for." "Well," said Paganini, handing him the right fare, "when you make your cab go on one string, you shall be paid, and I will give you 9 francs."—La Caricaturista.

"Just think, Anna, I found a love letter in my husband's pocket."

"Yes, and what was the matter with it?"

"Not a tenor at all. It was from a ballet dancer."—[La Caricaturista.

The following story is going the rounds of Gen. von Bothmer, Prussian Minister of the German empire, who was in the habit of occasionally driving personally that all the errands might be carried out. One day he was in a first-class carriage when a man who had entered and calmly lighted a cigar. The general waited for the man to begin smoking before touching him on the shoulder and telling him that the rules did not permit smoking in non-smoking carriages. The man looked at him and, instead of making a motion as if to throw the cigar away a fly, went on smoking. Von Budde decided to adopt a ruse, so took out his card case and handed his card to the smoker, who gave it a glance and put it in his pocket, went on smoking. At the next station descended. Von Budde, much irritated, decided to teach him a lesson, so told the station master to find out his name, as he intended to make a complaint against him. The gentleman, asked for his name, put his hand in his pocket and handed the station master his card at which the latter bowed profoundly, and allowed the man to leave the station. Then, turning to Von Budde, he said: "You may keep your complaint to yourself, for his card says he is Gen. von Bothmer."—[Il Motto per Ridere.

THE POLITICAL WATCH TOWER

I was informed yesterday on good authority that Justice George H. Smith, the Democratic member of the Second District Court of Appeals, will be a candidate before the subdivision of the State convention of his party for renomination to the place he now holds. It had been supposed all along that Justice [illegible], who is a resident of Los Angeles [illegible] and was, before his appointment to Appellate bench, was a Supreme Commissioner, would retire at the end of the term for which he was elected by the Governor.

[illegible] that Justice [illegible] announcement of his will seek the nomination of his and that he possibly will be an [illegible] candidate on election day lends [illegible] situation that already had become interesting. For one thing, it [illegible] that there will be two [illegible] in the race for Superior Court [illegible] R. E. Smith of this city is a [illegible] for the Republican nomina-

Allen of this city desires to retain the [illegible] he now holds on the Appellate [illegible] his associate, Justice [illegible] A. Gray of Visalia, while [illegible] Judges West of Orange [illegible] Taggart of Santa Barbara [illegible] among those from the outside [illegible] leanings toward the [illegible]

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

NEAR DEATH IN DUST CHUTE.

Short, Frightful Journey of Man in Pasadena.

Suction Draws; Suffocation Almost Kills.

Victim Taken to Hospital; Condition Critical.

Office of The Times, No. 20 S. Raymond Ave.

PASADENA, Aug. 15.—John Clausen, an employé of the Brand Manufacturing Company, passed through an ordeal this afternoon such as few men experience and survive. While at work in the big sawdust chute at the factory he was caught by the suction of the outrushing sawdust and carried to the ground, being imprisoned in the chute for five minutes.

Clausen, who had been working for the company but a few days, was engaged in the big sawdust bin keeping the pipes through which the dust from the different rooms is forced into the bins, clear. While he was so employed a man drove under the chute and, not knowing that there was any one in the bin, opened the trap and allowed the great volume of sawdust to pass out.

Mr. Brand rushed to the floor on which the bin is located to warn Clausen of his danger, but before he got there the unfortunate man had been caught in the vortex and Mr. Brand arrived just in time to see him disappear through the hole in the floor of the bin. There was no chance to go to the rescue of the endangered man, so Mr. Brand, knowing what the result would be, rushed to the telephone and called for a physician and ambulance.

It was fully five minutes between the time that Clausen was drawn down into the chute and that of his appearance at the other end, and during that time he was suffocating in the dense stream of sawdust without a breath of air. When he finally appeared he was unconscious and his face was black from suffocation.

Dr. Maisby, who responded promptly to Mr. Brand's call, found that the lungs of the injured man were filled with fine sawdust and it was necessary to use a pneumatic pump in order to free the respiratory organs from the dust. As soon as the doctor had furnished Clausen with what relief he could the man was put into the ambulance and taken to the Pasadena Hospital for further treatment.

At the hospital Clausen was found to be in a precarious condition and for several hours he did not show any signs of life. This evening he has partly recovered consciousness, but his condition is dangerous and whether or not he will recover is a matter which the attendants are unable to decide.

Clausen is but 18 years old and has been employed by the Brand Manufacturing Company since August 1. The work in which he was engaged was not considered particularly dangerous, although men who are new at it are always cautioned to be on the lookout for accidents. How Clausen came to be caught in the outrush of sawdust is not known, as there was no one present when the accident occurred and he has not sufficiently regained consciousness to be able to make a statement.

M. S. Banbury, another employé of the same company, also suffered an accident today. He was at work at one of the big saws when he allowed his hand to come in too close contact with the rapidly-revolving blade of the machine and had one of his fingers completely severed from his hand. He was hurried to the Pasadena Hospital for treatment, after which he was able to go home. With the exception of his mutilated hand he suffered no injuries.

ARRESTED FOR CRUELTY.

A case of exaggerated cruelty to animals was brought to the attention of Humane Officer McAney this afternoon, and as a result John Miller, H. H. Anderson and F. Herr are facing charges for alleged inhuman acts.

The animal in question, a young, spirited horse, was being dragged by the three men from the yard where it had been kept to Herr's stable. The animal was unbroken, and when the men tied a rope around its neck and attempted to lead it away, it became terrified. It was hitched to the rear of a hay wagon and was dragged through the streets. Witnesses claim that it took fully two hours to drag the beast 100 yards, so fierce were its struggles. The men evidently became enraged at the animal and determined to make it go at any cost, and so cruel were the injuries inflicted that Dr. Medici de Biron, when called to examine it, shot it in order to put it out of its misery.

The struggles which it went through in being dragged along the ground resulted in the infliction of cuts without number, while a horrible hole was torn in the side of the brute's head.

The horse had just been purchased by Herr, and why he should have allowed it to be so mishandled is a mystery, as it must have been seen after the first few moments that were the struggles kept up, death must result.

As soon as the trouble was brought to the attention of Herr, he disappeared, and is said to have gone to Los Angeles. Miller and Anderson were both placed under arrest, but were later released on their own recognizance, Herr having been located and having given his word that they should appear for trail at the proper time.

When the report of the case was made public there was great indignation expressed. The Humane Society will endeavor to see that the case is prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

GARBAGE COLLECTOR QUITS.

The city is now in the uncomfortable position of being without a scavenger, and residents are wondering what they are to do about the disposal of their garbage. M. J. Cooper, city scavenger, has notified his clients that he will collect no more garbage until the city ordinance relating to such collection has been amended.

Cooper is the man who enjoys breaking ordinances, and when he threatened to break the present one it was supposed that he intended to do so through the courts. He changed his mind, however, and paid his fine for violating the ordinance. He has taken his revenge, however, and unless the city fathers think up some scheme in the immediate future, there is likely to be a roar from many citizens.

The members of the City Council do not feel that it is compatible with their dignity to capitulate to the ex-garbage collector, and they will probably advertise for another man to take up the work which he has dropped. At any rate, they will not amend the ordinance in order to please Cooper, even if they have to hire a municipal garbage collector to do the work at the expense of the city.

If there is any man in town who thinks that he would like the job, he is invited by the Council to file his application with the City Clerk before next Wednesday afternoon, at which time the matter will be brought up for consideration.

BUY FIRE ENGINE.

At the special meeting of the Board of Commissioners this afternoon it was voted to buy from the Nott Fire Engine Company of Minneapolis a steam fire engine of what is known as the second size, the cost of the same to be $5600. The action of the commissioners is, of course, subject to the approval of the City Council, but as that body is as anxious as the commissioners to have the engine bought and delivered, the approval will not be hard to get.

It has been suggested by several citizens that there is room for some investigations at the Dayton-street engine house. Twice within the past few weeks the horses of the engine company have been allowed to escape without any driver, and it has been by the barest miracle that no serious accident has resulted. At the time of the East Colorado-street fire the horses were hitched to the engine and were careening through the streets with the ponderous machine dangling at their heels. The second time they escaped immediately after the alarm was turned in, and before the harness had been hooked up. The two accidents coming so close together have caused considerable comment.

ANNOUNCE TEACHERS.

At the meeting of the Board of Education last evening the roster of teachers for the public schools of Pasadena during the coming year was made public. With but few exceptions the list is the same as last year, and most of the changes made are in the form of transfers. The only member of the High School faculty who will not be engaged in the work of the institution this year is Stephen I. Miller. Mrs. Frances Burt, principal of the Franklin school, has also tendered her resignation, and will not teach. Mrs. Burt has been connected with Pasadena city schools for sixteen years, and the members of the Board of Education regret her decision to retire from the position. Mrs. Burt will be succeeded at the Franklin school by Roy G. Sharp.

SKIPPERS UNEASY.

Masters of Smaller Power Craft Have Forebodings About New Inspection.

AVALON, Aug. 15.—Many of the owners and skippers of gasoline launches and pleasure yachts carrying engines are going about with good-sized lumps in their throats. The lump is occasioned by the new law regarding power boats under fifteen tons, which heretofore have been allowed a go-as-you-please existence. The new regulation requires that all persons running these small boats pass an examination as to their fitness and competency to properly handle them. As most of those handling boats here have picked up what knowledge they possess, and which in many instances is not of an extensive range, they are awaiting the call of the inspectors and examiners at the end of this week with a good deal of trepidation.

RIVERA NEWS LETTER.

RIVERA, Aug. 15.—The Gasquette orchard of two and a half acres, on Topeka street, north of the Santa Fé track, has been sold to O. K. Dunham of Los Angeles, who will erect a handsome dwelling. The price paid was $1750.

Mr. Berry is putting the finishing touches on the new walnut bleaching plant. The prospects for a good crop are favorable.

BLACK KITTY —SHOCKING!

Monrovia Tom Cat Comes to the Rescue in a Canine Family Scandal.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

MONROVIA, Aug. 15.—That affliction and misfortune has a chastening effect upon even the brute creation is proven by a novel family of cats owned by Mrs. H. H. Demarest of this place, in which a lame Tom cat has become the protector of a family of kittens, the mother of which deserted them.

His industry in making their toilet of mornings, propped up on his one good leg, and the way in which he employs this member in slapping aggressors upon the kittens' dinners, is a lesson in chivalry.

But alas, the mother of the kittens shows little of human feeling.

Her desertion of her family was all because her last addition was a little nigger kitty. In disgust, she turned on all her progeny, when the older litter of kittens associated with their darker brother. The mother is like Kipling's cat—she "walks by her wild lone," while to Tom's kind administrations there has been added the protection of a completely deaf dog. This deaf dog lives amicably with Limpy Tom, and never snaps at the kittens.

The afflictions of the family makes the pets quite a care to Mrs. Demarest, but they are probably more interesting than those of fancy breeds. Their names indicate their characteristics. There is Lury, the unnatural mother; pretty little man, Nigger and Scrawny. Deaf Spot is the canine addition.

WON'T RUN, TELLS WHY.

DEFENDANT IN LONG BEACH EXPLAINS POSITION.

Man Accused of Misdemeanor Makes It Clear That He Does Not Intend to "Jump" His Bond—Christian Convention Chooses Trustees for Pomona College.

LONG BEACH, Aug. 15.—Wallace B. Belden, the young man who, after being shot at twice and then chased with a shotgun Monday night by the parents of a girl he is alleged to have misused, and now under bond on a charge of rape, this morning swore out complaints against Mrs. W. T. Wilson, charging her with "assault with intent to commit murder," and against W. T. Wilson for alleged exhibiting of a deadly weapon.

Both were arrested and arraigned before Justice Brayton. Mrs. Wilson's examination was set for August 23, and on a promise to make no further attempt to take the law into her hands, she was released on her own recognizance. Wilson, whose alleged offense is a misdemeanor, had his bond fixed at $500, which, on suggestion of the deputy District Attorney, was reduced to $150 cash bail.

"No danger of me running away until the man who misused my child is punished," said Wilson grimly, as he counted out his bail money.

CALL FREEHOLDERS' ELECTION.

On a statement that the recent canvass of Long Beach by census marshals showed a population of 12,591, the City Trustees last night adopted a resolution calling an election for August 22, to select fifteen freeholders to draft a special charter for the city. It is said there are fewer than 200 voters in the city eligible as freeholders. The Trustees are selecting a list of these and a mass meeting will be called to pick out the necessary number. There are no factions in the charter proposition and the aim will be to have the board entirely non-partisan and equally divided among hitherto warring factions. For the election the city will be divided into three precincts, east and west of American avenue and between San Pedro Bay and the old city limits.

SELECT COLLEGE TRUSTEES.

At the Christian convention today the nominating committee submitted the names of C. C. Chapman, Fullerton; W. L. Porterfield, Long Beach; John Fleming, San Diego; A. C. Smithers, Los Angeles, and F. M. Dowling, Pasadena, as the first trustees for the management of Pomona College affairs, and they were unanimously elected. The constitution of the Christian Missionary Society of Southern California and Arizona, adopted at last year's convention and referred back to the churches for separate ratification, was read and finally adopted. It provides for the government of convention bodies. Resolutions were also reported and warmly discussed. Thanks to the City Trustees, Chamber of Commerce and local church were passed without comment, but a resolution pledging the support of the convention to the work of the anti-saloon league was referred back to the committee with instructions to substitute one embodying a ringing temperance sentiment, but indorsing no particular party or organization.

Tonight the women's societies began their domination over the convention, which will continue tomorrow. Addresses were made tonight by Miss Bertha Mason of Texas and Mrs. Louise Kelley of Kansas. Tomorrow morning will be devoted to reports of officers and the appointment of committees. At 5 o'clock the annual business banquet will be held, and in the evening there will be a concert and entertainment.

SEASHORE TRIP TREAT.

Eight carloads of poor mothers and children of Los Angeles, protegés of the Salvation Army, came to the beach today on the Salt Lake road, and a great time they had of it, feasting, resting, playing and bathing. The party, which was under the care of Maj. and Mrs. Morton and other members of the Salvation Army, was a study. There were tired out mothers, who sat on the sands or in the sun parlor, their hands clasped in their laps, their eyes shifting from the ocean vista to the happy children about them. The little ones took to the water like ducks, and went wading and splashing to their hearts' content. Six hundred lunches had been prepared in boxes, each containing two sandwiches, fruit, candies, cookies and pickles. These were served at 11:30 o'clock. At 2:30 p.m. ice cream and watermelon were served, while lemonade by the tubful was available all day. Music was furnished by the Salvation Army Band. In September the army will give the old people and cripples an outing. The picnickers returned home at 4:30 o'clock this evening.

CARE FOR WANDERER.

Arthur William Pus, aged 19, dragged himself wearily into police headquarters last night and asked for a bed. His appearance indicated suffering and being questioned, the lad said he had had nothing to eat for four days. Suffering from a lung affection, work as a pantry boy in San Francisco was too hard for him and he beat his way to Los Angeles where he walked for two days seeking work, but too proud to beg. Then he walked to Long Beach and resumed his search. Last night, footsore and heartsick, he swallowed his pride and sought the police. The lad was sent to a restaurant where he ate ravenously and was then given a bed at the station. This morning a high fever had developed, caused by nervous exhaustion, said the doctor who advised his removal to the County Hospital. The police would not agree to this, and made arrangements to have the boy cared for at the Long Beach Hospital. Young Pus, only recently came from England and has no friends or relatives in this country.

OCEAN SHORE WHIFFS.

Rev. E. J. Bulgin, who was hurt several months ago in an accident on the Salt Lake, from which he has never recovered and who was awarded $9000 damages, has compromised with the company and accepted $7500 in full settlement.

Late this afternoon two young ladies at Seaside Park went in bathing and were overcome by a breaker. A butcher driving along the beach saw their distress and driving his wagon into the water secured the young women with no more serious damage than a wetting and a scare.

A group of Long Beach and Redlands investors today purchased the Watson-Dominguez ranch of 600 acres, north of Anaheim road, between Wilmington and the San Gabriel River. The price is not stated.

Ah Lee, on trial before Justice Brayton charged with attempting to sell lottery tickets, was discharged today on a showing that only an offer was made and the transaction not completed, therefore there was no violation of the State law.

COFFEE OFFERED, GIRL SAYS.

NO LACK OF HOSPITALITY AT CAMP STURTEVANT.

Such Is Statement of One of the Pretty Monrovia Misses Who Were Quartered at That Fastness in the Mountains When Wearied Trampers Applied for Refreshment.

MONROVIA, Aug. 15.—One of the prettiest of the party of pretty girls who were at Sturtevant's two weeks ago declares that when she went up to Wilson's Peak after the party that was lost and visited her had reached there, one of the hill-top trampers who had been lost thanked her for her kindness to them.

"Then, when the next party went up, they were blessed out for turning them away. We offered those people coffee and toast and they refused it. We walked a third of a mile up the trail with them. Their accusations were unfair. We did not have even blankets enough for ourselves, as we had just struck camp, so we could not offer to take care of them over night."

The young ladies all returned today. They report an exceedingly pleasant time during the two weeks they spent. Dr. and Mrs. S. E. Salisbury and Misses Edna Chamberlin, Elizabeth Bovee and Margaret Cross were among the party.

NOT ONE KICKER.

So great has been the increase of values in Monrovia the past year that the tax rate will probably be reduced 10 cents, and this will leave in the general fund $6000 more than the city had for expenditure last year. It will be September 3 before the Board of Trustees meet to set the rate, but the results of the equalization work just completed have practically determined the reduction of the tax rate.

An innovation this year will be the levy of a fund to clean streets and alleys, so that a certain proportion of street cleaning shall be maintained. Even with this addition the tax levy will be only $1.60 for the hundred dollars. The contingency of increasing the street-lighting system from 140 to 200 lights is cared for under this rate.

A remarkable session of an Equalization Board was closed today, for that body heard no complaints from citizens. Everybody seemed to be contented with the raise of their tax valuations. The increase was distributed on business property and that which lay close to the foothills, an evening up falling on the land that lies between. Again there is shown that lots are climbing above orange groves, which until a year ago were the bearers of the burden of taxation because they were income property. The lively real estate market has changed this and the number of sales this summer doubtless produced the contentment of mind that registered no complaints at the Assessor's ideas.

WHICH ARE FIGHTERS?

The party of primary election day fighters from El Monte was rounded up in the court of Justice J. B. Holloway, Democrat, this morning.

"Can't you Republicans hold a primary without fighting?" he asked of the deputy.

"Yes; it was the Democrats who fought."

"Well, I should think so," said the justice with a ready change of front. "It takes a Democrat to fight."

John McCoy proved that he tried to avoid the fight and was discharged. C. W. Newman was fined $10.

MONROVIA SLOPE BRIEFS.

Bogardus & Nason, who purchased the Faunce lot on the corner of Orange and Myrtle avenues Saturday, are planning a three-story building for the site.

An L-shaped piece of land with frontages on White Oak avenue and on Violet avenue was sold today to W. H. McCue by Mrs. I. Mathewson, through the Monrovia Realty Company, for a price reputed to be $2800. There is 100 feet frontage on White Oak and 264 feet on Violet.

GIN SLINGERS GET RESPITE.

DEATH BLOW IS NOT YET AT REDONDO BEACH.

City Trustees Have Before Them an Ordinance Making the Saloon Business Practically Prohibited, but Conclude to Defer Action and the Measure Is Lost in the Shuffle.

REDONDO, Aug. 15.—The City Trustees "played to a crowded house" at the last meeting, when the much-mooted license question was to have been thrashed out. Owing to the interceding of President D. T. Garnsey of the Los Angeles and Redondo Railway, action on the matter was postponed and the contemplated ordinance was lost in the shuffle.

The proposed ordinance hits the liquor dealers a "solar plexus" blow by increasing their license from $150 to $300 per month, which is practically prohibitive. What the outcome will be is a matter of conjecture owing to the absence of one of the members of the board, thus leaving the question of the passage of the ordinance equally divided.

Another matter which was watched with considerable interest by the large number of spectators present was the bidding of the rival newspapers for the municipal advertising, which was quoted at the following prices by the respective papers: Reflex, 22½ cents per inch for first insertion, subsequent 10 cents; Breeze, 15 cents, subsequent 5 cents. The clerk was instructed to readvertise for bids.

ONE MASQUERADE.

A masquerade was held last night at the pavilion and the hall was crowded with masqueraders and spectators.

King Careadam and his band of Zulu Fiji Islanders arrived en masque and took part in the evening's festivities. At 8:30 o'clock the grand march started, led by King Careadam, or Harry Schoneman, and he was followed by large number of masqueraders. Prizes were awarded thus: Best gentleman's costume, Harry Schoneman, representing King Careadam; best ladies' costume, Mrs. A. Anderson, snow girl in winter; best gentleman's sustained character, Guy Barry, Irish hod carrier; best sustained character, ladies, Miss Fitzgerald, Sis Hopkins; most comical character, gentleman's, Charles J. Funk, hobo with "jag;" most comical character, ladies, Miss Alice A. Swain, Dinah.

DEATH OF MRS. M'GARVIN.

Mrs. Mary E. McGarvin died Sunday evening at her home in Redondo, after a long illness. She was a native of Missouri and 55 years of age. The body was removed to El Monte, where the funeral took place.

Chicago, Ill., April 8, 1906.

Mr. W. F. McBurney, Los Angeles, Cal.—Dear Sir: It affords me pleasure to testify to the efficacy of your Kidney and Bladder Cure. I have been troubled with my kidneys and bladder for over four years. I have been treated by the best physicians of this city during that time. (I mention two who stand at the head of the profession, viz.: Dr. C. A. Purdy and Dr. Frank Walls, the latter being my son.) I regret to say they did me no good. I was advised to spend the winter in your glorious climate and try the ocean baths. I visited San Diego, Santa Monica and Santa Barbara, but received only temporary relief from the baths. On the night I left home I got a bottle of your medicine. The first dose did me good, and I was well when I reached home, and I can say in conclusion that I am grateful to you. If this letter is of any use to you, use it. THOS. WALLS.

Send 25c for five days' treatment and get relief in 20 minutes. Kidney and Bladder Cure, $1.50. Liver and Blood Purifier, $1.00. Sold by all druggists.

Recognition of Owens River Boosters.

Chamber of Commerce Honors Committee.

At the close of the meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday a pleasant little ceremony of recognition was tendered the committee of gentlemen who recently went to Washington in the interest of securing the right of way across governent lands for the Owens River conduit.

This committee was composed of W. B. Mathews, City Attorney; William Mulholland, superintendent of the city water works; W. J. Washburn and J. O. Koepfli, representing the Chamber of Commerce, together with F. P. Flint, United States Senator, and James McLachlan, member of Congress.

W. D. Stephens of the Chamber of Commerce stated it to be the desire of that organization to show appreciation of the successful efforts of the gentlemen named in securing the passage of the bill giving the right of way. "It was our desire to tender to you a reception and banquet," said Mr. Stephens, "but we deemed it best to defer that function until we can give large expression to the belief in the Owens River proposition. The board of expert engineers will soon be appointed and when their report is made will be a proper time. We believe absolutely in the Owens River as presenting the only hope of a sufficient future water supply, but the Chamber of Commerce stands committed to it only when it is indorsed by a board of competent engineers.

"We believe absolutely in William Mulholland, both as a man and as an engineer, and we stand ready to carry out any recommendation he may make when his opinions have been confirmed, as we believe they will be in every particular."

On behalf of the Chamber of Commerce, as representatives of the citizens of Los Angeles, Mr. Stephens then read the following address:

THANKS OF THE CITY.

"Within the last few weeks you have won at Washington for the city of Los Angeles a magnificent and most important victory, snatched by your valiant efforts from the very jaws of defeat. To your loyalty, your intelligent zeal, your skill and patience, and above all to your indomitable pluck, we now owe it that the city has acquired the untrammeled right to bring over the lands of the government to the top of the Tejunga Range those waters of the Owens River Valley which it has bought and paid for, and the right to use which is indisputable.

"You indignantly rejected all the invidious conditions and trammels which if accepted would have prevented the city from using its own waters as it may see fit in every lawful way, for the benefit of this municipality and surrounding territory.

"And it is to your efforts also that we owe the right to acquire from the government, in the future, invaluable reservoir sites, together with the necessary rights of way, for the collection, conservation and conveyance of waste waters of the valley, in case it should be determined by the city to avail itself of such rights.

"You have accomplished these great things for us during the last days of the session of Congress, in the face of the most determined opposition, both from private and official sources, which to men of less loyalty and pluck would have been insurmountable. And when, at the last moment, you realized that this well-organized and strenuous opposition had successfully closed in your faces every door of ordinary official procedure, you had the inspired wisdom and high courage to invoke the aid of the Chief Executive of the nation, and forthwith every official door flew open at the magic of the President's name. All loyal citizens of Los Angeles may well be glad for the strenuous nature and methods of Theodore Roosevelt.

"You have deserved well of the city, and we now gladly tender to you the grateful thanks of your fellow-citizens, and bid you welcome home from the field of your victory."

ALL PATRIOTS FAVOR IT.

Senator Flint was called for and in the course of his remarks he said:

"Any man who should do anything to defeat this proposition is not only an unpatriotic man, but a dishonest man. This city is made up of citizens from every State in the Union, and when anything comes before Congress affecting the interests of Los Angeles, it touches members from every State. It is most fortunate that William Mulholland, with his technical knowledge and thorough acquaintance with conditions, was a member of your committee. He answered every question asked by the Congressional committee in a clear-cut, intelligent and convincing way, while Mr. Mathews, with his thorough legal knowledge and familiarity with the laws of California, was of inestimable value.

"There could not have been a more fortunate selection of men to represent you in this matter. Without such support it would not have been possible to pass this bill, and I can now assure you that in all your plans you will have the support of Congress and of the Chief Executive of the nation."

Mr. Mathews declared that the interest by President Roosevelt in the work being done in Los Angeles is most remarkable, and that this was shown in a peculiar way by his espousal of our cause in urging the passage of the bill giving right of passage over government lands.

OUR MODEST WILLIAM.

"I am well-nigh rendered speechless," said Superintendent Mulholland when he was called on for a speech, "by the words of commendation of the little I have been able to do in forwarding this great project. Whatever I may have done before, I shall simply regard as preparatory to what I may hope to do for this great plan for bringing to our city this magnificent water supply of the Owens River Valley.

"I am waiting with all the expectancy of a young bride the coming of these great engineers. I have no embarrassment whatever in meeting them, for I feel confident they will indorse every position I have taken.

"I have gone over the ground with Mr. Lippincott without making any suggestion in the way of winning his coöperation of the work. Of one thing you may rest assured, the personnel of these engineers will be acceptable to everybody who has knowledge of the eminent engineers of this country and of the world."

Messrs. Washburn and Koepfli spoke briefly, but Mr. McLachlan was not present.

ABOUT SAN PEDRO.

Senator Flint took occasion at the meeting adjourned to call attention of those present to the importance of government improvements at San Pedro.

"It is very desirable," he said, if the holdings of the people in San Pedro are not made secure, and if the city is not speedily fortifying the harbor, that the site be secured and offered to the government, and also a site for the submarine station and a number of forts. If this is done I surely believe that at the next session of Congress we can obtain appropriations for these purposes.

"We ought to have the submarine station, and if there is any place in Los Angeles from any place in the west, it is because they have a better harbor than we have."

PLAN WAR ON THISTLES.

Riverside County Officials Discussing Ways to Eradicate Harmful Russian Plants.

CORONA, Aug. 15.—Two members of the Horticultural Board of Riverside county made a trip yesterday over the Russian thistle territory extending from this side of the Santa Ana River to the San Bernardino county line. The thistle is in evidence along the roadside and in nearly all the ranches. As the territory infested is devoted largely to alfalfa and grain, the ranchers are menaced with a weed that demands prompt attention for its eradication.

This plant is an annual and is propagated only by the seed, which makes it imperative that the work of eradication be performed this month, after which time the seeds will begin to mature. The Russian thistle plant when ripe in the autumn becomes detached from the ground and wafted by the winds, goes rolling across the country distributing thousands of seeds over a wide area of territory.

A special meeting of the Board of Horticultural Commissioners will be held in Riverside Friday to take action in the matter of eradicating the pest as thoroughly as possible.

FIRE DESTROYS PROPERTY.

Fire of unknown origin raged Sunday afternoon in the stubble fields one-half mile west of the city limits, and burned west and north, extending over the lands owned by Dr. M. B. Huff, Henry Frazier and also across the Larrabee ranch.

Fences, some machinery and twenty tons of straw were destroyed. The ranchers plowed around their property and stopped the fire.

THREE HURT IN RUNAWAY.

Andy McPhearson, with his twelve-year-old son, Thomas, and Kirk Sargent of the same age, were all thrown from the McPhearson carriage last evening in a runaway. The elder McPhearson sustained wounds on his forehead and wrist and his son was badly bruised. Young Sargent was run over by the vehicle and injured on his forehead and knee. The carriage was smashed to kindling wood.

CORONA NEWS BRIEFS.

From November 1, 1905, to the present date, 883 carloads of oranges and lemons were shipped from Corona, 643 cars having been sent out by Queen Colony Fruit Exchange through its five associations. Lemons are now being shipped at the rate of two carloads a week.

The funeral of George Nelmes, who died from blood poisoning, was held Sunday from Odd Fellows' Hall. Interment was at Sunny Slope Cemetery.

The Corona City Water Company will improve its domestic water service in the western part of the colony by expending $3000 in the purchase and laying of 7000 feet of four-inch pipe.

Mrs. Fairbanks will erect a cottage on her Washburn-street lot, between Sixth and Seventh streets.

Misses Florence Barber, Carrie and Myrtle Newkirk and Grace Todd, with Mrs. Elizabeth Sweet as chaperon, left Monday for a two weeks' camping outing at Mountain View Camp, San Gabriel Cañon.

LOSES EYESIGHT, MAY DIE.

Young Man Working on Dock at Newport Beach is Badly Injured in Accident.

NEWPORT BEACH, Aug. 15.—Edward Ceasar, aged 17, while working for the Newport Lumber Company on the dock here today, was knocked off a freight car by a sling of lumber and injured so badly that there is little hope for his recovery. He struck on his head with great force and received severe concussion of the brain. He was made blind by the fall and soon became unconscious. The unfortunate young man was removed to Santa Ana and later was taken to the Southern Pacific Hospital in Los Angeles. When the accident occurred he was helping unload the ship J. M. Griffith, which is discharging a large cargo of lumber.

MAKING LAGOON INLET.

Many teams and men are engaged in digging a canal on Thirty-sixth street for the purpose of making a waterway from the ocean to the artificial lake. The completion of the project will allow the water in the lake to be raised two feet higher than at present. The new bath-house near the lake will be completed in a few weeks.

GATHERING LARGE BEAN CROP.

The crop of 11,000 acres of beans on the mesa north of Newport Beach is now being gathered and threshing will soon be commenced. Of the crop 9000 acres are of lima beans, the remainder being of the blackeye and small white varieties. The crop is much larger than last year's yield and the returns from the total area indicated will be more than $150,000.

NEWPORT BEACH NOTES.

The annual Orange county W.C.T.U. Institute will be held at Newport Beach on August 23 and 23.

Lou Smith, who keeps the store at the foot of the wharf, was severely stung by a stingray yesterday while he was digging clams in the surf.

SEEKS DAUGHTER'S RELEASE.

Mother of Woman in Jail at Riverside Is Likely to Withdraw Her Prosecution.

RIVERSIDE, Aug. 15.—Mrs. L. De Plaa is now trying to secure the release from prison of her daughter, Mrs. Josephine Roaf, who has been languishing in jail here for two weeks under the charge lodged by her mother that she was living illegally with Curtis Middlepaugh, a bee rancher in the foothills near this city.

According to the story told by the prisoner's mother, her daughter deserted her husband in Minnesota and came West with her young son. After Mrs. Roof's arrival here she met Middlepaugh and they became greatly attached. Mrs. Roof then left her son with her mother and took up quarters in Middlepaugh's home. The mother recently swore out a warrant and her daughter was taken to jail. Mrs. Roof has become quite penitent and has promised her mother that she will never have anything more to do with Middlepaugh. Mrs. Roof is aged 22 and is good looking.

FROM RIVERSIDE TO OCEAN.

Trolley Line from Huntington Beach to Orange Belt May Soon Be Built.

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Aug. 15.—An electric railway between Riverside and Huntington Beach, via Santa Ana, will be built shortly, according to statements made here today by W. F. Newland, one of the most prominent ranchers in this section. The Huntington Beach Company is said to be backing the project. The rights of way for a line betwen this beach and Santa Ana were secured several months ago by the company. It is reported that the company has agents at work getting rights of way between Santa Ana and Riverside, and that work on the road will commence about September 1.

IS CRIPPLED IN THE CHASE.

INTO A DITCH FALLS THE VENTURA SHERIFF.

While Running for Man Who Sprints Desperately to Get Away the County Officer Gets a Tumble Which Disables Him and Gives the Man a Chance to Escape.

VENTURA, Aug. 15.—Sheriff McMartin is confined to his home with a badly sprained ankle, and a crook and sharper he would like very much to have is at large and heading for some other community upon which to prey. It was in trying to catch this particular sharper that the Sheriff met the accident to his ankle.

For several days a chap has been operating in town with bad bills, which he passed on the unsuspecting. It is known that he got rid of one $5 bill. Then the officers were informed and the Sheriff started out to round up his man. Thinking he had left town the officer went to the depot telegraph office last night to send messages to outside officers.

Stepping into the depot the Sheriff espied his man sitting there and waiting for a train. At sight of the officer the man started for the door and bolted out into the night. The officer was hot after him. He called to the man to halt. There was no stop, and the Sheriff sent two bullets after the fugitive. This only made him run the faster.

Suddenly the fleeing man fell into a ditch in his way. The Sheriff jumped at him and himself fell into the same ditch. The pursued jumped out and slipped away in the darkness, but the pursuer tried to get up and continue the chase, but could not. He had sprained his ankle too badly to follow and the man wanted is still thought to be running.

WIDOW CHARMER CONVICTED.

Michael Ward, the widow charmer, was convicted yesterday in the court here on a charge of embezzlement in having defrauded the Collins Bank out of $100 with the pretense that he needed the money to pay his help. He said he had a large number of men working for him at Matilija and expected a draft for $5000. Both statements proved to be false and the jury promptly found Ward guilty as charged. The convicted man is said to have a record in several States, his particular forte being making love to widows and then borrowing their money from them.

SANTA ANA CITIZENS MARCH.

Make Night Visit to Trustee to Protest Against Opening of Street.

SANTA ANA, Aug. 15.—A number of residents of the First Ward assembled last night and marched in a body to the Fourth Ward for a formal call on City Trustee Black, to protest against the opening of Bush street north from Tenth street. The First Ward is without representation on the Board of Trustees owing to a deadlock among the four members. Trustees Wright, Edgar and Tiede could not be found last night.

Black listened to the protestants against the improvement of Bush street, and informed them that when he voted for the opening he was not aware that the property owners were so strongly opposed to it. He promised that if the delegation would be present at the Trustees' meeting Monday night he would have the matter taken up for reconsideration. With this promise in view the citizens dispersed. The chances are that a fight will develop on Monday night before the matter is settled.

HONORED BY RECEPTION.

Prof. and Mrs. J. C. Templeton were given a farewell reception in the parlors of the Methodist Church last night. An interesting musical programme was rendered, and speeches were made eulogising Mr. Templeton and his work in this city during the seven years that he has been superintendent of public schools. Mr. Templeton will leave shortly for Carson City.

FULLERTON TOWN TOPICS.

FULLERTON, Aug. 15.—H. G. Meiser has been appointed manager of the Fullerton Vegetable Union. During the next several weeks a large crop of sweet potatoes will be shipped. It is believed that the prices will run higher than last year as the demand is active.

Alex Gardiner and wife and Lilburn Gardiner and family, the A. B. and Bert Annin families and Mrs. J. A. Vail have gone to Huntington Beach for a month's outing.

S. Toussau is building a residence at Anaheim and will move to that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Corona have gone to Newport for a two weeks' outing.

W. E. Anders of Buena Park, formerly of Fullerton, will return shortly from an extended visit at his old home near New Orleans.

Mrs. Sarah J. McFadden and her son, Robert, have gone to Palo Alto to reside the next four years. Robert will take a four-year course at Stanford University and Ralph McFadden, now in the north, will also complete his education at Stanford.

BELIEVE MANAGER IS DEAD.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] All hope of finding Worth Merritt alive has, apparently, been given up. N. H. Ruby and Frank Webb have returned here after having gone over all the country where Merritt was last seen.

They not only made search in every direction, but remained near Lake Pelican, hoping against hope that some clew would be found or that a rumor might arise which would bear investigation. Their long stay was without result. Not even the slightest traces of the man were discovered.

Merritt was general manager of the San Diego Gem Company. He left here, with the intention of crossing the desert to the Colorado River. William T. Hill will leave here tomorrow with a burro train in a last attempt to find the body.

AFTER SAWTELLE POSTOFFICE.

SOLDIERS' HOME, Aug. 15.—The question as to who will be postmaster of Sawtelle is piling up an agony of conjecture. In addition to those heretofore mentioned, a petition is being circulated recommending another veteran member of the home, Benjaman Franklin Kratzer is the latest. Like the half-score of aspirants already working on the appointing powers, Mr. Kratzer's friends affirm that he "is in every way worthy of consideration." He with his family was a pioneer resident of the town, when it, as well as the postoffice, was known as Barrettville.

Prominent official changes of the home are H. H. Waymon, late Co. A, Sixth and B, Fifty-third Kentucky Infantry, appointed Inspector, vice O'Connor, resigned. H. K. Goodwin, late Co. H, Second Massachusetts Artillery, appointed sergeant of home Co. F, vice De Haven, resigned. H. W. Clark, late captain Co. M, Eighth Indiana Cavalry, appointed superintendent of the post store, vice Sawyer, resigned.

James Powers, late Co. A, Twenty-first United States Infantry, a native of Ireland, admitted from Downey in 1902, died August 12, aged 66.

Alfred Glass, late Co. C, Sixteenth Ohio Infantry, a native of Ohio, admitted from Grand Island, Neb., in 1891; died August 14, aged 75.

Figueroa Boulevard Tract
Reached by the Moneta Avenue Electric Line—Five Cent Car Fare

The Newest and Best

This beautiful new tract presents a combination of desirable frontages possessed by no other property on the market. It fronts east on Figueroa street, north on Florence avenue and west on Hoover street, three of the finest thoroughfares in Greater Los Angeles.

The improvements are of the highest class. It has ornamental trees and shade trees, wide cement walks, deep curbs, graded and oiled streets. Pure artesian water piped to every lot.

Three lines of electric cars are there already and another line is in prospect—on Hoover street—giving this location a service second to none.

A still further advantage is in the car fare, which is only 5 cents.

The price of lots is based on the cost of acreage a year ago, making the opening prices lower than lots in any other location of equal desirability.

50-Foot Lots Only $375

Terms could not well be easier. Come in and get map. As the tract is now being advertised for the first time, the choicest frontages may be secured by immediate application.

Until the Moneta avenue car line is in operation, which will be about September 1, take the Gardena branch of the Redondo line at Second and Spring, or the San Pedro Interurban line at Third and Hill streets and get off at Florence avenue.

The activity in banking circles is continuously great this week. The exchanges passing through the local clearing-house yesterday were $2,439,086.57, quite a substantial increase over the general average of the current year. The figures ran $400,000 or 15 per cent. greater than for the corresponding day a year ago, and very nearly 100 per cent. greater than two years ago.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

The produce market was quiet in nearly all lines yesterday; receipts were ample and few changes were made in prices.

Receipts of eggs were 300 cases. The demand for eggs the last few days has been almost lifeless on account of the warm weather. No change is expected in the immediate situation. Shipments of eggs from Tulare county are of good proportion.

Butter was featureless. Cheese offered nothing new to report.
